Aggies Missed Boat

Constructive Change Needed in Ag Week

The Aggies have missed the boat again. Another Ag Week has come without any constructive change in the format of the festivities. It's even too wet to get any satisfaction out of dunking a vet student.

The Aggies have a running feud with the School of Veterinary Medicine that they resurrect each year during Ag Week. Also, during the past several years, they have instituted a feud with the Collegian.

In addition to these worthwhile pursuits during Ag Week, they dress in provincial garb, immerse non-conformists in a horse tank, and elect a queen to reign over this nonsense.

During the past week this writer had to produce a story explaining Ag Week for general distribution to the newspapers of Kansas. Actually the crux of the aggie-journalism feud may lie with the fact that the journalists are embarrassed to write stories explaining with a straight face that this is an annual event at K-State.

Something constructive might result from all this horseplay, if it were practiced in connection with some reasonably beneficial event. It might be effective promotion for the Little American Royal.

The Royal needs boosting as a campus event, rather than as an Ag School exclusive. The wearing of the blue (jeans) would remind students of the Royal, and also would provide an outlet for the Aggies' boyish spirits.—Doreen Cronkite.

The Saints March On

Historic First Just Doesn't Last; Cow College Gets Military Look

For the past week, an air of mystery has shrouded the matter of Marlene Young being replaced as K-State drum major. Many have wondered, but few have known, why she was overlooked in favor of another this year.

Here's the answer we got:

Band Director Jean Hedlund said that "it's a case of finding a drum major I liked better than the one the band had."

"Nancy Howard fits my military style of band better than Miss Young," he said. "After holding tryouts, Miss Howard seemed best fitted for the job."

Marlene, who last year was named as the first female drum major in the 92-year history of K-State, was given no other reason for her dismissal. She was offered a position as twirler with the band, but decided against taking the demotion. The band was left with the impression that she had resigned.

While we do not deny Hedlund's authority to make this move, we do disagree with the reasoning behind it. First, of course, is Marlene's popularity with K-Staters, who thought enough of her to elect her Homecoming queen last fall. Then, last spring, she was named "Coed of the Month" by a national magazine. In addition, she now is well-known across the state, and has become a K-State symbol.

We believe that much of the popularity of the K-State band last year was due to Marlene's performance. It wasn't just the fine playing of the band that made K-Staters sit up and take a second look at the group. Many persons commented that Marlene was the best drum major they had seen.

Everyone remembers that the band became so popular last fall that an unprecedented move was made in selling oranges to send the group to the Colorado game at Boulder. Who really believes that Marlene's performance didn't bring much of that popularity?

All of these things make a big score to be overbalanced by a lack of militarism. And, if she was removed because she didn't fit a military type of band, we would like to know what is military about the band's three female twirlers in short skirts.

The student body has no say in the matter, of course, but who wants a military band at a college anyway?

K-Staters Favor Naming Union After Those Who Financed It

By Dick Carr

Question: What do you think the new Union building should be called?

Gene Austin, Geo Jr—"Name it after the people who put the most money into it."

Gerald Fortner, Ag Fr—"The name is immaterial to me. What I'm concerned about is that they aren't going to sell beer in it, like they do in the University of Wisconsin Union."

Jon Duell, BA Sr—"Let's call it the Alumni Memorial Union, or name it for Kenney Ford, because it's the alumni who've paid for it and built it."

Kathleen Higer, Mth Fr—"Call it the K-Staters Union because it's to be a respectable place for college kids to gather."

Leann Riggs, Hst So—"I think it should be named the Student Union because that's what it is."

Barbara Train, HE Fr—"Call it the Train Union, because I helped pay for it too."

U. S. Planes Aid Flooded Gulf Area

Tampico, Mexico (U.P.)—U.S. navy helicopters and air force C-46's carrying food and medicines provided a lifeline today for hundreds of persons marooned throughout the Gulf Coast zone flooded by the Big Panuco and Tamesi rivers.

An area of 30,000 square miles was reported flooded in the wake of two hurricanes. The water still was rising at the rate of 2 inches an hour. Tropical storms Gladys and Hilda last month took almost 300 lives. Hundreds of others still are missing. At least 75,000 persons are reported homeless.

The 14 helicopters arrived Saturday afternoon on the aircraft carrier Saipan with huge stores of food and medicine for the stricken port city of Tampico, which has been inundated for 32 days.

A fleet of C-46's are shuttling from Harlingen and Ellington air force bases in Texas to the stricken area.

German Soldiers May Be in Uniform Soon

Bonn, Germany—West Germany's first soldiers may be in uniform before the end of October, a defense ministry spokesman said yesterday.

The government hopes to enlist 6,000 volunteers by next March 31 as cadre for the new 500,000-man defense force. The spokesman said the first volunteers may be enrolled this month.

Egypt's Arms Purchases May Draw U.S. Wrath

Washington—Secretary of State John Foster Dulles may disclose today whether the United States plans to toughen its policy toward Egypt in the explosive Middle East situation.

Dulles faces questioning at a news conference at noon on what this country will do if Egypt goes through with its planned purchase of heavy weapons from Communist Czechoslovakia.

Dulles conferred on the matter yesterday with British Foreign Secretary Harold MacMillan. Western diplomats are concerned that the arms sale will encourage more fighting between Egypt and Israel.

Jim Furey Named Top Cat In Wildcat-Husker Game

By ROGER MYERS

Jim Furey, starting center and captain of the Wildcats, was named "Player of the Week" by Cat Coach Bus Mertes.

"The rugged center easily played his best game against Nebraska," said Paul Dewese. "Jim makes a lot of crucial tackles and is in on more plays than any other Wildcat."

It should be noted that Furey played over 75 per cent of the Kansas State-Nebraska game.

"Jim Furey is the surest man we have at center," said coach Mertes. "His mechanics are excellent. Jim is a good candidate for all-Big Seven center," he said. Furey received honorable mention on the all-Big Seven Associated Press team last season.

This six foot, 215-pound line-man is smooth and powerful on both offense and defense. His well-managed bulk serves him well as a defensive linebacker. "Jim is very capable on defense," Mertes said. Furey was a big factor in K-State's improved record of 1954.

Jim's home is Newark, New Jersey, where he won all-conference honors as center for Barrington high school in 1950. He lettered four time in football, twice in baseball and once in track.

Known as 'Big Jim,' around West stadium, Jim flashes a handsome smile, and is popular with his teammates. He is majoring in history and government.

When questioned about the Marquette game next Saturday, Jim said, "It's a must game and will take an all-out determination by the team to win it."

"The least said the better," was his comment on the Nebraska game. Jim referred to the Big Seven as a "wide open race," and asserted that Kansas State would "give a lot of teams a lot of trouble."

Whitehead Leads In Punt Returns, Has 27.5 Average

From statistics released by the Missouri Valley Intercollegiate Athletic association after the games of October 1, Bob Whitehead of K-State is the leading punt returner in the Big Seven. Whitehead has returned 2 punts for a total of 55 yards or an average of 27.5 per return.

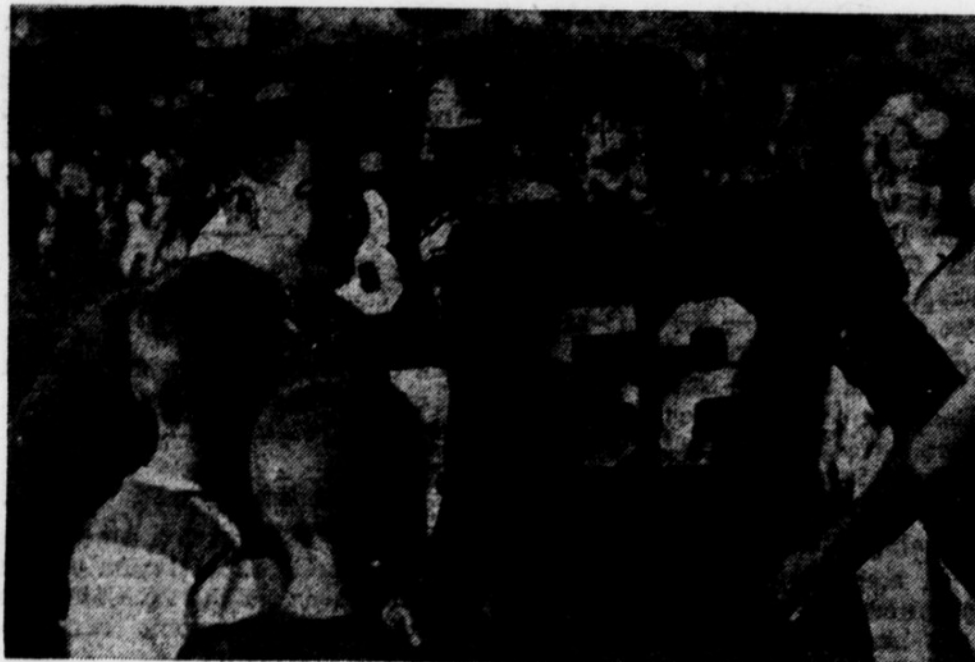

Doug Roether ranks ninth in rushing with a net gain of 102 yards in 28 tries.

In the punting department, K-State is represented by two players. Dick Allen ranks second with an average of 44 yards in 5 punts and Whitehead ranks fourth with an average of 38.2 yards on 17 punts.

Cat Foes Lose Five In Saturday's Action

Opponents of the Wildcat Grid squad this year, were all in action last Saturday with five of them coming out on the short end of the score.

In addition to the K-State-Nebraska game there was just one other conference game scheduled, in that one Colorado downed Kansas, 12-0. The other three conference teams met nonconference foes and only Oklahoma was able to come up with a victory as they defeated Pittsburgh, 26-14. Missouri was defeated by Utah, 20-14, and Iowa State was defeated by Illinois, 40-0.

Iowa, who had beaten K-State in it's last game, was defeated by Wisconsin, 37-14, while Wyoming another winner over K-State this year continued it's winning streak by defeating Utah State, 21-13.

Dr. Faust Says

Serious Dangers Oppose Education

America's educational system is faced with two opposed and equally serious dangers—those of ignorance and unreality, Dr. Clarence Faust said at the Farrell Library dedicatory assembly this morning.

Faust, president of the Ford Foundation Fund for the Advancement of Education, said America educators are aware of the perils which accompany lack of learning. But they are also aware of the perils of attachment to outworn systems of thought.

"There is a deep wisdom in this mixture of fears," Faust said. "The man who knows nothing except what his own immediate experience has taught him will inevitably fall into folly and cannot avoid tragic mistakes. The man who, on the other hand, feeds his mind wholly upon the experience and theories of others can hardly fail to make equally tragic mistakes."

The awareness of these twin dangers has been important in the shaping of America's educational system, Faust said. Various schools have successfully veered to one or the other of them and thus maintained a healthy and useful consideration of this issue.

America's greatest present danger in education lies in the tendency of some modern institutions to discredit knowledge and disciplined reflection, Faust said.

"We human beings live in three worlds—the world of things about us which we may experience directly, the world of ideas in which we form more or less adequate understanding of things, and the world of words through which we can communicate our ideas about things to each other," Faust said.

"The purpose of all education should be to bring these three worlds into appropriate harmony, he said. Education must form ideas and systems of ideas which adequately reflect the truth of things. It must teach language, both as it is received and communicated so that words have a clear relationship to thoughts and thoughts have a valid relationship to things.

The dedication of a library must be a happy and momentous occasion for a college community, Faust said.

"Books are the best devices mankind has so far developed for making the process of education effective," he said. "Books open our inspection to the thoughts of the dead as well as of the living and thus place at our command the ideas about the world which may illustrate our experience of it and form the basis of our knowledge and wisdom."

The world of words a library contains will, if properly used, enrich the world of ideas with which the words deal and provide a basis for mastery of present reality and a shaping of the real world of things to come, he said.

Honorary 'Mom, Dad' Reign Oct. 15

"K-State's Honorary Mom and Dad" will be chosen for the first time this year to reign over Parents' Day, October 15, Jean Cox, publicity sub-chairman of the K-State Parents' Day committee has announced.

Students whose parents plan to attend the K-State-Colorado game are asked to register their parents' names today and tomorrow from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. in Anderson hall. The names of the "Honorary Mom and Dad" will be drawn from this list.

The "Honorary Mom and Dad" will ride in the band parade on the morning of Parents' Day, receive free tickets to the K-State-Colorado football game, and be presented to the spectators at half-time of the game. In addition each will receive a gift.

Tentative schedule for Parents' Day, which is also Editors' Day and Band Day, will include tours of the campus from 9 to 12 a.m., a parade of high school bands at 10 a.m., a band demonstration at 12:45, and the football game at 2 p.m.

After the game coffees will be held at the organized houses and the Independent Students' Association will sponsor a coffee in Rec Center. Many of the organized houses will have buffet suppers in the evening.

Vets Mutilate Dunkin' Tank; Aggies Vow Sweet Revenge

An estimated 35 vet students descended upon the "aggie" horse tank yesterday with various chopping devices and mutilated the tank.

Three holes were chopped in the tank which Mark Drake, Ag Week manager said would be repaired today so that wayward aggies (and vets) would not be tossed into an empty tank.

"It is fortunate that 'aggies' are more ingenious than engineers," Drake commented. "We'll fix the tank in a matter of minutes but it would take an average engineer four months to do the same job."

More action is expected today in the battle between the "aggies" and the vets. One vet student remarked, "If we can't steal it (the horse tank), we'll ruin it."

Meanwhile "aggies" will wear their traditional garb of blue jeans, plaid shirts, and red bandanas the rest of this week.

Booths have been set up in Anderson hall and Waters hall where students may buy their tickets to the Barnwarmer and vote for their choice for Barnwarmer queen. Tickets are $1.50 per couple and each ticket purchaser is entitled to one vote, Drake said.

The Barnwarmer queen and her two attendants will be picked from five candidates: Marguerite Scherling, HE Soph; Diane Higley, PEW Fr; Janie Fulton, EEd Fr; Diane Whitley, HE Jr; and Dorothy Fox, HE Soph.

"The Barnwarmer is an all-College affair and though dress for it is usually jeans for the boys and cottons for the girls, this is optional," Drake said.

Jimmy Pierson and his band from Topeka will play at the dance Saturday night from 9 to 12.

Students will get to see the queen candidates doing various farming chores tomorrow at 4 p.m. in the quadrangle in front of Anderson, Drake said. Everyone is welcome to come, he said.

Library Dedication

To

Francis David Farrell

President of Kansas State College of Agriculture and Applied Science 1925-1943

In recognition of your notable contributions to the cause of education and to the youth of Kansas while President of Kansas State College, and in order that future generations of students and teachers at Kansas State College may be reminded of your vision and wisdom, Kansas State College wishes to enshrine permanently in the public memory recognition of these accomplishments and your distinguished service to country, to state, and to community.

Therefore with the official approval of the Board of Regents, and in behalf of the students, faculty, and alumni of Kansas State College, we specify that the College Library building shall hereafter be officially designated Farrell Library, and convey to you our warmest personal greetings and affection upon this fifth day of October, 1955.

President McCain presented Dr. F. D. Farrell a certificate at the assembly. The text of the certificate is printed above.

No More Mud In Union Lot

The Student Union parking lot will be resurfaced this summer, according to President McCain. A total of $35,200 has been approved by the Board of Regents for improvements in campus roads and parking lots. The approved amount is part of K-State's budget for the coming fiscal year.

R. F. Gingrich, maintenance superintendent, said that $5,000 of this total will be used to surface the parking area just north of the temporary Student Union.

The new surface of the lot will be "black-top." This is accomplished by spraying a hot asphalt compound on the surface of the parking area after it has been graded and graveled.

"We had hoped to get enough money in the appropriation to 'hot-top' the parking lot, but that will have to come in the future," Mr. Gingrich said.

"As it stands now, we'll hope for the breaks and try to save money every way we can. We will surface parking lots on the campus until the $5,000 runs out."

The proposed work on the Student Union lot is part of the landscaping program for the lawn area south of the new Union building. A sidewalk will separate the parking lot from the Student Union grounds.

The landscaping program will not reduce the size of the parking lot, Mr. Gingrich said. "Actually, we designed the new parking lot to include one more row for automobile parking. Later developments caused us to revise the planning and do without the added space. That will leave the parking space as big, or slightly larger, than it is now," Mr. Gingrich concluded.

Other items included in the appropriation are $3,200 to surface the service drive behind Van Zile hall; $10,000 to pave Mid-Campus drive from the milling and feeds building to its intersection with relocated Claflin road; and $17,000 for grading, curbing, and guttering on Claflin road from the new Extension building as far as the site of the proposed Animal Industries building.

25 CE Seniors On Field Trip To Kansas City

Twenty-five seniors and three professors of civil engineering are on a field trip to the Kansas City area, where they will inspect flood control projects.

The two-day field trip will end today. The students will hear talks by the Corps of Engineers, take part in an inspection trip aboard a river patrol boat, and inspect construction sites of the Kansas City area dealing with civil engineering.

Engineering firm members from Kansas City will explain the construction of the projects.

Group members and their leaders are Dr. R. F. Morse, Assoc. Prof. W. H. Rosebraugh, Asst. Prof. W. F. Robohn, Harold Baker, Darrel Brack, Norman Collins, Alden Dunkelberger, Martin Eby, Melvin Endicott, Monroe Funk, Don Garrett, Paul Gianakon, Bill Holm, Eldon Horner, Verle Lamb.

Dick Lage, Mackie Murphy, Paul Nixon, Jim Nolan, Don Schneider, Charles Scholer, Ghaleb Shahabuddin, Norris Smith, Arlo VanMeter, Paul Works, George Krieh, Milo Kratochvil, and Lawrence Nelson.

Election Procedure Contrary to Bylaws

Somebody goofed.

If the bylaws of the SGA constitution are followed, there will be no senior class election this year.

Article II, section 1, paragraph 2 of the bylaws says that "the date petitions of nominations are due, the date of election, and the regulations pertaining to the particular election involved shall be published in the Collegian at least 10 days before the first mentioned date."

An announcement was given to the Collegian Monday night which said that petitions would be due October 12. The notice was printed yesterday, less than the 10 days required by the bylaw.

Article II, Section 2, paragraph 3 of the bylaws says that "petitions for senior class officers shall be filed with the Student Council at least 10 days prior to the election."

Since the election dates have been set for October 20 and 21, all petitions filed after October 10 would be invalid. Yet the final date to accept petitions shall be October 12, the election committee states.

Article II, section 2, paragraph 1 of the bylaws says that "for senior class officers the election date shall be not more than six weeks after the beginning of the fall semester."

Election dates set by the committee, October 20 and 21, are in the sixth week of school. If the election committee were to establish new dates for petitions deadline, election, etc., according to the time intervals specified in the bylaws, then the election would have to be later than six weeks from the beginning of the fall semester, which would be contrary to the bylaws.

So, under the existing bylaws, there will be no legal senior class election. The Student Council would have to change the bylaws before an election could be possible.

I suggest that the senior class election be eliminated.

Why do we elect senior officers?

A few years ago election of freshman, sophomore, and junior class officers was eliminated because those officers didn't do anything. Senior officers don't do anything so why do we elect them?

The Council will undoubtedly discuss the situation at its meeting Monday in Anderson. That would be as good a time as any to eliminate the last of the class officers.

Dear editor:

It is becoming increasingly evident that the critical shortage of parking space has become even more acute this semester with the increase in enrollment. This parking situation is far beyond the point at which something should be done about it.

Let us look at other colleges and universities across the nation, as this seems to be standard operating procedure when handling a problem of this sort. Many have restricted cars to off-the-campus parking, while others have segregated the freshman class and restricted it from campus parking. Others are going still further by restricting freshmen from using cars altogether.

I would propose the latter solution, for several reasons. First, and of primary importance, this would reduce the parking shortage to a minimum, which is our principal aim. Second, it is an established belief, if not a fact, that the first year of college is an ultimate criterion in the student's scholastic career.

Furthermore, it has been shown that a higher per cent of freshmen who bring their cars to college receive low grades than do freshmen who don't have cars. It is my belief that nothing could affect the life of a person more than a college education, and the first year should be a good one to lay a solid foundation for future college life.

Regardless of the plan adopted, the fact remains that something must be done. It is extremely difficult to believe that the cars parked four deep down the center lane—too close for anyone except those in the outside row to move—could belong to college adults.

Those who have been pinned in, as I have been many times, know the frustration and anxiety of this ridiculous and unnecessary predicament.

I solicit the readers of the Collegian to express their views on this problem that confronts every one of us enrolled at Kansas State college.

Sincerely,
Arthur L. Pinhero, PrM Jr.

Doctor Is Opposed To Alcoholism Trend

By Dr. Karl Bowman

(Dr. Karl Bowman has spent 20 years in research on the problem of alcoholism in America. He recently expressed the opinion that little progress is being made toward solving the problem.)

San Francisco (U.P.)—The statement that the United States is fast becoming a "nation of alcoholics" is not far from the truth. Certainly there are more people using alcohol all the time.

Considering the fact that in 1950 approximately $8 billion were spent for alcohol and only $6 billion were spent for education, there would appear to be a question of the good judgment of the people.

At the present time, there appears to be no clear solution to the problem. It is complex, and no general cure is applicable to all alcoholics.

The problem of alcoholism is something a great many of us have been working on for a number of years. We have attempted to find some solution to it, and we have attempted to discover its causes. There has been no simple answer.

Research has produced a great many "cures," some of which have proved effective in some cases, others of which have been discarded. One thing has been found: There are different reasons why individual persons become alcoholic.

We also have found that there is no "single type" of individual or person who becomes an alcoholic.

Roger J. Williams has theorized that alcoholism stems from a hereditary factor which requires that unusually large amounts of certain foods be taken in by the body. If such large amounts are not consumed, a vitamin deficiency occurs.

He says that deficiency leads a person to a craving for alcohol, and eventually to alcoholism. He also says that additions of vitamins to the diet will eliminate the craving for alcohol, and thus act as a cure for alcoholism.

Williams has tried his theory on rats and has had successful results. That type of approach may contain something valuable, and it certainly merits investigation.

But I don't think you are going to cure the problem of these people merely by giving them vitamins.

The present tendency is to think that alcoholism is a symptom of an underlying personality disorder. I think it is a complicated problem that may have many different causes.

However, there are indications that where a culture encourages and tolerates alcoholism the people tend to have more of it.

UN Sets Aside Debate on Algeria

United Nations, N.Y. (U.P.)—United Nations diplomats sought today to sidetrack debate on Algeria and bring France back into the world body.

The explosive Algerian problem was assigned to the UN political committee, which held its organizational meeting yesterday, following the close of policy debate in the general assembly.

France walked out of the UN after the general assembly decided by a one-vote margin to debate the Algerian crisis.

French Legion Routs Moroccan Tribesmen

Taza, Morocco—Foreign Legion tank and infantry relief columns ground their way from Taza into the Riff valley of death and routed fierce Berber tribesmen besieging two French outposts, officials disclosed today.

Resident General Pierre Georges Boyer de Latour took personal command of the French counteroffensive, and poured all his reserves into pursuit of the outlaw bands.

Legionnaires shattered the iron manacle that the savage tribesmen had clamped on outposts Bourred and Tizi Ouzli four days ago.

Their breakthrough saved the survivors of an outnumbered garrison, who had fought a no-retreat action while their battlements burned around them.

Thousands Trapped by Tampico Floodwaters

Tampico, Mexico—Fourteen U.S. Navy helicopters plucked hundreds of victims from a tiny island of land in the heart of watery Tampico today in a desperate attempt to evacuate the homeless before they drowned in steadily rising floodwaters.

Some 60,000 persons concentrated in a 36-block area of dry land waited to be airlifted to safety some 80 miles away over acres of muddy waters.

Peron Describes Self as Broke, Doublecrossed

Asuncion, Paraguay—Ousted former Argentine president Juan D. Peron today described himself as a man without wealth, doublecrossed and forced into exile by his own generals. He said he still is the "constitutional president" of Argentina.

He said he could have continued to resist the revolution with his "chances of success absolute." But he said it would have meant "prolonging the struggle, killing many people, and destroying that which it cost us so much to build."

He did not rule out the possibility that "some day it would occur to me" to return to Argentine politics, but said that for now he intended to remain quietly in Paraguay.

Gridders Prepare For Marquette Tilt

MARQUETTE PLAYS were the theme of the day for Wildcat gridders as they practiced for the game next Saturday against the Warriors. Marquette lost to Wisconsin in its season opener then defeated Tulsa last Saturday.

Wildcat gridders ran through a two part practice session yesterday afternoon in preparation for the upcoming game with Marquette this Saturday night in Milwaukee.

The first session was spent on passing and passing defense, while the second session was spent scrimmaging against the freshman squad who ran plays used by Marquette.

"Bill Carrington has been shifted to fullback and will play there until he is needed elsewhere," coach Mertes said.

The entire squad was present for practice and the 45 minute scrimmage session produced no injuries. Mertes said that Marquette would undoubtedly be a tough opponent.

"They beat Tulsa pretty bad and gave Wisconsin a good battle," he said.

Due to the recent rains and a wet turf, the practice was held in the Field House.

This afternoon's practice will be spent practicing both offensive and defensive drills, Mertes said.

To Seek $69,000

College To Ask Legislature For Water Research Funds

Funds to begin research on watershed developments and surface water supplies in Kansas are included in the College's 1956 budget request, President McCain announced today.

The College will seek $69,000 for research on water problems, particularly as they affect production from the land and farm water supplies.

"Our water problems in Kansas are acute. However, there is little that can be done to solve these problems until we know better what the actual situation is, and what our needs are," McCain emphasized.

The College eventually would conduct field research in various watersheds in the state to determine the effects of various land treatments on crop yields, soil losses, and water losses.

The proposed research is planned in the phases of engineering, economic and agronomic. The project would be under the immediate supervision of a technical committee.

Economists would study the benefits Kansas people receive from the development in order to pro-rate the financing of the program.

"Much of this research is related to recommendations made by the Kansas Water Resources Fact-Finding and Research committee in their report, 'Water in Kansas,' which was published in 1954," the President said.

The research program would be closely coordinated and integrated since information collected in one area would be related to work going on in several other areas. The departments of agricultural economics, agronomy, civil engineering, and agricultural engineering would be working in the agricultural and engineering experiment stations.

Contacts, which the stations would have with other agencies would be invaluable in a research program of this type, McCain commented.

"The Kansas Agricultural Experiment station has cooperative arrangements with other state agencies and with federal agencies such as the United States department of agriculture, while the Engineering Experiment station has close contact with municipalities and industries," he said.

Although engineers, agronomists, and economists will be primarily concerned with the research, K-State has many specialists in other areas who could consult on specific problems. These experts include geologists, physiologists, bacteriologists, chemists, veterinarians, and livestock specialists.

KS Fire Dept. Answers Two False Alarms

Two fire alarms called out the College fire department last night, but the department was unable to find any trace of fire.

Case Bonebrake, head of the heat and power plant, said fire trucks were sent to the scene of each reported fire immediately after each call was received.

Bonebrake reported nothing could be found, not even smoke, at both places.

The first alarm came at 5:45 last night, and the voice on the wire said Van Zile hall was burning.

An hour later, another phone call informed the fire department of a so-called fire in the temporary student union.

Both times a fire truck and its volunteer firemen reported to the scene, only to find nothing unusual.

"THE LIP," or Robert Schuster, VM Fr, encountered a little difficulty with some aggies yesterday and wound up with four stitches in his lip. His spirits remain high, though, and he claims he's still in the fight.

Vets, Aggies Clash; Glasses, Fists Fly

By JOAN ALBERS
Of the Collegian Staff

The struggle between the vets and aggies increased in momentum yesterday leaving in its wake several injuries, a pair of broken glasses, at least one damaged wrist watch, further damages to the horse tank, several torn shirts, and other damages too extensive to be calculated.

Bob Schuster, VM Fr, had his lip cut open. The wound required four stitches to close it. The stitches were administered at Student Health which is standing by for further casualties today.

Dick Carr, Collegian reporter, had his glasses broken when he was caught in the struggle between the vets and aggies. He came out of the struggle bruised and torn and someone had in his possession a camera which is valued at several hundred dollars. It was returned, however.

"Carr was taking a calculated risk, making comments about aggies around a tank where they were throwing everyone in," Mark Drake, ag week manager said. "He may have gotten more than he deserved but he should have expected it."

An unidentified vet student said that the vets were trying to protest Carr from the aggies.

Bill Murray, AH Sr, was chained to a lamp post twice yesterday by vet students. He escaped with only minor injuries, a broken wrist watch and a heel torn off one boot.

"It's the greatest fighting I've ever seen," Jack Brink, AH Jr, remarked. "I think the sides were pretty evenly matched and it was really great!"

"We were going to have a friendly tussle until the vets started throwing fists," Allan Henry, AH Soph, said. "We've got a good bunch of vets who would be good fighters if they would just fight clean."

An estimated 30 vet students combined forces yesterday and chopped a hole in the bottom of the horse tank. The tank has been repaired again.

Twice yesterday the vets threw red dye into the horse tank and twice yesterday vet students followed the red dye into the tank.

"It's impossible to calculate the number of vet students and aggies who were thrown into the tank yesterday," Drake said. "I went swimming myself once in the afternoon."

Most of the vets and aggies think the struggle will continue for the rest of ag week.

Anyone who doesn't have life insurance is warned to avoid the north side of the campus for the remainder of this week. It's anyone's guess about what will happen next.

The aggies stormed Vet hall sometime early today giving the building and the sidewalks in front a good coat of whitewash. It has been rumored that the vets plan to use water from the aggies' tank to clean up around Vet hall.

3 Companies Set Job Interviews Here Next Week

Seniors seeking jobs may schedule interviews with companies on the campus next week, Chester Peters, director of the college placement bureau, said.

Dates of interviews, companies, fields of study, and scheduling offices are:

October 11, the Pure Oil company will see geology and geography engineering majors. Scheduling office is F 6.

October 14, Esso laboratories will see chemical engineering and chemistry majors. Scheduling office in W 111. Also, Coleman company will see mechanical engineering, industrial engineering, electrical engineering, and business administration majors. Scheduling office is A 110.

Anyone wanting more information should go to either the scheduling office or the placement bureau, Peters said.

Dairy Judgers To Chicago For Contest

The three members of the team to compete in the regional Collegiate Dairy Products judging contest in Chicago, October 8-11, have been selected by Coach C. H. Martin.

Named to the team were Dolan Leverton, Thomas Quint, Edward H. Hart, and John Bircher, alternate.

The team will attend an awards banquet at the Saddle and Siroin club during the three day meet. Results of the judging will be announced at the banquet, sponsored by the International Dairy show.

K-State's participation marks the first time the College has competed in the contest.

Rain Postpones Chore Day To Tomorrow Afternoon at 4

Rain has forced postponement of the Barnwarmer queen candidates' Chore Day until tomorrow afternoon at 4, Mark Drake, Ag week chairman, announced this morning.

Chore Day will be held on the quadrangle east of Anderson, weather permitting. If the weather is bad tomorrow, Chore Day will be held in the Field House, Drake said.

"I'm praying for rain," said Marguerite Scherling, one of five Barnwarmer queen candidates who were scheduled to participate in the annual Queens Chore Day today.

"I anticipate all kinds of difficulty because I've never even been on a farm," Miss Scherling said.

"In fact I've never been near a cow or a tractor. I've never seen a pig trough or a milking stool. I did ride a horse once when I was eight," she said.

Dorothy Fox, another candidate, said, "It's just like it is at home—I've worked on the farm all my life. I do think it'll be an experience doing it in front of everyone thought."

"I'm scared to death of chickens!" Janie Fulton, another candidate said. "I'm sure I can't catch a chicken because I won't touch them. I've driven a tractor before and I've seen a cow milked, but I don't think I can milk one. I think the contest will be a lot of fun but I'm really scared."

Diane Whitley said, "Oh, that poor cow! I've spent a few days on the farm but I'm rather skeptical about driving a tractor and milking a cow. I know I'll be able to ride the horse because I've had a couple of horses. I think the contest will be a lot of fun!"

Diane Higley, another candidate said, "I'm looking forward to the contest. I did live on a farm when I was small but I don't think I'll be able to do everything."

The queen and her four attendants will be crowned at the Barnwarmer Saturday night. Tickets for the Barnwarmer are on sale in Anderson hall and Waters hall. Each ticket holder is entitled to one vote for the queen.

$500 Camera Survives

Collegian Reporter Gets Middle Ages Treatment

The aggies have done it again. Another ag week has resulted in mob violence and property damage that everyone regrets after it's done.

The Collegian's inquiring reporter—with pad, pencil, and camera—set out yesterday for the north end of the campus to get representative answers to this week's question: "What is your impression of ag week?"

The aggies' answer clearly demonstrates their inability to comprehend the way society works. Apparently their minds go no further than the nearest horse tank.

The answer came through the hands of about 20 aggies. Evidently assuming that these were fair odds by which to do battle, these escapees from a barn bulldogged the camera-clutching representative of the press as if he were their favorite bull.

About 20 justice-seeking vets went gallantly to the reporter's aid and proceeded to even the odds. The resulting battle would have done credit to the invading Huns of the Middle Ages.

Fortunately, no brass knuckles or switchblades were employed. Down on the farm real he-man battles are decided primarily by bare fists, toughened by sun and soil. It apparently never enters the aggies' heads that there is any other way to settle a problem.

In this case, they didn't even stop to consider that there not only was no problem, but that they were, in fact, being given a chance to express their views.

What the Collegian and its reporters got certainly was unexpected. A nearly smashed, and at least mishandled, several-hundred-dollar camera; a pair of broken glasses; and torn and dirty clothes.

Restitution still is possible, but we aren't asking for it. We would much rather settle the situation across a discussion table. It not only is considered a more practical method, but is less trouble than procuring a horse tank, filling it with water, and standing guard over it all day.

Collegian Cannot Judge The Workings of a Band

(Editor's note: Due to space limitations, we had to cut these letters. We tried to leave in the main points. If the writers are not satisfied with the manner in which they were cut, we invite them to write another letter.)
Dear Editor:

In the October 4 issue of the Kansas State Collegian, there appeared an article questioning Mr. Hedlund's judgment in replacing Miss Marlene Young as drum major of the Kansas State marching band.

The reasons given for censuring Mr. Hedlund's judgment were "Marlene's popularity with K-Staters" and "Many persons commented that Marlene was the best drum major they had seen."

To me, however, it seems only right that the drum major of the band be chosen because of her own ability, and not because she is popular or because some people think she is good. It all boils down to this: Miss Young was given a tryout, and she did not have the ability of Miss Nancy Howard.

Don't take my word for it, though. Ask any member of the band who has marched under the direction of both Miss Young and Miss Howard.

Neither of the two men who wrote this article is in the band, and I rather doubt if they know anything about the workings of one. It is unfortunate that all people in general and journalists in particular feel urged to express themselves on subjects about which they have an obvious lack of knowledge.

John Stockmyer, Hst Sr.

Band Member Asks Marlene's Return

To the Editor:

During the past week, the dismissal of Marlene Young as drum major of the marching band has been the topic of both quiet discussion and heated arguments on various areas of the campus.

Mr. Hedlund was quoted in the Collegian as saying that he has a "military style of band." If the band is military as he says, why is a large percentage of the band female, and why did he add twirlers and replace Marlene with another female drum major?

Another point to consider is the fact that the band was not notified of the change in drum majors until about a week after Marlene quit attending rehearsals. When the announcement of the change was made, the band members were led to believe that Marlene had quit.

Many students seem to have the opinion that this problem is a feud between Marlene Young and Nancy Howard for the position of drum major. I do not believe this to be so. The two girls seem to be the only people not in the argument. The major issue, which concerns all band members, is whether or not the band director can dismiss any band member at any time he chooses to do so.

Since satisfactory reasons were not given for Marlene's dismissal, and since band members have the right to know what is happening within their organization, I request (1) that Marlene be reinstated as drum major, (2) that in the future the band be given notice of changes immediately, and (3) that the status of band members be explained by the band director.

What protection from dismissal do band members have if they can't require that satisfactory reasons for their dismissal be given? I am extremely concerned about this problem, as I am a member of the band.

Name withheld for obvious reasons.

Just Imagine a Band With Only Queens

Editor:

Imagine a marching band composed entirely of the numerous Homecoming, Royal Purple, Snowball, Barnwarmer, and Flush Bowl queens. They prance down the field at the half, singing and plucking their lutes, while the Sweetheart of Sigma Chi rides around the field in a chariot, throwing daisies into the stands. Pure sex, but hardly appropriate!

A drum major should be selected because of her ability. Marlene Young has won the sentiments of many people, not because of her ability but because her position last year was a first in K-State history.

Let Nancy Howard show us how she can execute signals that the band can follow. Perhaps the ranks and files will be straight and the formations correct—another first for K-State.

Veterans Have Had Enough 'Military'

Dear Editor:

I think I am safe in saying that we veterans have had enough "military" and would prefer Marlene.

The army can use men like you, Mr. Hedlund!

Aggies Just Having Some Good, Clean Fun

Dear Editor:

In regard to the column by Miss Cronkite in the October 4 issue of the Collegian, I have a few comments. The statement was made that dressing in provincial garb and immersing nonconformists in a horse tank was nonsense.

In the first place, the people immersed were warned beforehand that this would happen if they were nonconformists. In the second place, are we to allow ourselves to become so stiffnecked that we cannot indulge in a little good, clean fun?

As for this being nonsense, is it any more nonsensical than some of the punitive actions taken against the pledges of some of our sororities and fraternities?

This "outlet for the Aggies' boyish spirits," as Miss Cronkite puts it, is well-known over all the campus as one of the great events of the academic year.

She also mentions that her face was red when she had to try to explain to other Kansas papers that this was an annual event at K-State. Perhaps this is because she has insufficient knowledge of the meaning and purpose of this event.

Also, I would like to suggest that she submit any plans for improving this event that she may have, to the person in charge of it. Maybe at some future time her suggestions will be tried.

Today's World News

Faure Ousts Four In French Crisis

Paris—Premier Edgar Faure today fired four of his rebellious cabinet ministers whose threatened walkout over his North African policies jeopardized his tottering coalition government.

The four ministers were Republican Socialists, political heirs of Gen. Charles DeGaulle. They had another cabinet member, Maurice Bayrou, secretary of state for overseas France, had threatened to resign in hopes of forcing a new government on France.

An official government spokesman said the harassed premier fired the four mutinous cabinet members including Minister of Defense Pierre Koenig, a long-time opponent of Faure's African policies. The Gaullists maintained the ministers had resigned.

The Premier swung into action against the Gaullists as the right-wing group mounted a determined offensive to pull down his loosely-knit coalition and replace it by a broad "public salvation" government such as ruled France during the 1789 revolution.

France was rapidly running into its worst governmental crisis since the fall of Dien Bien Phu and there was growing belief Faure's eight-month-old cabinet would be unable to survive another week.

The National Assembly, reconvening after its summer recess, was busy for the moment with organization detail. But angry members introduced 42 questions on Faure's handling of the Moroccan and Algerian crisis.

Troops in Strikebound New Castle

New Castle, Ind.—Hundreds of national guardsmen, backed up by tanks and half tracks, took command of New Castle today with orders to end the bloody violence at the strikebound Perfect Circle Corp. plant.

Gov. George Craig sent the 600 troopers rolling into New Castle before dawn to put down any sequel to the wild gunfight in which nine persons were injured at the plant yesterday.

Four pickets and four non-strikers were shot and a state police captain was clubbed over the head before state police ended the two-hour battle.

A sullen peace ruled in New Castle today as the armed guardsmen took up posts outside both the Perfect Circle plant and a Chrysler Corp. plant where violence had also been feared.

Ike Has Good Night's Sleep

Denver—The news from President Eisenhower's hospital bedside continued to report progress and sound, refreshing sleep today as the atmosphere around the chief executive seemed to be more cheery by the day. The medical bulletin issued this morning said the President was refreshed and relaxed after a good night's sleep.

Text of the bulletin: "The President had another good night. He slept soundly and almost continuously for eight and one-half hours, from 9:30 p.m. until 6 a.m. He awoke feeling refreshed and relaxed. The President's condition continues to progress satisfactorily without complications."

Marquette Next Foe For Wildcat Gridders

A battle-scarred troop of Kansas State gridgers go up against their fourth-in-a-row of rugged football foes Saturday night when they face Marquette's Warriors at Milwaukee, Wis. Although they absorbed a 14-28 defeat at the hands of Wisconsin U. in their opener, the Warriors bounced back to lick Tulsa 13-0 last week.

"Tough, big, and fast" are the labels K-State Coach Bus Mertes applies to the Warriors.

"They were good against Wisconsin, when I'm sure the Badgers would have liked to win by a far bigger margin," Mertes pointed out. "And they whipped a good Tulsa team—the same one that played Arkansas close and ran over Hardin-Simmons 41-19."

"If we need any more proof of how good Marquette is, all we have to do is look back to previous meetings K-State has had with the Warriors. In 1945 they took K-State 55-13, and repeated, 46-6, in 1950."

How do the K-State Wildcats feel after three head-on collisions that saw them take no wins? "Surprisingly ready," Mertes said. "That's one of the most encouraging things in the picture. In spite of the three licks we have taken, the team has great spirit. This week's practices have gone well. Maybe we're getting hungrier for a win, I hope so."

The Wildcat coach proposed no major overhaul of the Wildcat line-up, but made one line shuffle as he scooted sophomore Ellis Rainsberger from guard to left tackle, where the St. Louis Wildcat will back up Ron Nery, all-conference tackle last season. Mertes also moved letterman Jim Rusher to first-string left end, a post the Wildcat senior has shared with sophomore Don Zadnik.

That allows the Wildcats to open with nine lettermen and a pair of sophomores in the line-up. The yearlings are Rudy Bliescher, right guard who won acclaim for his play against Iowa's Cal Jones, and Ralph Pfeifer, 190-pound right half-back who has a 3.6-yard rushing average on 14 carries this season.

Unable to mount a passing attack (the Wildcats have not completed an aerial in the last two games), K-State may have to resort to the running power of man-sized backs. Paired with Pfeifer will be left halfback Kenny Nesmith, 180-pound junior, and Doug Roether, 187-pound senior full-back. Bob Whitehead, 155-pound quarterback, makes up in talent what he lacks in size, throwing, running, and kicking equally well.

The Wildcats' 37-man squad will leave for Milwaukee by plane Friday noon, arriving there shortly after 2:00 p.m.

They plan to work out under Marquette U. lights Friday night in preparation for their only night game of the season.

Leaders of '54 Again on Top

One team and two individuals are off to a good start in defending their statistical honors after the third week of Big Seven conference football.

Oklahoma, perennial league champion and high ranked nationally, picked up 895 yards total offense in its two games. The Sooners rushed for 760 yards and passed for 135.

Harold Burnine, Missouri end, is the pass receiving leader, just as he was last year. He has grabbed 9 to date for 184 yards. In punting, the defending champion is Ted Rode of Kansas, who now leads with 5 kicks for 227 yards, a 45.4 yard average.

Football Resumed On IM Schedule

Play resumed in intramural touch football yesterday afternoon after rain had postponed action for two days. A full schedule of eight games was played.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon, winners of the Flush Bowl last season, was beaten 13-6 by Sigma Phi Epsilon.

Sigma Chi defeated the Farm House, 25-0; Lambda Chi Alpha defeated Theta Xi, 19-18; and Tau Kappa Epsilon defeated the 1834 Club, 13-6.

In the independent division, the Hui O Makules defeated the House of Breck, 24-0; Jr. A. V.M.A. defeated West stadium, 19-6; the Vets defeated O.K. House, 7-0; and the Jones Boys defeated Disciples Student Fellowship, 38-6.

Today's 4:15 p.m. games include: Alpha Tau Omega against Phi Kappa at northwestern corner of drill field, Phi Kappa Tau against Sigma Nu on center drill field, Phi Delta Theta against Acacia at northeast corner of drill field, and House of Williams against the Brewster Boys at southeast corner of campus.

Today's 5:15 p.m. schedule includes: Beta Sigma Psi against Alpha Kappa Lambda at northwest corner of drill field, Delta Sigma Phi against Alpha Gamma Rho on center drill field, Kappa Sigma against Beta Theta Pi at northeast corner of drill field, and Hillbillies against the Y.M.C.A. at southeast corner of campus.

Changes Made In Cat Lineup

Coach Bus Mertes shuffled his first-unit lineup as the Wildcats worked out yesterday afternoon on a rain-softened practice field.

Mertes moved sophomore end George Laddish up to first-unit right end, moved senior letterman Jim Rusher to first-unit left end, and moved Tony Addeo into the first-unit right half position left vacant by Kenny Nesmith who was forced to sit out practically all of practice because of a severe hip bruise.

The only other change was the shift of sophomore Ellis Rainsberger, who has played guard all season, to second-unit left tackle.

Nesmith is expected to see some action in the Wildcat-Marquette game at Milwaukee Saturday, but it is doubtful if Bob Willibey, third-unit quarterback, out with a sprained ankle, will be ready for action.

The Cats drilled on offensive patterns most of the afternoon and spent time working on their passing attack.

Michigan To Meet Army on Saturday

Ann Arbor, Mich. (U.P.)—Michigan never has beaten Army on the football field and coach Bennie Oosterbaan warned his Wolverines they'll have to "play for keeps" if they hope to snap the jinx Saturday when they meet the Cadets at Michigan stadium.

Through the years, Michigan has compiled one of the best records in college gridiron history. But Army is a sore spot. The West Point eleven has whipped the Wolverines five straight times.

Bob Whitehead Sparks Cats for Third Season

An important cog in K-State's football machine is Bob Whitehead, 150 pound 5'10" senior quarterback. Bob is in his third year of action in the signal caller's slot for the Wildcats.

Last year under coach Bill Meek, Bob led the first unit of the team-a-quarter system, and this year has gained the starting quarterback role under coach Bus Mertes.

Bob attended Cleveland high school in St. Louis and came to K-State on an athletic scholarship. While in high school, Bob lettered in football, baseball, and soccer. He was co-captain of the football team his senior year.

In addition to his football exploits at K-State, Bob plays baseball on the varsity team in the spring. He has lettered the past two years, playing both third base and shortstop.

In the three football games played this season, Bob has returned 2 punts for a total yardage of 55 yards or 27.5 average. He leads the Big Seven in this department. As a punter, Bob ranks fourth with an average of 38.2 yards a kick on 17 kicks.

Bob is married and has a daughter, Linda Jo, 6 months old. He spends most of his free time with his family, but he likes the outdoors and hunts a lot. This he does in an odd way, with a bow and arrow.

When asked about the Wildcat football team and its remaining games, Bob said, "We need confidence more than anything. After our first win, which I think will be Saturday, we will be hard to beat."

"Marquette is big, rough, and tough, but we're as good as they are. The outcome will be a matter of who wants to win the most," he added.

When asked about the Big Seven race, Bob said, "If Nebraska is any indication of the strength of the rest of the league it will be a rough year, but after our first win we will be hard to beat."

BOB WHITEHEAD, K-State senior quarterback, leads conference in punt returns with 27.5 yard average and ranks fourth in the punting department with a 38.4 average.

Freshman Wrestling Squad Includes Three Champions

Three Kansas high school wrestling champions head the freshman mat squad at Kansas State this season. A 16-man freshman squad announced by Wildcat wrestling coach Fritz Knorr, includes Pat Doyle, Douglas, two-time high school champ in state competition; Orval Williams, Colby; and Kenneth Ellegood, Oakley.

Five other Wildcat frosh finished third in the state tourney. They include Billy Youngers, Wichita; James Good, Salina;

Steve Santiago, Wichita; and Perry Brinlee and Jim Roberts, both of Tulsa, Okla.

Other K-State freshman wrestlers who will open practice here October 17, are James Miller, Wichita; Fred Knorr, Manhattan; R. K. Wilson, El Dorado; Richard Kale, St. Francis; Terry Collier, Independence, and Tom King, Jim Caster, and Jack Hedley, all of Douglas.

Lane To Sign With Cardinals

St. Louis, Mo. (U.P.)—Frank Lane apparently is the St. Louis Cardinals' new general manager in every respect but one, his name on the dotted line, and that was expected today.

"All points seem mutually satisfactory," he announced after conferring yesterday with August A. Busch, Jr., president of the Cardinals.

The way was cleared for the 59-year-old former Chicago White Sox general manager to take full rein in Busch's baseball department when Bill Walsingham Jr., vice-president of the Cardinals for the past nine years, announced he was quitting.

One Loop Contest On Tap Saturday

Kansas City, Mo. (U.P.)—The Big Seven, a "conference of contrasts," goes intersectional except for one game again this weekend.

Iowa State will open its conference season at Kansas, in a game that should help determine who finishes in the Big Seven cellar.

Missouri opens the weekend play against Southern Methodist at Dallas Friday night. Oklahoma plays Texas in the Cotton bowl at Dallas the next day, while Kansas State is at Marquette, Colorado at Oregon and Texas A&M at Nebraska.

Colorado and Nebraska took over the Big Seven lead with wins in initial conference games Saturday. Oklahoma and Colorado lead in the overall standings with two wins each against no losses.

As a contrast, neither Kansas State or Missouri has won a game in three outings, with Kansas State giving up a whopping 82 points and scoring only 27 itself.

Marquette To Host City Industrialists

The Marquette-Kansas State football game to be played in Marquette stadium, Saturday night, October 8, has been designated as Industrial Night. Each year, Marquette sets aside one game on the home schedule to honor Milwaukee's Industries. Special pre-game and half-time ceremonies will pay tribute to local industry.

HURRAY FOR THE RED, WHITE AND GOLD!

There's a new package on Philip Morris Cigarettes. It's red and white and gold and pretty as a picture. You'd never guess that behind anything so bright and cheerful is a saga packed with action and passion, with love and romance and not a few tears.

It started quietly enough. The makers of gentle Philip Morris, as hale a bunch of fellows as you ever clapped your eyes upon, got to talking last summer during their annual outing on Attu, a secluded and unspoiled island, often called "The Capri of Alaska." Capri, on the other hand, is often called "The Attu of Italy."

But I digress. I was saying that the makers of Philip Morris, jim-dandy fellows every man-jack of them, got to talking on their last outing. "Don't you think," said one maker to the other makers, "that our brown Philip Morris package, though in many ways terribly fetching, doesn't quite reflect the basic quality of today's Philip Morris—its happy gentleness, its jolly lightness?"

"Why, yes," replied the other makers to the first maker, "we do think that our brown Philip Morris package, though in many ways terribly fetching, doesn't quite reflect the basic quality of today's Philip Morris—its happy gentleness, its jolly lightness."

"Let us have the pack re-designed!" suggested the first maker, whose name is Laughing Ned.

"Yes, let us!" cried the other makers, whose name is Fun-Loving Tom. "Let us! Let us! Let us!"

The makers forthwith engaged the prominent firm of package re-designers, Sigafoos and Associates. It was with full confidence that the makers entrusted the task to Sigafoos and Associates, for Sterling Sigafoos, the senior member, is known the length and breadth of the world as "The Grand Old Man of Package Re-designing," and his partner, Fred Associates, though a younger man, is everywhere regarded as a comer.

Sigafoos and Associates began their job by conducting interviews from coast to coast to determine what kind of pack people wanted for Philip Morris. The partners could not do the interviewing themselves — Sigafoos because of his advanced years; Associates because he is subject to motion sickness — so they sent our two trusted employees: Mr. Walker Nylet (Yale '51) and Miss Felicia Sigafoos (Radcliffe '52), daughter of the senior partner. After canvassing the entire nation and tabulating more than 90 million interviews, Mr. Nylet sent the following communique to the home office:

"Dear Dad and Associates,
I call you Dad because Miss Sigafoos and I discovered during our long and exhaustive survey that never were two people so admirably suited. We have accordingly been married and have accepted a position with the United States Government keeping the lighthouse off Gay Head, Martha's Vineyard.
I hope you are not too upset by this news. May I suggest you look at it this way: you haven't lost a daughter; you've gained a beacon.

Sincerely,
Walker Nylet"

Well sir, old Sigafoos fumed for a while, but at last he calmed down and went to visit the newlyweds in their lighthouse, bringing them a suitcase full of twenties as a wedding gift. It was there he learned that people want Philip Morris in the red, white, and gold package which you are now, I trust, holding in your very own hand.

The makers of PHILIP MORRIS who bring you this column beg to remind you that for a while you'll still be seeing Philip Morris both ways — in the bright new red, white and gold package, and in the friendly familiar brown.

Mineral Display In Fairchild Hall Features Colors

A fluorescent mineral display has been added to the museum in Fairchild hall.

This display contains minerals from many parts of the world. In the United States two abundant sources of fluorescent and radioactive mineral ore are the Rocky Mountain area and Franklin Furnace, New Jersey. The New Jersey city is a "mineral collectors paradise," according to geology professor Joseph Chelikowsky, who prepared the exhibit.

The minerals are in a container and are subjected at intervals to common light, long ultra-violet rays, and short ultra-violet rays. As the light changes, the color of the mineral changes also. Many different shades of color are visible under the varying light rays.

This exhibit was erected as a joint effort of the zoology and geology departments.

The Engineering council set up a committee of Dick Horton, ME Sh, Dick Parks, AgE Sr, and Keith Swenson, ArE Jr, to make plans for the freshmen engineering assembly, October 20.

A revision of the constitution was discussed and a committee of Jim Hotchkiss, IE Jr, Larry Rash, ME Jr, and Ed Fowler, EE Sr, was appointed to work on the revision.

No action was taken on freshmen representatives on the Student Council.

Applications for council treasurer are being accepted. They should contain the applicant's qualifications and must be mailed to the Engineering council, Box N, by noon, October 20.

The committee in charge of these applications is composed of Bill Hunt, ME Sr, Larry Rash, ME Jr, and Ed Fowler, EE Sr.

Righteous Writer Raises Wrath of Rabble

Dick Carr was enjoying the clear, fresh skies this morning on the steps of Kedzie when thousands of aggies swarmed on him and dragged him around the corner of Anderson in the direction of the stock tank.

Carr was mystified. Why should the aggies pick on him just because he protested editorially over some broken glasses and bruises which he had suffered at these same hands earlier this week.

Protests from the victim fell on deaf ears as he made like a lead balloon (left) while the gleeful aggies looked on.

Carr's main worry was not for damage to his person but that Doc Harbaugh might be miffed because he missed Biology class the next hour. Carr explains to Harbaugh (right) that he would like to convalesce at home rather than in a classroom as he feared he might contract gas gangrene from the polluted water.

Readers Slam Aggies, Collegian, Hedlund, Parking

Dear Editor,

If all the aggies who try to tell us ag week is "good, clean fun" were laid end to end, it would be a good thing.

Critics of this exhibition of mass hysteria have been accused of not understanding the "meaning and purpose" of the event. Any purpose, expressed or implied, has been outweighed by the organized vandalism taking place on the campus under the guise of "good, clean fun."

Every campus event supposedly has faculty advisers. It would be interesting to learn which of the Ag school faculty can countenance the destruction of state property, assault of bystanders, and the general six-day mayhem. Surely, the ag faculty has realized by now that the "meaning and purpose" of ag week can hardly reflect credit on the school of agriculture on the whole, and certainly appears as a blight on activities at Kansas State generally.

The Engineers have Open House, the Home Ec girls have Hospitality Days, the School of Arts and Sciences has its carnival. These events call for unity of purpose among members, though seldom do they result in bloodshed or destruction of property. But the aggies have their own ideas about everything, it appears. Rather than do anything constructive, they would rather take shifts watching a tub of water.

Next year the aggies might consider putting their idle hours, which seem to be numerous, into some project to make ag week something to be remembered, not regretted. It is too late this year. They have had their "good, clean fun."

Back in high school, though, they call it juvenile delinquency.

Gary Haynes, TJ Jr.

Uncivilized Ags Abuse the Press

Dear Editor,

What are the aggies trying to prove? After watching their childish actions this week, it seems that the whole idea of ag week is to give them a chance to prove how uncivilized they are. When Peron, Hitler, and Napoleon shoved everybody from the press on down around, they had some idea as to why they were doing it. Here, the Aggies say they are just having good clean fun but the kind of fun they like is also readily available in the army.

As for boyish spirits, remember it was three innocent students who set off World War I. Who is to say what this little demonstration on our campus could lead to?

Since the Ags haven't changed in two years and are just as disgusting as when they threw my brother in for exposing the truth of their activities, they might as well come after me, too. I'm littler than they, which seems to be their favorite size for dunking. Besides, I've always wanted a crew cut.

Sincerely,
Ann Chisham, TJ Soph.

Collegian Wrong About Ag Students

Dear Editor:

For the past four days we have been reading in the Collegian what bad little boys we aggies have been. The situation is becoming extremely disgusting. Why is it that as soon as a journalist is given the authority to write an editorial and sign his name to it, he (or she) immediately turns on the aggies as if we had committed murder.

As we sit and read such flowery phrases as: "the aggies' answer clearly demonstrates their inability to comprehend the way society works," as Mr. Carr wrote in yesterday's edition, we realize how silly and frivolous the editorial staff has been. There must be some talent hidden in Kedzie someplace. Why not use it for constructive purposes instead of constantly belittling someone?

One more thought before we sign off: The Collegian is the school paper; it is for vets and aggies and engineers alike. Don't make the mistake of believing the Collegian is exclusively for the journalism class. It isn't.

Hedlund's Method Is Rude, Crude

Dear Editor,

I am not a personal friend of Marlene Young, and I don't know what the ability is of either her or Nancy Howard. However, I do object to Miss Howard's replacing Miss Young as drum major. Also, I do not question Mr. Hedlund's authority in replacing Miss Young. I do question his method of replacement, however.

I think that the method of replacement was rude, crude, and without the interest of the college or the student body at heart.

Although I do not question Mr. Hedlund's authority, I do question whether he should have that authority or not. It seems to me that the drum major represents the student body when she appears before the public. And personally, I would like to have a say by whom I would like to be represented.

I recognize the fact too, that my knowledge of what ability a drum major should have is pretty meager, but I imagine that the members of the band know pretty well what they need out in front of them. Some combination might be worked out between the band members and the general student body that would permit the selection of the drum major suitable to both.

Spirit means a lot to a band as well as to the football team, and we won't have spirit if one man tries to run the whole show.

Sincerely,
Robert S. Reece, PEM Sr.

North Parking Lot Should Be Used

Dear Editor,

It seems to me that something should be done about the parking situation. I don't think the answer lies in restricting the freshmen's cars from the campus. The only lot that seems to be overly crowded is the one by the Student Union. The north lot has plenty of room.

Of course the north lot isn't as handy as the one at the Union, but then there are lots of things not quite as handy as everybody would like.

If somebody is to be restricted from the lots, it would seem more fair if those within a three or four-block radius were restricted. A few blocks of walking wouldn't hurt anybody. If driving is necessary, the north lot is available.

Sincerely,
Thane Chase, BA Soph.

Meddling Vets Disrupt the Peace

Dear Editor,

The much-discussed aggie horse tank was originally planned to be only a very small part of ag week. Its sole purpose was to furnish some incentive for Aggies to wear a red neckerchief and to punish nonconformists. This (were it not for meddling vets) it would do—very quietly and efficiently, with no bloodshed or property damage.

However, upon the tank's appearance each year, down deep in the heart of each vet arises the urge to meddle in the affairs that don't concern them. Consequently, they mass themselves in huge numbers in front of vet hall, and when the tank is sparsely guarded they charge it, wielding hatchets and spilling red dye and blood as they go.

Frankly, I can't understand why the presence of an item so simple as a stock tank should cause such profound emotional disturbances in individuals ordinarily so lifeless as vets. Maybe it's just that they don't sponsor any activities and can't stand to see anyone else do anything. If that isn't it, they should see their psychiatrists. And if that doesn't help, why don't they try minding their own business?

Sincerely,
Brent Adair, MCh Jr.

Manhattan Merc Says K-Staters Should Have Say In Choosing Drum Major

From a state of mystery and rumor the case of what happened to Marlene Young as K-State band drum major has now burst into print with some quoted reasons as to why she wasn't chosen for the job again this year.

In a signed editorial in the Collegian, Gary Swanson and Darrel Miller upbraided the band master for the manner in which Miss Young's successor was chosen, noting that he said "... fits my style of military band better than the one the band had?"

"Who wants a military band at college anyway?" they ask after having commented that "the student body has no say in the matter, of course."

Heaven forbid us getting into an intra-group squabble at the college, although we must say we, along with thousands of others, were completely taken with Miss Young as drum major. But we would differ with Swanson and Miller when they say the student body has no say in the matter.

Perhaps the students do not, as a matter of college policy, have a say but they should. After all, if the drum major isn't one of the best potential representatives of the student body, then we would wonder who might be. And since she is then the student body does have a say, and a big one, in her choice.

66 Persons Killed In Airplane Crash

Laramie, Wyo., (U.P.)—A United Air Lines DC-4 was within its normal flight pattern when it smashed into 12,005-foot Medicine Bow peak yesterday killing all 66 persons aboard in the nation's worst civil aviation disaster.

A UAL spokesman said today that southern Wyoming's towering snowy range, of which Medicine Bow is the highest mountain, could be considered within the route of its bigger airliners although many aviation maps direct lighter plans to flat countryside 20 miles east.

Inspectors of the civil aeronautics administration, seeking the cause of the accident, joined University of Wyoming alpinists at the crash site early this morning while wind-whipped ground blizzards shrouded the remains of the victims and the plane in deep snow.

The United Air Lines spokesman said he would not attempt to "hazard a guess" as to the cause of the crash pending the investigation of the government agents.

Swiss Villa Being Prepared for Peron

Lausanne, Switzerland—Banking circles said today a 20-room lakeside villa was being prepared for ousted Argentine President Juan D. Peron if he decides to come to Switzerland.

The villa, surrounded by a large garden and near a private airfield, was bought last July by an Argentine businessman for $187,000. It is located near Lake Lemman.

Banking circles said Peron had been transferring funds to Switzerland since 1947 and should Switzerland refuse him asylum, friends would be ready to receive him in Germany or Italy.

Hoover, Rhee Avoid Discussing Economic Aid

Seoul, Korea—Undersecretary of State Herbert Hoover, Jr., conferred with President Syngman Rhee for about an hour today but they avoided discussion of Korean hopes for more American aid.

Hoover, at a brief press conference following the meeting, said he "called on President Rhee for a visit of roughly an hour. We did not touch on substantive questions at all."

Auctioneering Proves Doubletalk Profitable

By GRAYNELLE KOCI

A K-State freshman is one of two auctioneers today at a Wichita 4-H Stock show. He is Leonard Drumright, who is auctioneering at this show for the second time. It is his 65th big sale.

Leonard is one of the three Kansas auctioneers ever to be admitted to the National Auction Company College Station class held annually at Allen Military academy in Texas.

Twenty boys in the nation are admitted to the class each year, and Leonard was allowed to enroll in the summer of 1953.

Leonard, who is twenty, is one of the youngest members in the nation in his profession.

Asked how much it nets him, he said, "Each job guarantees me $200 a day or 1 per cent of the total sales of the day. Sometimes I make as much as $800 in one day. I'm donating my services at the Wichita show today as a service to 4-H."

"A college education is not really necessary to an auctioneer," he said, "but I feel that I need one in order to acquire all the information necessary to do my work properly."

Very few persons can be auctioneers, and only one in a million is born with the ability for the type of speech required by the work, he said.

The buyers have to be able to understand every word the auctioneer says and he must be pleasant to listen to. In other words, he has to have the gift of gab."

Why do more college

than any other filter cigarette?

Because only Viceroy gives you 20,000 filter traps in every filter tip, made from a pure natural substance found in delicious fruits and other edibles!

1. Yes, only Viceroy has this filter composed of 20,000 tiny filter traps. You cannot obtain the same filtering action in any other cigarette.
2. The Viceroy filter wasn't just whipped up and rushed to market to meet the new and skyrocketing demand for filtered cigarettes. Viceroy pioneered. Started research more than 20 years ago to create the pure and perfect filter.
3. Smokers en masse report that filtered Viceroy's have a finer flavor even than cigarettes without filters. Rich, satisfying, yet pleasantly mild.
4. Viceroy draws so easily that you wouldn't know, without looking, that it even had a filter tip... and Viceroy's cost only a penny or two more than cigarettes without filters!

That's why more college men and women smoke VICEROYS than any other filter cigarette... that's why VICEROY is the largest-selling filter cigarette in the world!

Christian Scientists Get Constitution

SALLY DAVIS, PEW Sr, vice-president of the Christian Science campus group, and Keith Landis, EE Soph, president, discuss the new constitution recently adopted by the group.

A one-year-old Christian Scientist organization adopted a constitution at Tuesday's meeting.

To organize last year, the group had to have four members who were members of the mother church, First Church of Christ Scientist of Boston. This was required for recognition by the mother church. The present organization has approximately 20 members.

This year's sponsor is Miss Rosamond Kedzie. Recently-elected officers are Keith Landis, president, and Sally Davis, secretary.

The mother church was first started in Boston in 1879 by Mary

Baker Eddy. Mrs. Eddy also wrote the manual for the church.

The group expects a visit from a mother church representative sometime this fall.

The organization is part of a world-wide group of Christian Science churches, organizations and societies.

Group members are planning to sponsor lectures concerning the purposes and teachings of the organization.

The group meets every Tuesday night at 7 in Danforth chapel. Church services are at 11 Sunday morning and 8 Wednesday night. The church is located at 8th and Poyntz.

A Campus-to-Career Case History

"I represent 30,000 people"

That's the population of the Mason City, Iowa, area where Jack MacAllister (Iowa U., '50) is Manager for Northwestern Bell Telephone Company. How would you like this kind of job?

"As Telephone Manager I represent Mason City to my company, and vice-versa. Among my customers are bankers, farmers, housewives, merchants... each with different questions and problems about telephone service. Through public information and good business office service, my people and I do our best to furnish the answers.

"My assignment calls for varied activities—sales, public relations, office supervision. One minute I'm describing a new construction program to a group of businessmen... the next explaining a new service to a rural customer.

"It's a job with lots of variety and responsibility, and I enjoy every day of it. My supervisor is 75 miles away," says Jack, "and that puts me pretty much on my own—which is the way I like it."*

Jack MacAllister graduated with a B.S. in Commerce and started with Northwestern Bell about five years ago. As Telephone Manager at the age of 28, he is typical of the many young men who are building careers in telephone work. Similar opportunities exist today with other Bell telephone companies... also with Bell Telephone Laboratories, Western Electric and Sandia Corporation. Your Placement Officer has all the details.

The queen of the Blackfoot-Whitefoot will also be announced at that time. She is to be selected from the 9 candidates by Dean of Students Herbert Wunderlich.

The queen candidates and Mr. and Mrs. Wunderlich will be din-

The queen's sorority will be given a trophy and the queen will get a radio at the dance. The Hanson Quintette will play for the dance.

The Blackfoot-Whitefoot competition between the two national fraternities is nearly 90 years old, and is celebrated at ATO and Sigma Nu chapters throughout the nation. It originated at the Virginia Military institute where both Alpha Tau Omega and Sigma Nu were founded within several years of each other.

Cat Lineup Altered For Warrior Tilt

Four new faces will appear in the K-State starting lineup when the Wildcats square off against Marquette in Milwaukee Saturday night.

Four new faces will appear in the K-State starting lineup when the Wildcats square off against Marquette in Milwaukee Saturday night.

Marquette returns 17 lettermen from a team that won 3, lost 7, and tied 1 last year. The primary trouble of Coach F. L. (Frosty) Ferzacca lies at quarterback where only Jere Carmody returns. Another big hole is at guard where only three lettermen were back for the start of fall practice.

The teams are equal in weight with an over-all average of 191 pounds. The two backfields average 176 pounds each and the lines are equal at 200 pounds.

Marquette holds the upper hand in the series between the two schools, winning 7 and losing 4. The rivalry began in 1925 with K-State winning the opener 2-0. The last Wildcat victory came in 1950 when they defeated the Warriors 7-6 in their last meeting.

Coach Mertes moved his charges back inside Ahearn fieldhouse for light drills last night after only one outside practice this week. The squad left by plane for Milwaukee today at noon and will work out under the lights on the Warrior field tonight.

K-State Coach Helped Defeat Warriors in '54

K-State Coach Bus Mertes will be back in familiar surroundings when his Wildcats square off with Marquette, Saturday night. As a fullback for the Iowa Seahawks in 1944, he personally pounded out a large portion of yardage against Marquette as the pre-flight team humbled the Warriors, 26-0.

Frosh Squad Lacks Depth Says Haylett

In contrast to the varsity track squad, K-State's freshman squad is almost a direct opposite. "The varsity has depth but has no individual star, whereas the freshman squad lacks depth but those out for the team were tops in their events in high school," said Ward Haylett, K-State track coach.

Delos Dodds of Riley won the Class B state championship in the 440 yard dash and placed second in both the 220 and 100 yard dashes. He also plays football.

Jim Vader of Ward high school of Kansas City was Class AA champion in the 440 and also ran on the 220 medley relay team that set a new state record.

Tom Rhoda of Wichita East was Class AA champion in the 880 yard run, Glen Lojka of Cuba was Class B champion in the discus, and Stan Drevits of Salina was Class AA champion in the shot put.

Tommy Swearingen of Horton ran on the mile relay team that set at new state record for Class A schools; Clifford Gruver of Scott City ran on the winning mile relay team at the Kansas relays last spring; and Dave Burton of Washburn Rural of Topeka placed second in both the 220 and 440 yard dashes, he has also defeated Vader in some track meets.

220-yard dash—Dodds, Burton, Jones, Thompson, Rader, Durhan.

440-yard dash—Dodds, Burton, Vader, Gruver, Swearingen, Charles Burgat, Stan Ridgeway, Glen Grosse, J. D. Stinser.

880-yard run—Rhoda, Gary Norris, Richard Nickum.

Mile run—Jim Peters, Jim Filler.

Broad jump—Booth Brown, Glen White.

High jump—Brown.

Notre Dame-Miami To Play Tonight

By UNITED PRESS

A couple of inter-sectional games, involving three of the top 10 ranked teams, feature this coming week ends' college football program beginning with the Notre Dame-University of Miami clash tonight.

The Irish, ranked fifth and nursing a 10-game winning streak, are only two-point favorites over the Hurricanes, who are banking on a win tonight to gain national recognition. Notre Dame owns victories over Southern Methodist and Indiana, while Miami has beaten Florida State after dropping a 14-6 decision to fourth-ranked Georgia Tech.

Michigan, ranked second, meets six-ranked Army. The Wolverines, leading contenders for Big Ten honors, have never beaten Army and the game is rated a tossup. The Cadets followed up a resounding 81-0 win over Furman with a 35-6 triumph over Penn State, while Michigan has beaten Missouri and Michigan State.

In three other interesting games Friday night, the odds makers pick SMU over Missouri; Houston over Detroit; and UCLA, the defending National champions, over Oregon State in a Pacific Coast conference game.

Lane Looks For Manager

St. Louis (U.P.)—Frank Lane, new general manager of the St. Louis Cardinals, went shopping today for a field manager and additions to "a very fine nucleus" that would make the club a pennant contender in 1956.

He said he had three men under consideration for manager and revealed the names of two of them, present manager Harry Walker and Freddie Hutchinson, pilot of Seattle in the Pacific Coast league.

K-State Should Get Win In Game With Marquette

If K-Staters interviewed this week are good predictors, the Saturday football game with Marquette should be close, and the Cats might come out on top.

Kathryn Regier, HT Jr, is confident of a victory for the Cats. "We'll play a good game and win," she said.

Gerry Day, VM Sr, says "I think we'll have 11 men on the field most of the time."

"We'll win, I hope," said Charlotte Lybarger, HE Jr, as she expressed some doubt about a Wildcat win.

Kay Chamness, EEd Fr, said "It'll be a tough game, but we'll win 7-0."

Merle Paul, AH Fr, said "I think K-State is fixin' to lose, but I don't think they'll get stomped on."

Barnwarmer queen candidate Marguerite Scherling, HE Soph, said "I think we'll win."

"I hope we win, but I don't know for sure," is the comment of Thyla Webb, HET Fr. "I hope we play a good game."

Ron Boucek, BA Soph, said "I think the Cats have a good chance of winning. Saturday will be a good time to start a winning streak and I predict we'll beat Marquette 13-7."

Cat Lineman Works Hard At Studying and Playing

By BILL WHISTLER

A good team man with high scholastic ability describes Frank Rodman, senior Wildcat tackle majoring in Vet medicine.

Coach Bus Mertes, praising the two-year letterman, said "Frank has a wonderful attitude and is a consistent type of ball player."

Teammate Bill Carrington said "Frank is an easy going boy. He doesn't have much to say, he just gets in there and does his job."

Last year he made the all-Big Seven scholastic team with a "B" average. At the end of summer school Frank still maintained his "B" average.

Frank is optimistic about the team's future. "If we get a few more good starts somewhere we might win some ball games. I thought we played a pretty good game against Nebraska, we got more rushing yardage and more first downs against them than in last year's game," he said. "The score is what counts though, and we were on the short end," Frank added.

Frank was a former all-City tackle at Ward high school in Kansas City, Kan., where he was coached by Bill Melody, a former Wildcat lineman.

Big Seven Gridders Prepare for Action

By UNITED PRESS

Two second-string ends will start Saturday for the Nebraska Cornhuskers against Texas A&M. Coach Bill Glassford announced at Lincoln yesterday.

Marlin Hilding, of Red Oak, Iowa, and Don Hewitt, of Des Moines, Iowa, drew starting nods over Nebraskans Leroy Butherus and Jon McWilliams.

Glassford said the shift was not a promotion or demotion, but simply an attempt to get "a little more defense into the lineup."

At Iowa State rain, treated as a plague by most football coaches, was welcomed by Coach Vince Di Francesca yesterday.

The mentor wound up heavy drills for Saturday's Big Seven opener against Kansas at Lawrence with a 40-minute scrimmage in the rain.

Francesca said he was glad the rain came because it was the first opportunity he has had this fall to work the team with a slippery ball. The experience may come in handy later, he asserted.

The Cyclones held a light drill at Ames this morning preparatory to boarding a plane at noon for Lawrence.

At Oklahoma the final home drill before Saturday's Cotton Bowl classic in Dallas against Texas was spent practicing defense against pass patterns by Bud Wilkinson's Oklahoma Sooners yesterday.

The Sooners leave Norman by plane this afternoon for Fort Worth where they will stay tonight before traveling to Dallas by bus tomorrow.

Kansas Fullback Al Stevenson and halfback Ralph Moody may be unable to play for Kansas university in their Iowa State tilt tomorrow afternoon.

Stevenson, starter at fullback for the Colorado game, has a back injury, and Moody is out with an ailing leg.

The Jayhawks leave for nearby Topeka this afternoon to rest in an hotel before returning the 25 miles to Lawrence for Saturday's game.

Coach Chuck Mather feels the team can rest better in a town away from the bustle of Lawrence, which takes on a carnival atmosphere on a football week end.

Mertes Says . . .

Prospects 'Better' for CU Game

"With this win under our belt everybody feels better—it's good for the spirit. I can't predict the outcome of the game with Colorado, but I'm sure we'll give them plenty of trouble on the field Saturday."

So said Coach Bus Mertes after returning from Milwaukee where the Cats rolled over favored Marquette 42-0 Saturday night. "We will be able to tell more about our chances a little later in the week," he continued.

Kansas State played as hard as any team could play Saturday night," the happy K-State mentor said. "Of course, we're pleased to come home with a win and we hope we can keep it going."

Most of this week will be spent working on a defense against Colorado's singling offense. Mertes said that it will be difficult to set up this defense because most of K-States' opponents run from the "T" or "Split-T" formations.

The Wildcats shook off their early troubles and unleashed a potent offensive attack in gaining their first victory of the season Saturday night. They went into the game as a two-to-three touchdown underdog to the strong Marquette team but swept the favorites off their feet with a devastating ground game to take a 32-0 halftime lead.

The game started off slowly with both teams exchanging punts. The first Cat score was set up when Bob Hilliard broke through to block a Marquette punt and fall on it on the MU 27 yard line. The Wildcats worked the ball down to the nine where Tony Addeo took a Whitehead pitchout and swept over to score. Jim Rusher toed the extra point and the Wildcats led 7-0.

Later in the first quarter

Marquette gambled on a fourth and one situation on their 41 yard line and fell short when the Wildcat line stopped the ball carried at the line of scrimmage. K-State took over there and hit pay dirt 11 plays later when Bob Whitehead scored on a end sweep from the three.

Once again Marquette gambled with a fourth and one situation on their 42 and lost. Doug Roether picked up four and on the next play Ralph Pfeifer took a pitchout and ram- bled 38 yards to give the Cats a 19-0 lead.

Shortly thereafter, Dick Allen, sophomore halfback picked off a Marquette pass and ran it back to the 17-yard line. Five running plays later K-State had its fourth touch- down when Dick Corbin sneaked over with 8 minutes left in the half.

Immediately after the Kick- off, Frank Rodman fell on a

Marquette fumble on the 20 to set up the fifth TD for the Wildcats. Whitehead gained the last three yards on an option play and Rusher again converted to give K-State their halftime lead.

The Wildcats took the second half kickoff and marched down field, aided by a 32-yard pass play from Whitehead to sopho- more end George Laddish and an 11-yard run by Bill Carrington to the Marquette five where Marquette stiffened and held. With the ball on the fifteen, Jim Rusher split the uprights with a field goal to send K-State into the lead 35-0.

The teams fought back and forth with Marquette going almost exclusive to the air lanes in attempts to crack the K-State defense. They could not get past the Wildcat 39- yard line in the second half, however, and their passing backfired when Don Zadnik picked off Ray Zagar's aerial on the 50 and ran it back to the Marquette 36. Two plays put the ball on the 12 from where Corbin passed to sopho- more fullback Terry Lee in the end zone. Zadnik con- verted for the final margin.

K-State used their new-found running game to roll up 219 yards on the ground and com- pleted five of nine passes for 77 yards. Marquette could pene- trate the Cat's defense for only 55 yards on the ground but passed for 136. They could not get closer than the Cat 16 in the first half and were stopped at the 38 in the second.

The Cats came out of the game with no serious injuries. Roether and Hilliard sat out the second half after being knocked unconscious, but they both came out of it with no serious after- effects. Barring practice in- juries, the squad will be in near top shape for the Colorado game Saturday.

Diane Higley Is Ag Queen

An estimated crowd of 600 persons saw Diane Higley crowned 1955 Barnwarmer queen Saturday night. She was crowned by A. D. (Dad) Weber, dean of the School of Agriculture.

Said Queen Diane after the crown had been placed on her head, "I can't talk."

The queen's attendants were Marguerite Scherling, Van Zile hall; Janie Fulton, Delta Delta Delta; Diane Whitley, Waltham hall; and Dorothy Fox, Clovia.

Miss Higley was representing Southeast hall. She is a freshman in physical educa- tion, and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray M. Higley of Atwood.

Each ticket purchaser had one vote in the selection of the queen.

After the crowning, Miss Higley was presented with a radio by Mark Drake, manager of ag week and Barnwarmer activities.

The queen and her attendants were seated on a throne made of bales of hay backed by saddles. Bales of hay also served as benches for those attending the dance. Doughnuts and cider were served.

Jimmy Pierson and his band from WIBW in Topeka furnished the music for the dance, which lasted from 9 p.m. until midnight in Nichols gym.

Dean Weber described the Barnwarmer as "outstanding." Most of the persons attending the dance agreed.

More for Construction

6½ Million Budget OK'd by Regents

The Board of Regents has approved Kansas State's '56-'57 budget of $6,408,137. This compares to $4,803,572 in the current year.

Besides this amount, the educational building fund pro- vides for additional money in new construction.

Protest Deadline Today at 6 p.m.

All 1955-56 student activity fund apportionments will be considered final unless protested by 6 p.m. today, Gerry Day, stu- dent body president, said.

Union Council Offers Positions On Committees

The Student Union program council is now taking applications for positions on Union committees. Sharon Diamond, vice-chairman of the council, has announced. Inter- views will be held this week.

"Everyone who previously submitted his name to work on a Union committee should re- port to A 203 between today and Friday in order to fill out an application," Miss Diamond said. She added that students may apply for a position on any one of the 25 subcommittees.

Information regarding the vari- ous sub-committees will be posted on the bulletin board in A 203. After the applications have been filed, the applicants will be contacted next week for personal interviews.

"This information will be used in setting up a new personnel record-keeping system which will be maintained in the activities center of the new Union," Miss Diamond said.

Student Health

One girl and five boys are pa- tients in the Student Health to- day. The girl is Anita Brummell and the boys are James LeGotte, Kyle Tilson, Robert Jedwabny, Karl Mitz, and George DeBitetto.

The anticipated total bud- get for the year including fees and the amount ap- proved by the Board of Regents is $10,030,200. Last year's total budget was $9,051,241.

The $411,954 requested for new projects at K-State would be divided between seven pro- jects in the Agricultural Ex- periment station, $208,250; three engineering experiment station projects, $66,500; addi- tional money for Extension, $86,040; additional books for Farrell Library, $22,800; and faculty research, $28,364.

The $362,228 requested for capital improvements at K-State would be allocated as follows:

Completion of the animal hus- bandry building, $50,000; re- modeling in Anderson hall, $41,250; remodeling Veterinary hall and for veterinary and bac- teriological equipment, $73,023; roads, walks and parking lots, $35,200; extension of street lights and power cables, $13,435.

Metal storage building for industrial engineering, $5,000; poultry range, $62,000; remodel- ing two houses at the Garden City experiment station, $10,000; general equipment, $6,000; labo- ratory equipment for home eco- nomics, $20,000; shepherds' house for agricultural experiment sta- tion farms $20,000.

KSC Players Tryouts To Be Tonight at 7:30

Tryouts for two plays to be pre- sented by the K-State Players will be held today at 7:30 p.m. in the Auditorium and Tuesday at 7 p.m. in G 206.

The plays are "My Three Angels," to be presented Novem- ber 17 and 18, and "Aladdin and His Wonderful Lamp" to be pre- sented December 8 and 9.

Principle of One-Man Choice Remains Wrong Despite Letters

Many comments, both reserved and unreserved, have filled the air since the Collegian editorially censured band director Jean Hedlund for firing Marlene Young as drum major.

It has been the impression of many that the Collegian has attempted to make the situation a personality feud between the two girls involved. Such is not the case. A matter of principle, and not personality, is the issue at hand.

To us, the situation remains the same as was outlined in our first editorial, despite conflicting opinions by readers who wrote letters to the editor.

Our first comment was that Marlene need not be replaced, and nothing has been brought to our attention to make us feel otherwise. Most K-Staters, and thousands of Wildcat fans, were pleased with the band during the year Marlene led it. We cling to the belief that the primary function of a band is to march and play in a manner pleasing to the crowd. If not, what is the function of the band?

Our second point was that, if it were necessary to remove Marlene as drum major, some satisfactory reason should have been given (we've yet to hear a logical one). We do not like to see so much arbitrary power vested in any one person.

We have been accused of batting around the feelings of the girls involved. We might ask just what happened to the feelings of the girl who was demoted without ever hearing a logical reason for the demotion? As for Nancy Howard, we do not feel and have not meant to intimate that she will not do a fine job. Our displeasure was with the method which created the vacancy for a drum major, not with the girl who filled the vacancy.

We've also been told that the whole matter was none of our business. We not only think it is our business, but we also think it is the business of all K-Staters. Some persons may be able to shrug it off as nothing, but we're positive their attitude would change immediately if they were dismissed without reason.

Here's a point to think over. The band and the Collegian have some resemblance—students receive one hour of credit a semester, and both organizations receive operating funds from the apportionment board. Here the resemblance ends. A notice is printed in the Collegian each semester that anyone may apply for the position of Collegian editor; interested students apply via written applications; they are interviewed by a Board of Student Publications, made up of three faculty members and three students; the board decides on the person to be chosen, and the editor cannot be ousted by any one member of the board.

Contrast this with the band, where one person has the power not only to demote a drum major without giving a reason, but also has the power to appoint another drum major without regard for the wishes of the student body or the members of the band, many of whom have signified their desire that the first drum major be returned to the band.

In addition, no general notice ever was made to the student body that the position was open—if it really was. As if this were not enough, the band was led to believe that Miss Young had resigned. It was not until she learned of this and wrote a letter to the band that its members knew the truth.

Anyone who thinks this sort of thing should be hushed up for fear of hurting someone's feelings hardly deserves the chance to attend college in a democracy. Such arbitrary power vested in one man is the sort of thing Americans have been against for almost two centuries. And we don't intend to back down because of the displeasure of a few persons who accuse us of not understanding the situation, when they are motivated by petty jealousies.—Gary Swanson, Darrel Miller.

Readers Say

Embarrassing News Should Be Suppressed Except in Politics

Congratulations to the Collegian! As any novice journalist knows, the supreme goal of all good newspapers is to expand reader interest so that not an issue is missed.

My hearty congratulations to the Collegian staff, for they have most certainly accomplished this! Of course, it is of no consequence that in so doing they have involved personalities, petty feuds, and other "important" news.

What I am curious to know: Is this "Rabblousing" in the name of Good Clean Fun, or is there a constructive purpose hidden within?

Might the Collegian conceivably be finding something more interesting, constructive and less embarrassing to interpret to Kansas newspapers in personality feuds than ag week?

Perhaps I was confused in thinking such tactics were withheld by courtesy except in political campaigns. Or may we also congratulate the Collegian for exceptional courtesy?

Anita Grimm, TJ Jr.

Too Much Talking

Dear Editor:

Well, aggie week is over. The one week in the year that everybody feels so obligated to express an opinion; the one week in the year that the school so definitely and fervently draws up sides on a matter, and then exerts every ounce of energy in backing them up.

In retrospect, I have only one opinion that I even consider safe to voice: Everybody talked too much. Our editorialists (the amateurs not taking journalism, as well as the amateurs taking journalism) endlessly dished out support for one side, or criticism for the other side. They spoke of the destruction of public property, the fist fights, the cuts and bruises, the stupidity or childishness of the aggies, or the meddling nature of the vets.

If these writers were so concerned about this type of conduct, I wish that they would consider themselves to a large degree responsible. For example, even before aggie week had started, the Collegian talked about the expected battles that would ensue between the aggies and the vets.

And then, the first time an aggie was ducked, some high brow would write a sarcastic editorial on the stupidity of such actions. Each time the Collegian came out both sides would search its pages for more fuel to add to the fire, or to see if somebody had said something about somebody, so that the first somebody could get even in one way or another with the second somebody.

You do not preserve the peace by having a high and mighty attitude, while at the same time calling names.

Norman Bengtson, AED Jr.

'Saints' Disturb Nap

Dear Ed:

Let Marilyn Monroe lead the band, for all we care. But could you promote some interest in getting the band to practice marching on the west side of the campus?

The long bong of the drum disturbs our nap, and at night the "Saints" go marching through our dreams.

Darrel Frogley, Jr.;
Thomas Johnson, Soph.

The Female View

To the Editor:

I notice that all your controversial articles on the drum major issues are by males. How about the opinion of a few females? At least, we aren't prejudiced toward charm and beauty, which obviously influenced you males, since you mention little or nothing of ability.

First, what right have you to condemn the band instructor for his choice of band members or the drum major? Football and basketball coaches pick their members for ability. Why shouldn't the band director do the same?

Second, you have accomplished nothing but a childish squabble in which you have batted the feelings of the girls involved around like ping-pong balls. After this, Miss Howard probably is ready to throw her baton in despair, and Miss Young wouldn't take the job if it were offered to her.

Third, what does Mr. Hedlund's term "militaristic" have to do with wearing pants? The word has been used ambiguously, as one of the dictionary meanings is the "spirit" which exalts military virtue and ideals, which might well include class and step, and his baton twirlers certainly have it! The only suggestion I would have is to put Miss Howard in a skirt too and "Come on, Band! Let's go!"

Mary Lynn Hepburn, Soc Jr.

The Army View

Dear Editor:

I enjoy reading the Collegian this year, especially the editorials about the K-State "Military style" band. Personally, I think they should keep Marlene.

Let the army have the military style, and keep college as it is!

Sincerely,
Harold Hartshorn, former student now in the army at Camp Chaffee, Ark.

KSC Opponents Score Three Wins

K-State's football opponents did not fare too well in games played this past weekend as only 3 of the 10 teams scored victories.

In the only Big Seven game KU came from behind in the last 1:19 of the game to gain a 7-7 tie with Iowa State.

The game was scoreless through the first three quarters but Don Lorenzen Iowa State back broke loose in the opening stages of the final quarter to put the Cyclones ahead 7-0. Lorenzen gained 93 yards in eight carries.

At Dallas, Oklahoma broke loose for a touchdown in each of the first three quarters to gain a 20-0 win over Texas Longhorns. Tommy McDonald, Sooner half-back, scored two touchdowns to boost his season's total to 30 points, high in conference play.

Colorado traveled to Eugene, Oregon for an intersectional game with the University of Oregon and were met with stiffer opposition than was expected. The Buffs scored a 13-6 win but for the first time this season they gave up more yardage than they were able to gain themselves.

In a game played Friday night in Dallas, Southern Methodist spotted Missouri a 6-0 lead then fought back to gain a 13-6 victory. It was the fourth defeat of the season for Missouri without a win.

Nebraska lost to Texas A&M 27-0. The Cornhuskers record now stands at 1 win and 3 defeats.

Results of other games played by K-State opponents were Iowa 20, Indiana 6; Oklahoma A&M 7, Wichita 14; and Wyoming 13, Colorado A&M 14.

IM Football Play Resumed Friday

Intramural touch football action resumed Friday night after rain had postponed Thursday's games. Only four of the eight scheduled games were played.

In the fraternity division, Sigma Phi Epsilon beat Theta Xi, 31-0; Sigma Chi shut out Lambda Chi Alpha, 19-0; the Farm House forfeited 2-0 to Sigma Alpha Epsilon, and the Phi Kappa-Tau Kappa Epsilon game was postponed.

The O.K. House beat the Disciples Student Fellowship, 6-0, for the only independent division score.

Monday's 4:15 schedule includes: 1834 Club against Alpha Kappa Lambda at northwest corner of drill field, Delta Tau Delta against Alpha Gamma Rho on center field of drill field, Pi Kappa Alpha against Beta Theta Pi on northeast corner of drill field, and Rho Alpha against Y.M.C.A. at southeast corner of campus.

Monday's 5:15 schedule includes: Alpha Tau Omega against Beta Sigma Psi at northwest corner of drill field, Phi Kappa Tau against Delta Sigma Phi on center field of drill field, Phi Delta Theta against Kappa Sigma on northeast corner of drill field, and House of Williams against Hillbillys at southeast corner of campus.

Schroeder Wins Pigskin Contest

Pat Schroeder, Ag Jr, was Saturday's winner of the weekly Pigskin Prognostication contest.

Pat was one of the few that guessed K-State would come out of the game with a victory. His estimate on the score was 26-14 but none of the other contestants came anywhere near that close. For total yardage he guessed 365 for the Wildcats and 203 for the Warriors, the Wildcats had 296 and the Warriors 190.

Only four of the contestants figured the Cats would win the game while one had the game coming out a 13-13 tie.

Pope Watches Basketball Tilt in Vatican City

Vatican City (U.P.)—Pope Pius XII sat on a golden throne Sunday and watched a game of basketball played in St. Peter's square.

A crowd of 150,000 persons, including 80,000 uniformed Italian athletes, stood in the square and cheered the Pope in one of the noisiest ceremonies and most unusual tributes of his 16-year reign.

The Pope, in a speech, appealed for a triumph of the Spirit over Materialism in sports and an extension of athletic programs to needy youths.

Forty gymnasts paced through calisthenics as the Pope leaned forward to watch. They were followed by basketball players who played a 10-minute game on a portable stage. The Blue Star team of Rome defeated the Italian Catholic champions of Italy, Benelli of Pesaro, 17-10.

The Pope, in a 30-minute speech interrupted 16 times by applause, said sports had become "one of the typical phenomena of modern society." He ended with a blessing in Latin to the sports.

Sigma Nu Wins 30-0 In Annual Grid Clash

Sigma Nu and Alpha Tau Omega celebrated nearly 90 years of competition between the two national fraternities with the annual Blackfoot-Whitefoot activities Saturday.

Sigma Nu won the touch football game Saturday afternoon 30-0. Francis Good scored three touchdowns for the winners and Owen Sutter and Galen Ward each scored one. The winners were awarded the Blackfoot-Whitefoot trophy at a combined formal Saturday night at the Wareham hotel.

Sarah Jolley, Pi Beta Phi, was crowned queen by Dean of Students Herbert Wunderlich at the formal. Her attendants were Carolyn McGowan, Kappa Kappa Gamma; Pat Ahlstrom, Alpha Delta Pi; Melba Tedrick, Alpha Xi Delta; Gailynn Krey, Alpha Chi Omega; Bernadine Macek, Kappa Delta; Marilyn McNelis, Clovia; Beth Shafer, Chi Omega; and Shirley Cameron, Delta Delta Delta.

The competition between the two national fraternities is nearly 90 years old. It was started at the Virginia Military Institute where both Sigma Nu and Alpha Tau Omega were founded within a few years of each other. It is celebrated by the two fraternities throughout the nation.

Oklahoma Win Runs Streak To 22 Games

Oklahoma's victory over Texas Saturday extended their winning streak to 22 games, for the longest winning streak of any major college football team in the nation.

It was the first time in the history of their 50 games that either team has scored a total of 4 consecutive wins.

In the final statistics Oklahoma gained 268 yards to 258 for Texas. In 1949 the Texans outgained Oklahoma by 4 yards, which stands as a record for closeness in yardage gained by the two teams.

K-Club Initiation Tomorrow Night

Initiation of 55 K-State varsity lettermen into the K-club will be held at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in the K-Room of Ahearn gymnasium. Announces Bob Mancuso, president of the organization.

The K-Club is a fraternity of all K-State men who have earned letters in varsity athletic competition.

Initiates this year include 16 from football, 5 from basketball, 6 from wrestling, 4 from golf, 11 from track, 5 from tennis, 8 from baseball, and 2 from gymnastics.

Mancuso asks that all members be present and that "K" sweaters be worn to the meeting. He announced a short business meeting will follow the initiation.

U. S. Marines themselves are uncertain who first sent the dispatch. "The Marines have landed and have the situation well in hand," but the sentence is thought to have been coined by Richard Harding Davis.

Molotov Through As Top Russian?

Washington (U.P.)—U.S. diplomats believe Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov may be on the way out as one of the triumvirate that has been regarded as wielding the most power in Russia in recent months.

Diplomatic sources said yesterday that a new struggle for Russia's top leadership may be under way.

They interpreted Molotov's dramatic public "apology" as the latest step in a behind-the-scenes battle to succeed the late Josef Stalin as Russia's number one boss.

Molotov's "sin" was to say that Russia has built only "the foundation" of a socialistic system instead of following Communist dogma that this goal already has been achieved. This could be a fatal error in Russia.

Cairo (U.P.)—The Arab world has rallied behind Premier Gamal Abdel Nasser in his determination to buy arms from communist Czechoslovakia.

Syrian Premier Said El Ghazzi has said that, having failed to get arms from the western countries on acceptable terms, Nasser had no alternative to seeking them elsewhere.

Line Schedule Motion Back To SC Committee for Study

The Student Council last night retabled a motion to publish the names of instructors on line schedules with the course they teach. The old motion, proposed by Newton Anderson, was discussed, amended and sent back for further consideration by the committee.

A letter by C. W. Mullen, assistant dean of agriculture, was read stating probable results of such a listing. Mullen proposed eight faults with including professors' names with their classes.

He said that "unusual emphasis" builds up among students as to the popularity of certain instructors. This popularity, he continued, eventually "is ballooned beyond all proportion to its actual importance."

An instructor may be "tagged" as poor accidentally, but will never lose that label, he said.

Too many students base their judgment of an instructor on youth, beauty, being a good fellow, and being easy on quizzes. Mullen declared that department heads find the best way to fill their Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday classes is to assign their popular instructors to these classes and the less popular to the Monday, Wednesday, and Friday 9 and 10 o'clock classes.

Mullen suggested that if instructors must be identified with their classes, the department head might post a line schedule on the department bulletin boards before enrollment.

Newton Anderson moved that his motion be amended to read that the council send a recommendation to President McCain that the department heads be requested to make available a tentative list of instructors and line numbers before enrollment each semester.

"The important question is, is this the right thing to do?" Bunny Cowan asked. She argued that most K-State students are not looking for an easy course, but want the best possible teacher since they are paying for an education.

In arguing the letter from Mullen, Jim Graves said that he couldn't see how instructors would be blackballed. "That point about judging instructors on youth, beauty and such shows low regard for the students," he added.

A request for additional funds for Homecoming was read to the Council from Phil Robertson, chairman of the Homecoming committee. He asked an increase from $150 to $350.

Another appeal for more money was made by the cheerleaders. Head Cheerleader Phil Stiles explained that the cheerleaders needed jackets, new sweaters, and new megaphones plus their regular expenses. The new budget would be for $536. The original appropriation was for $150.

The Council voted to include both requests and an appeal for $200 more for Student Directories in a request to the apportionment.

Plans were made for having the annual Peace Pact dinner with Kansas university next Monday night. Bill Kennedy and Beverly Sargent were appointed as a committee to make arrangements.

Politicians To Meet Here on Wednesday

A day-long conference on politics and the college student will be held in Thompson hall Wednesday beginning at 10:15 a.m., according to Prof. L. A. Douglas of the history, government and philosophy department.

Primary purpose of the conference, sponsored cooperatively by the Kansas Citizenship Clearing house, the College department of history, government, and philosophy, and the office of General Extension is to encourage student participation in the political party of their choice.

KSDB Wants Local Talent; Tryouts Today

Radio station KSDB-FM will hold talent tryouts anytime today to perform on radio, Don Lancaster, talent director of the station announced.

The tryouts will be held on the third floor of Nichols gym, he said.

KSDB-FM is attempting to find more local entertainment, Hutchinson said. "The station's new policy is to let K-Staters hear more from and about K-Staters.

Invited guests include Rep. William Avery of the first district; Evan Griffith, past member of the Democratic State committee; Richard Rogers, Riley county attorney; Jack Rodgers, director of research of the Nebraska Legislative council; and Howard Neighbor, KCMO newscaster.

Professor Douglas said county chairmen of both political parties in the first congressional district have been invited.

Classes and discussion during the conference will include such topics as local party politics, careers in political science, achievements and prospects in

Union Governing Board

Faculty Fee Still in Question

Members of the Student Union Governing board failed again to decide whether faculty members should pay a fee for using the new Student Union.

The decision has been delayed awaiting action by the Faculty Senate committee on faculty affairs. The Senate's action is pending a questionnaire to be sent to faculty members asking their opinion.

No faculty members were present at the meeting to report on progress in formulating the items in the questionnaire.

"Why is it taking so long to get the questionnaire in circulation?" asked Marjorie Badeker, DIM Jr. "We could speed up the process by helping to tabulate the results of a survey like this."

"I would like to have an opinion, no later than the end of October," said Lee Ruggles, TJ Sr. "What is going to be asked in the questionnaire?" Ruggles asked.

"I don't know," replied Loren Kottner, Union director.

To speed up action on this question, a committee of Student Union Governing board members was appointed to assist the Faculty Senate committee.

Committee members are Ruggles, Miss Badeker, Keith Swenson, ArE Jr; and Henry Burmeister, AgeE Sr.

"After you get the questionnaire, what are you going to do with it?" asked Ward, alumni representative.

"The Faculty Senate wants to show us how the faculty feels about faculty fees for the Union," Miss Badeker said.

"I don't think anybody wants to tell us anything about the subject," replied Doreen Cronkite, HEJ Sr.

The Student Union Governing board adopted the following policy rules for the new Union:

(1) Smoking is permitted in the K-State Union except in areas where dances or movies are being held. Smoking privileges will be granted for the little theater by special arrangement only.

(2) Users of the building will be urged to use the check room in the main lobby for books and coats.

KSC Band Members Give Confidence Vote to Leader

Dear Editor:

In the Collegian of Monday, October 10, there appeared an article with the bold headlines, "Principle of One-man Choice Remains Wrong Despite Letters." We feel that it is time this foolish bickering came to an end. As band director, Mr. Hedlund has the same responsibilities as any other faculty member directing a college activity.

How could a band be run if the responsibility of selecting the members were not vested in the band director? This would be like a football coach not choosing his players, or a dramatics coach not selecting his actors.

We, as members of the Kansas State College Band, feel that the only person qualified to select members for any campus activity is the director of that particular activity.

Engineers, Press, Vets 'Missed Boat'

Mr. Editor:

Now that ag week is over, I would like to point out some observations of mine where some vets, a few engineers, and some journalists have "missed the boat."

In the first place, ag week is for aggies only. The "hoss tank" serves only as an incentive for aggies to wear blue jeans and a red neckerchief. But no, it seems some vets must raid the tank, destroying it and in general ruining everything. Hence the treatment that followed was only brought on by the vets themselves.

Also I believe that the "Middle Ages Treatment" and the reporter who supposedly received said treatment deserves some discussion. Mr. Carr, you have stated that aggies are unable to comprehend the way society works. In general you mean aggies are backward and unintelligent. However Farm House fraternity (composed entirely of ag boys) seems to consistently lead in high grade averages, both locally and nationally. Please explain that.

Then you also exclaim with great alarm in your column in the October 7 issue that you were "swarmed by thousands of aggies" and taken off for another dunking. In the first place there are only about 900 students enrolled in the School of Agriculture here at K-State. Yet you have declared THOUSANDS of aggies swarmed you. That in itself, I believe is the basis of all this slander against the aggies. It's nothing but pure exaggeration to make the aggies look like bad boys.

Then also you claim that you resent the dunking so badly. Looking again at the picture on the front page of the October 7 issue, that expression on your face is not my idea of an expression of pain and agony. You actually look as though you were enjoying the dunking.

No, Mr. Editor and Mr. Carr, you, some vets, a few engineers, some journalists, and a few narrow-minded others have missed the boat. Hope you have a better time during ag week next year.

Walter B. Burling, Ag Fr

Welcome Offered To KKG Politicos

Hail to the party of Kappa Kappa Gamma.

I am writing this letter to offer welcome to a new political party which has just emerged on the campus scene. I think that it could justly be labeled the party of Kappa Kappa Gamma.

In case anyone is confused, I am referring to the abundance of KKGs we find as candidates for Senior Class office on the Integrity ticket this fall (three out of four, to be exact). Come now, girls, I can hardly believe that you really have that much of a monopoly on senior talent this year. Surely somewhere in the senior class there is an outstanding senior other than Mark Drake, who isn't in the Kappa house.

Rumor has it that somebody packed the meeting of the Integrity party last week and controlled the nominations. That couldn't have been the Kappas could it? I wonder if one would call this "dirty" or "power" politics?

It's rather amusing that this should occur within the Integrity Party, the Party of the People's Choice. It would seem that it is now the party of the Kappas' choice, and nothing more.

I guess we can be thankful that the senior class president is traditionally a boy or a Kappa would have undoubtedly been nominated for this office also.

Good Luck at the election GIRLS!

Feeling Blue? Exams Got You Down? Try Laughing

By ANN WEATHERS

Feeling blue? Five weeks' exams got you down? Join the Laugh Society.

The Laugh Society has returned to the University of California campus, spreading glee in its wake. The society seeks to make life easier and more enjoyable for suffering students by means of the oldest remedy known to man—laughter.

Every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, the group meets and devotes the noon hour to laughter, song, and good fellowship. Membership is open to anyone who wants to attend and laugh away his troubles.

Students at Indiana university have a simple and entertaining way to beat overflying gutters and heavy rain. They have a semi-strip tease. The shouts of "Take 'em off, take 'em off," however, applied strictly to socks and shoes as campus sweethearts huddled together under windbreakers and waded the overflowing Jordan river.

A 1930 Model A Ford stripped of doors, hood, and roof, that rotates in circles and has 10 wheels, may never win the Indianapolis 500-mile race, but it stands a good chance of winning Iowa State's Scrap Heap Scramble.

The Scramble is not a race. The winners will be judged on the uniqueness of their cars. The only restrictions are that the car run under its own power, be safe, and be a '39 model or older.

Students and faculty members at the University of California are saving their creative efforts for more important projects than jalopy races. They're busy helping build a clean and habitable home for a low-income family that has been forced to live in substandard housing. This is part of a citizens' committee drive to replace substandard homes with inexpensive homes of good quality.

The real estate business is booming on the University of California's campus. "For Sale" signs have been mysteriously appearing on and disappearing from various campus buildings. So far, no one seems to be interested in purchasing a hall of higher learning. Wonder how much I could get for Kedzie . . . ??

To make up for a rather dead pep rally for the football team, Indiana university students put together a rather unique "best of luck" telegram for the team.

Each student paid a nickel to have his name added to the message. The result? A 35-foot-long telegram.

The five named were listed as George Green, Los Angeles; Vladimir Goltwurski, San Francisco; Pvt. Sydney Sparks, Tennille, Ga., who fled to East Berlin from an army stockade in West Berlin in 1951; and Jack Gorolski and Bud Goldsman (hometowns unreported).

Whitehead Top Cat at Marquette

Bob Whitehead, senior quarterback, was selected K-State "Player of the Week" for his playmaking in the Wildcat's 42-0 upset of Marquette Saturday night.

"After a poor day against Nebraska Whitehead refused to be discouraged and came back with a wonderful game against Marquette," Coach Bus Mertes said in announcing the selection of the 155-pound Whitehead as last week's "Player."

"Whitehead is a tremendous competitor," Merte said. "He can do so many things with a football—quick-kick, pass, and run the option—and he is a better than average runner." The coach pointed out that these abilities make Whitehead especially valuable to the Cats.

Whitehead scored two touchdowns and engineered two others in the Wildcats first win of the year. He gained 65 yards on the ground and passed for 32 more. He also punted twice for 53 yards and ran back a kickoff 18 yards.

Going into the Marquette game Bob lead the Big Seven in punting returns with an average of 27.5 yards on two returns. As a punter, Bob ranked fourth in the conference with an average of 38.2 yards on 17 kicks. One of them set a new varsity record when he quick-kicked 90 yards against Wyoming.

Bob is also a two year letterman in varsity baseball at K-State. He played third base and shortstop and was one of the Wildcat's top hitters. He will be able to give full time to his diamond activities this spring since he will not participate in spring football practice.

Bob is a senior in economics and plans a career in industrial public relations after graduation and a tour of duty with Uncle Sam. He is married and has a six-month-old daughter, Linda Jo.

Bob attended Cleveland high in St. Louis where he lettered in football, baseball, and soccer. His soccer experience helped him develop the footwork that makes him a good "Split-T" quarterback.

Atkeson, a member of Beta Theta Pi, ran against Phil Robertson, Phi Delta Theta, and Dean Becker, Sigma Phi Epsilon. Atkeson received 28 votes, Robertson 1, and Becker none.

Voting at the caucus was done by representatives of various organized houses. Each house received votes in proportion to their membership.

Four candidates ran for vice-president. They were Dean Becker, Sigma Phi Epsilon; Ann Shaw, Pi Beta Phi; Pat Humble, Alpha Xi Delta; and Greg Williams, Phi Delta Theta. Miss Shaw received 15 votes, Becker 8, Miss Humble 3, and Williams 2.

The four running for secretary were Pat Humble, Alpha Xi Delta; Beth Shafer, Chi Omega; Kathryn Regier, Delta Delta Delta; and Doreen Cronkite, Alpha Delta Pi. None of the candidates received a majority. At the first vote Miss Shafer received 12, Miss Humble 3, Miss Regier 4, and Miss Cronkite 9.

In a revote Miss Shafer won 19 to 9 over Miss Cronkite.

The four running for treasurer were Judy Menehan, Alpha Delta Pi; Doreen Cronkite, Alpha Delta Pi; Dean Becker, Sigma Phi Epsilon; and Barbara Puh, Independent. Miss Puh received 23 votes, Miss Menehan 1, and Becker 4.

Officers of the All-College party were elected. Charles Broman, Phi Delta Theta, defeated Bob McDowell, Beta Theta Pi, 17 to 8 for president.

Miss Smith was elected secretary-treasurer by unanimous vote.

Publicity and campaigning were discussed and the group decided to meet Saturday at 11 a.m. to make final campaign plans. Anyone interested is invited to attend, Charles Boman, party president, said.

Les Elgart, known by his fans as "America's college prom king," will appear with his band on the campus December 9 for a concert and dance.

The announcement of Elgart's scheduled appearance was made today by the Union dance committee, which said the dance would feature the crowning of the Royal Purple queen and her court. The dance, which will follow a Christmas theme, will not be the regular Royal Purple dance however, the committee said.

Elgart's band was picked as one of the most promising swing bands in a recent poll conducted by Down Beat magazine among ballroom operators.

The concert at K-State will be December 9 from 7:30-8:30 p.m., and the dance will be in Ahearn gymnasium from 9 p.m. until midnight.

House decoration winners will not be announced at the dance as originally planned. Announcements will be made at halftime during the game.

She has appeared on several radio and television programs and toured last summer with Eddie Dunbar and his band of St. Joseph, Mo.

A professional entertainer for many years, Miss Ames currently has a program on station KSDB-FM. The program is entitled "The Intimate Voice of Janice Ames," and is on the air Thursdays from 7-7:15 p.m.

Union Lot To Get One-Way Drives

Improvements in the form of one-way drives and diagonal parking will relieve congestion in the Student Union parking lot, R. F. Gingrich, maintenance superintendent, said today.

The parking lot has been completely redesigned to conform with the landscaping program for the new Student Union. Work will begin this spring and be completed by the fall semester 1956-57, Gingrich said.

Funds to pay for the Union parking lot improvements have been approved by the Board of Regents and are pending approval by the Legislature scheduled to meet in January.

Major changes to the parking area will include diagonal parking and separate entrances and exits. Further changes will reduce the width of the drive to 13 feet.

A new parking area will be made in the space currently occupied by the Temporary Student Union.

The completed parking area will have a capacity of 367 cars. This figure is slightly lower than previous estimates, but is still equal to the number of cars that can park in the lot now.

A total of $5,000 was approved by the Board of Regents for the parking lot improvement.

Herewith Is the Sad Story Of Stork Who Got in a Rut

By Bob Newlin

Today, we plan to deal at length with such interesting and varied subjects as Aunt Matilda's portable keyhole cover, the man who broke the bank at Monte Carlo, and the fifth race at Hialeah.

By way of opening this little discussion, let me bring you up to date on what's new in the world of psychological science by telling you of the rather hopeless dilemma in which a certain English couple found themselves.

Seems year after year the stork blessed this pleasant household with nothing but girls. Well sir, as time went on and on and endlessly on, the male member of this happy mating was becoming a little fed up with the situation. One night, after a particularly uneventful presentation by B'rer Stork, the Doctor and the husband (who by now are quite chummy) are just turning into the driveway when the Doc spies a duck waddling placidly across the yard. When he inquired of his friend what a duck would be doing there at that hour of the morning, the considered reply was . . . "that's no duck, thats the stork with his leg bones worn off."

Well, then and there, these two pioneering citizens decided something had to be done about all these girl babies. Feeling the situation was indeed dire, they planned indeed dire action. They enlisted the aid of not only the city of London, of not only the British empire, but of the entire world.

They advertised far and wide, and eventually answers began to pour in: From South Africa came the advice of a vegetarian who insisted that a boy could be had only by eating a very special diet; which he very generously offered. Next came an interesting letter from the South Pacific islands of Bali, which drew the expected conclusion that the only SURE way to insure the birth of a boy in the woe-begotten family was a change of climate with Bali being listed as particularly ideal. This came from the Bali Chamber of Commerce. Then there was a letter from a Frenchman which read simply, "Can I be of any service?" Well, on to greener pastures.

Keeping up with the world of entertainment is a must in this ultramodern age, I'm sure you'll agree. Have you caught that spellbinding new soap opera currently available on one of the leading networks? It deals with the story of a simple, everyday, bewildered housewife who wants two bathrooms in her soon-to-be-constructed home. The show is called "John's Other Wife's Other John." Catch it at your earliest opportunity.

In the world of good music there are a couple of things we feel deserve mention in this calculatedly conservative column. One which your reporter feels will soon reach hit ranking is a lovely and sentimental ballad called "I Could Tell She was a Schoolteacher by the Pupils in her Eyes." It originally was released under the title "I'll Never Forget What's Her Name." These are on sale at your local record store now.

Our custom through the ensuing weeks will be to culminate this dissertation with a thought for the week. So, in parting: "Women's hats may change from season to season, but their designs remain the same."

(If, after scrutinizing the above noble treatise, you can sincerely say you found no humor, please keep your cotton pickin' mouth shut!)

Nixon in Presidential Race Despite Refusal To Talk

By JOSEPH AND STEWART ALSOP

Washington—Republican leaders from every corner of the United States have been telephoning or calling on Vice-President Richard Nixon, either to assure him of their support, or to sound out his intentions toward the coming Presidential election.

The Nixon answer has run about as follows:

"We all hope the President will be well enough to run himself. Even if he decided that he can't run again, I think the party ought to defer entirely to his wishes, as I'm sure you agree. So I don't want to talk about the matter at all."

But it is already transparently obvious that the Vice-President will be a candidate for the Republican nomination if the President, as is virtually certain, decides he must retire. Unless he is directly encouraged by the President himself, Nixon will not be an active, avowed candidate, engaging in public delegate-hunts in the manner of his great enemy, California Gov. Goodwin Knight. But Nixon will be a candidate all the same.

Despite Governor Knight's popularity in California, Nixon can do what Knight will have the greatest difficulty in doing. He can obtain heavy support in other states. For example, there is a close personal link between the Vice-President and former Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York.

How or when this link with Dewey was established is not quite certain. At any rate, although Dewey is abroad, people who invariably reflect his views are already passing the word that "there's no one but Nixon."

Finally, there is no doubt at all that Nixon also has the invaluable assets of the President's warm liking and admiration. But most of those who know Eisenhower best think the Republican leaders will be unable to persuade him to designate his successor, although they will certainly try to do so.

When the list of Nixon assets is added up, the total certainly is impressive. In view of the relative sparseness of Republican competition, one would be inclined to go out on a limb and predict a Nixon nomination, if it were not for one weak point.

As the President's principal politician, Nixon has unavoidably conveyed an image of himself to the public that is strongly political; and nowadays the way to succeed in politics seems to be not to look like a politician.

This weakness of Nixon's has shown up strongly, in turn, in the public opinion polls. These have been so far shown that whereas Adlai Stevenson would be badly beaten by President Eisenhower, Stevenson would beat Nixon by a heavy majority. But if the polls go on saying that Nixon is a loser, the politicians are likely to end by taking fright. If that happens, the politicians may perhaps stampede to some dark house like the President's brother, Milton Eisenhower.

"Something Seems To Have Stunted Them"

Crazy Auto Says . . .

Not as a Stranger Draws Imitation by Cheap Novels

By R. R. Carr

Have you noticed the gentle influx of paperback novels about the medical profession since the success of Not As A Stranger? Some of them are quite obviously capitalizing on that success.

For instance, My Fifty Years as a Surgeon has a yellow, black and red cover with the following legend prominently displayed upon it:

"Morton Thompson was indebted to this book for suggesting some medical incidents fictionalized in his novel Not as a Stranger." The last four words are printed in red capital letters.

As a matter of fact, the book was first printed more than 20 years ago and it is the dull autobiography of a doctor who in 1936 celebrated 50 years as a surgeon. Most of the book is concerned with advancing his pet theories on appendicitis operations.

The "incidents" mentioned on the cover consisted, as far as I could see, of only two. One occupied less than a single paragraph. They'd have a devil of a time making an interesting movie out of this one for several reasons, one of which is that there is no wisecracking characterization for Frank Sinatra to do.

Well, that's all the culture for this week. The rest of the column will be devoted to why that's all the culture.

As vice-president in charge of the ink vat for Journalism Week, I find that I haven't had the time to read as many books, see as many movies, and hear as many records as is necessary for the correct writing of these columns.

But, lest you think these columns are the result of anything but arduous and painstaking research, I shall now explain to you the arduous and painstaking research that goes into the columns.

I usually have to spend all my week ends going to movies with my free passes, and being wine and dined by concerned theater managers. They only pay me when I give them a favorable review. (I get a dollar for every one of their movies I describe as "terrific," and a month's supply of popcorn if I call them "supercolossal!")

Reviewing records isn't quite so bothersome as the movies, but I do feel a little awkward when the record store owners lock me in their listening booths. Many's the night I've spent locked in a booth listening to music and getting hungry enough to eat the Sauter-Finegan orchestra, label and all.

Ah, but the books! They are my greatest joy. All my life I have been influenced by great literary works. (As a matter of fact, I was born in the fiction section of the Boston Public library, between Shakespeare and Schulman.)

To Tolstoy's War and Peace I owe much of the light that came into my sheltered youth. (It was the only book thick enough to permit me to reach the window of my reformatory-school cell.)

But, I shan't at this time tell you all of the literary influences that I draw upon to bring you this column. (He also draws upon walls—Ed.) It must be left to future issues of the Collegian to tell my full background.

(Editor's note: How can Crazy Auto make future columns as popular as the one he wrote last week—there being no column last week—if he tells all now?)

Ike Asks Russia To Swap Plans

Washington, (U.P.)—President Eisenhower is making a new appeal to Russia to support his plan to swap military blueprints and arrange aerial survey flights over both countries, administration officials said today.

Officials said the new bid for Russian support is an important part of the President's "interim" reply to Premier Nikolai Bulganin's September 19 letter on disarmament.

The reply to Bulganin was drafted in final form during Secretary of State John Foster Dulles' conference in a Denver hospital room yesterday with the ill president.

Mr. Eisenhower also was expected to inform Bulganin that the United States still is working on a broader disarmament program.

Jones Boys Win Over Vets 32-7

Passes accounted for all 39 points as the Jones Boys beat the Kansas State Vets 32-7. Charles Hudson threw four touchdown aerials and both extra point passes for the victorious Jones Boys.

The touchdown passes went from Hudson to Mackie Murphy, Richard Hooker, and William Sparks, who caught two. Murphy passed to Norman Tucker for the other Jones Boys TD. Hudson passed to Orville Linder and John Boring for the extra points.

Howard Young threw to Pete Wimsatt for the Vets' only touchdown, and Phil Doctor passed to Young for the extra point.

The O.K. House shut out Sigma Phi Nothing 13-0. Neal Porter scored the victors two TD's and Jim Elliott scored the extra point. Jr. A.V.M.A. defeated the House of Breck 31-6. Fred Wingert starred for AVMA, scoring three touchdowns. Ronald Gerleman scored for the House of Breck.

The Hui O Makules and Wesley Foundation battled to a 25-25 tie, but Wesley Foundation was given the win because they had the ball in the Hawaiians' territory when the game ended.

KU To Run Two Teams Against OU

By UNITED PRESS

Strategy was the key word among Big Seven coaches today.

From Lawrence emerged word that Coach Chuck Mather plans to use two teams against Oklahoma Saturday. The Oklahomans, riding high on a 22 game winning streak, are rated 28 points over the Jayhawks.

Mather said he might use a team a quarter in an effort to throw fresh troops into the fray and stall a grinding Oklahoma attack. Five injured players, three of them starters, might blow his scheme sky high, Mather admitted.

Despite Oklahoma Coach Bud Wilkinson's lament that Kansas "is an ever improving team," the fans apparently were looking ahead two weeks. It was announced all available seats for the Oklahoma-Colorado game Oct. 22 have been sold.

The Sooner squad ran through defensive drills on the practice field.

At NU, Coach Bill Glassford said his Cornhusker squad probably will take to the air against Pittsburgh Saturday to offset a weight advantage by the Panthers. Pitt has a line averaging 212 pounds to Nebraska's 190, and a backfield of 181 to the Husker's 177.

Cats Get Look At Buff Attack

Coach Bus Mertes gave his first unit a look at the Colorado single-wing as ran by the freshmen and reserves yesterday in an effort to set a defense for Saturday's Big Seven game with the Buffs.

The second and third teams ran an offensive scrimmage as the coach tried to develop more offensive punch in his reserves.

George DeBitetto, starting guard for the Marquette game, sat out the practice session with a bruised back. Trainer Porky Morgan says it will be Thursday before the extent of his injuries will be known. His position on the first unit was filled by Rudy Bletscher, sophomore guard who had started all games prior to the game with Marquette.

In another position change, Charles Zickefoose, senior end, was moved back to the first unit, replacing sophomore George Laddish.

Coed Enjoys Strumming Autoharp for Relaxation

By ROGER MYERS

A K-State coed, Carol Wilmore, EED Soph, is one of few persons who play an autoharp—and she does it for relaxation.

Know what an autoharp is? It's a string instrument very much like a zither and was called harpsichord in colonial days. "I guess you could call an autoharp a modern-day zither," Miss Wilmore said.

Carol has the distinction of being probably the only girl at K-State who plays the instrument.

An autoharp is played by stroking the strings with the right hand while pressing keys which make chords with the left hand. "You play it the same way you would play a guitar or banjo," she said.

Since the autoharp can produce only chords, the player must sing the melody. "I play a lot of modern ballads on the instrument," she said. "Playing the autoharp is very relaxing," she said.

"The instrument is simple to play," she said, "and the only requirements are a good arm and the ability to read music."

Carol started playing the autoharp while she was going to Topeka high. Carol's first autoharp was a graduation gift from her grandparents.

Playing the autoharp is a family tradition which stems back to Carol's ancestors in Germany. When her relatives migrated from the old country to Pennsylvania, they brought an autoharp with them.

"An autoharp costs about $50, but you can get one for $30," Carol said. "The instrument is becoming more and more popular on TV and radio, so they probably cost more now."

Carol Wilmore

What Now?

Books For Democracy Are Gathering Dust

One K-State student project last year seems to be still projecting.

At least the several thousand Books for Democracy collected last spring to "be sent to foreign countries to replace Russian-published books filled with Communist propaganda now being sent to these countries" are still waiting to be sent.

The books, estimated at 12,000 to 15,000 by Ben Coffin, drive chairman; estimated at half-a-dump-truck load by a member of the physical plant; and estimated as a whole lot, by student body president Gerry Day, are in the aeronautical laboratory at the north end of the campus.

According to a Collegian article last year, Coffin, who has since graduated, said the books, school texts collected from students and Manhattan townspeople, were to be crated and shipped to Washington, D.C. for distribution.

Day said last night that all the Student Council can determine is that everyone connected with the project has graduated and that no one knows why the books weren't sent, where they can be sent now, or how much it would cost to send them there.

The Council has taken an interest in the project since the old Council last spring donated $100 in student funds to the project which at the time had the support of almost everyone from President McCain on down to the student body.

Monday the council appointed a committee to study the problem after discussing shipping the books to World University Service in St. Louis (with K-State paying shipping costs) or to the Navajo Indians.

We think this is a good example of something, but we are not sure what.

—Lee Ruggels.

Traitors Help Reds

Western Advice, Real Danger May Lurk Behind Soviet Smile

By Stewart Alsop

There was an inconclusive but rather fascinating little episode in the famous Bolshoi theater in Moscow some months ago.

An American lady who had known the British traitor, Donald Maclean, before he went over to the Soviets was having supper in the restaurant during the intermission of the opera. She glanced across the crowded restaurant and suddenly her eyes met Maclean's. They looked at each other for a long moment and then the lady turned to her escort. She looked back again almost immediately, but Maclean—or was it his ghost?—had magically disappeared.

The episode is worth recalling if only because it was the first indication of what has now been confirmed as a significant fact. A recent British White Paper on the case of Maclean and his fellow traitor, Guy Burgess, undoubtedly is based on hard intelligence. It has confirmed that Maclean and Burgess are indeed living in or near Moscow.

At the time of the above incident at the opera, it was only suspected that this was so. It was also only suspected that the two men were playing some role in the making of Soviet policy. Now this too has been confirmed, also by the White Paper, which states unequivocally that both men have been serving since their defection as "advisers to the ministry of foreign affairs and other Soviet agencies."

It is interesting to speculate on the kind of advice they may have given. Burgess is a fool. But Maclean is highly intelligent, however neurotic.

He is, no doubt, highly regarded by his Soviet masters—they went to great trouble to get him safely away when his treachery was suspected.

Let us, therefore, imagine that Maclean is addressing a gathering of influential Soviet policy makers.

"Comrades, I submit that in the past our leadership has gravely underestimated the effect on the bourgeois mentality of trivialities and superficial appearances. Permit me to cite two examples.

"First, I propose that our Ambassador in Great Britain should develop a seemingly overpowering passion for roses. Such is the emotional attachment of vast numbers of the British bourgeoisie for these flowers, that the Ambassador's roses will greatly stimulate the existing impulse in Britain to abandon the costly rearmament program.

"Second, I propose that a press campaign strongly praising corn be initiated here. In the United States corn elicits much the same emotional response as do roses in Britain.

"I assure you, comrades, that such trivial gestures will have a profound effect upon the Western bourgeois mentality. For the more sophisticated imperialists, more serious but no more costly gestures will be required.

The foregoing is not an entirely serious attempt to reconstruct the advice Maclean has given the Soviet Foreign Office.

Yet the foregoing may serve to suggest some of the dangers to the West that may lurk behind the new era of Soviet smiles. It is well to remember that one day the smiles may disappear as suddenly as did Donald Maclean that night at the opera.

Bernarr MacFadden Dies in New Jersey

Jersey City, (U.P.)—Bernarr MacFadden, a leading American exponent of physical culture for more than a half-century, died at the age of 87 here last night.

The wiry little man, who pyramided muscles, magazines and manly daring into fame and fortune, succumbed to a blood clot on the brain, attending a relapse of a complicated liver and gall bladder ailment.

MacFadden had a lifelong distrust of doctors, and generally scorned medical aid in favor of his own prescriptions consisting of exercise, health foods and fasting. However, Dr. Charles Landshof, his physician, termed him a "cooperative" patient since October 7, when he entered the hospital.

MacFadden, who once said he expected to live to be 120, built a multi-million dollar publishing empire on sex and raw carrots. He was derided as a charlatan, arrested as immoral, and lauded and adored as a prophet.

Commie Paper Says Iran Violated Agreement

Moscow—The Communist party newspaper Pravda charged today that Iran's accession to the pro-western Baghdad pact violates Iran's own agreements with Russia.

One of these, the Soviet-Iranian treaty of 1921, provides Russia the right to send its troops into neighboring Iran if Soviet security is threatened from there and Iran's government cannot cope with this threat.

Diplomatic sources here foresaw the theoretical possibility that the Soviet Union might invoke this 1921 treaty if it felt its security threatened by Iran's membership in the Baghdad pact.

Britain Plans To Build Atomic Submarine

London—Britain is planning to build an atomic submarine similar to the U.S. Navy's "Nautilus."

Adm. Earl Mountbatten, first sea lord, said last night the admiralty has "for some time" been examining "the possibilities of atomic propulsion of men of war, more particularly for submarines."

He said that plans "are now taking definite shape and though we shall not have a nuclear-powered submarine in the Royal Navy for some years, her arrival is only a matter of time."

Rome—Italy is conducting cosmic ray experiments on behalf of Russia and Poland, Foreign Minister Gaetano Martino told the Senate last night.

He cited the experiments in a major foreign policy speech which stressed Italy's desire for collaboration with other countries in the drive for world unity.

"We have agreed to carry out on behalf of Soviet Union and Polish scientists experiments with film plates at high altitudes for research on cosmic rays," he said.

Students Who 'Just Can't Wait

—Collegian Photos by Dick Carr and Warren Miller

"That Union is really a big place, isn't it?"

Kay Chamness, EEd Fr, and Conrad Smith, Hst Sr, decided yesterday that they just couldn't wait to see the new Union. So, off they went for a tour of the building.

The Union, which is to be opened about the first of February, is a $1,650,000 structure financed by student fees.

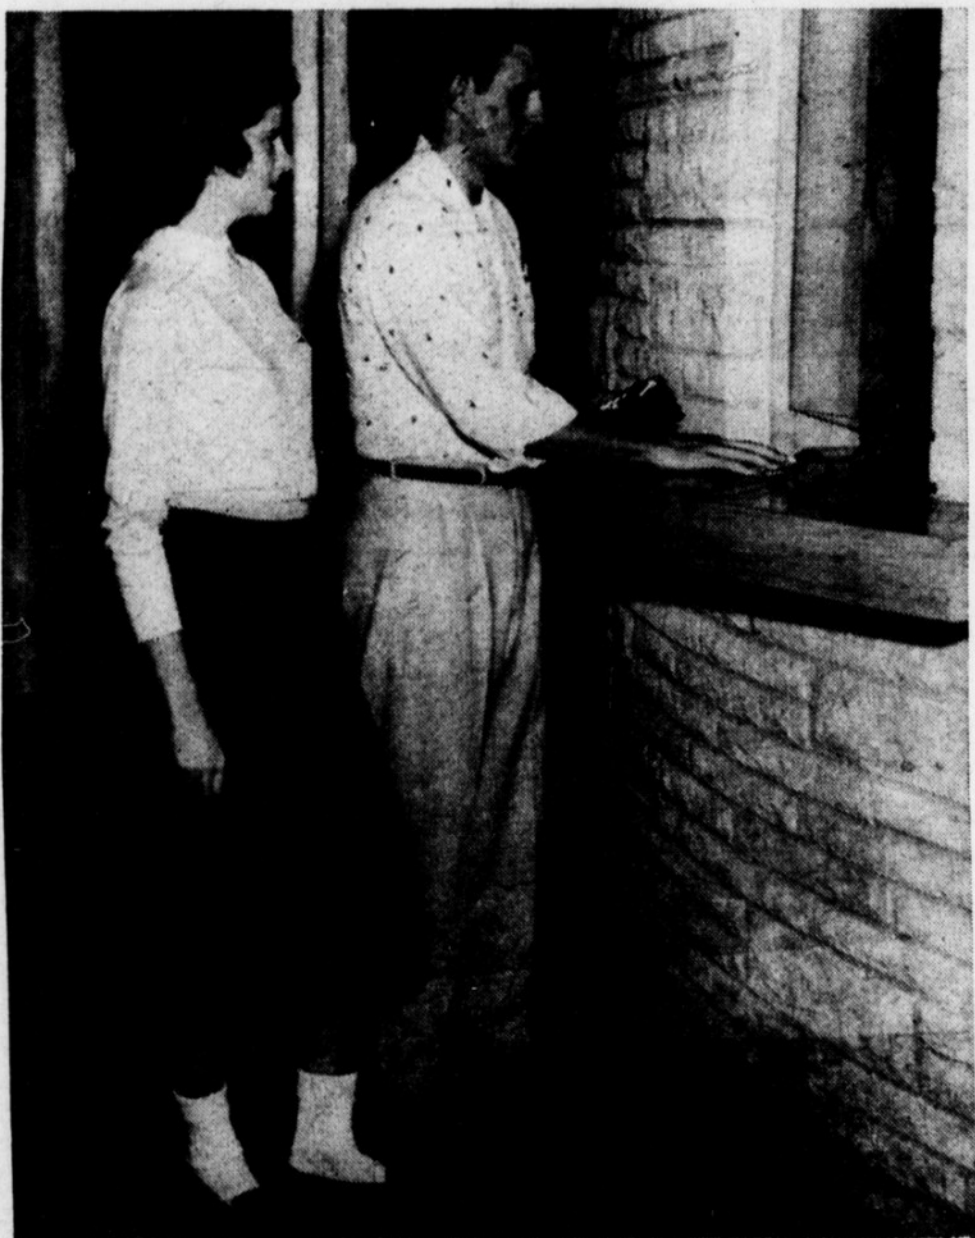

Activities and services to satisfy students, faculty members, and visitors promise to be a part of the Union program.

For game-minded persons, there will be bowling, billiards, table tennis, cards, chess, and other games. Crafts and photography are among other activities on the Union's 3½ floors.

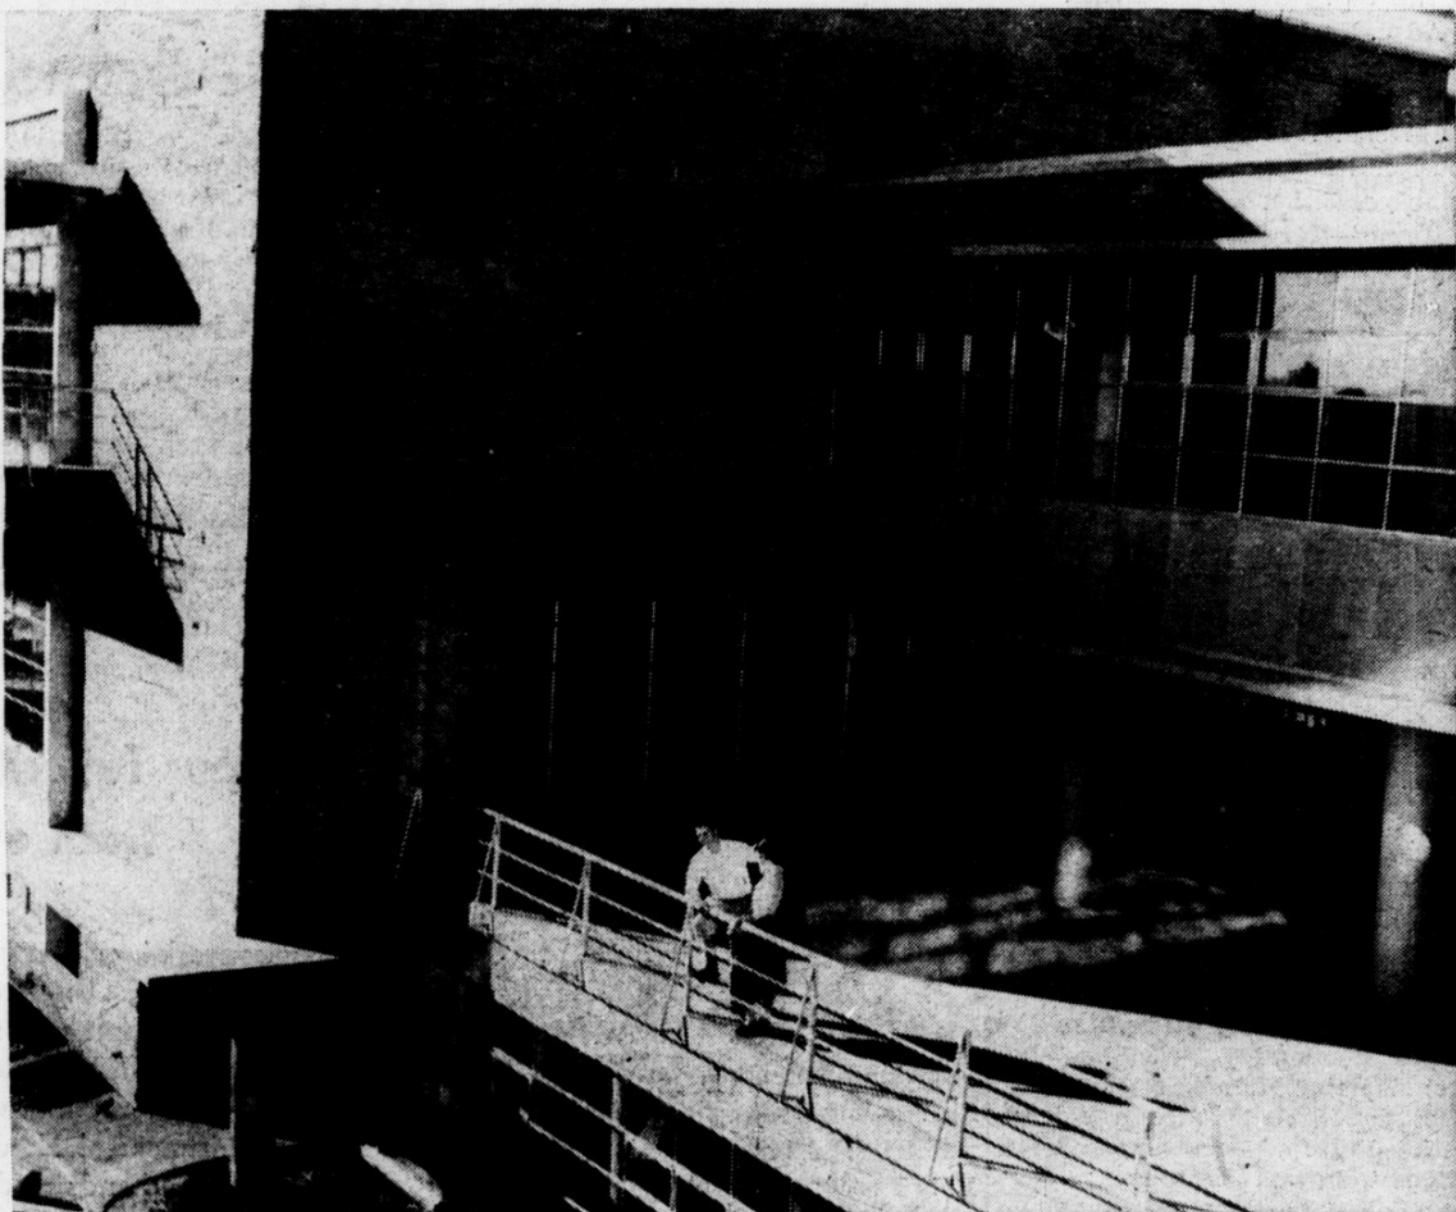

Other services available include an arts lounge, a lecture hall, an outdoor patio, a snack bar and a cafeteria, private dining rooms, meeting rooms, and a ballroom which will accommodate 750 to 1,000 couples.

The "typical day" shows the Union open from 7 a.m. to 11 p.m., with 34 events scheduled during the day. Events range from a meeting of students planning a Throttle-Jockey club to the formal initiation of Phi Kappa Phi.

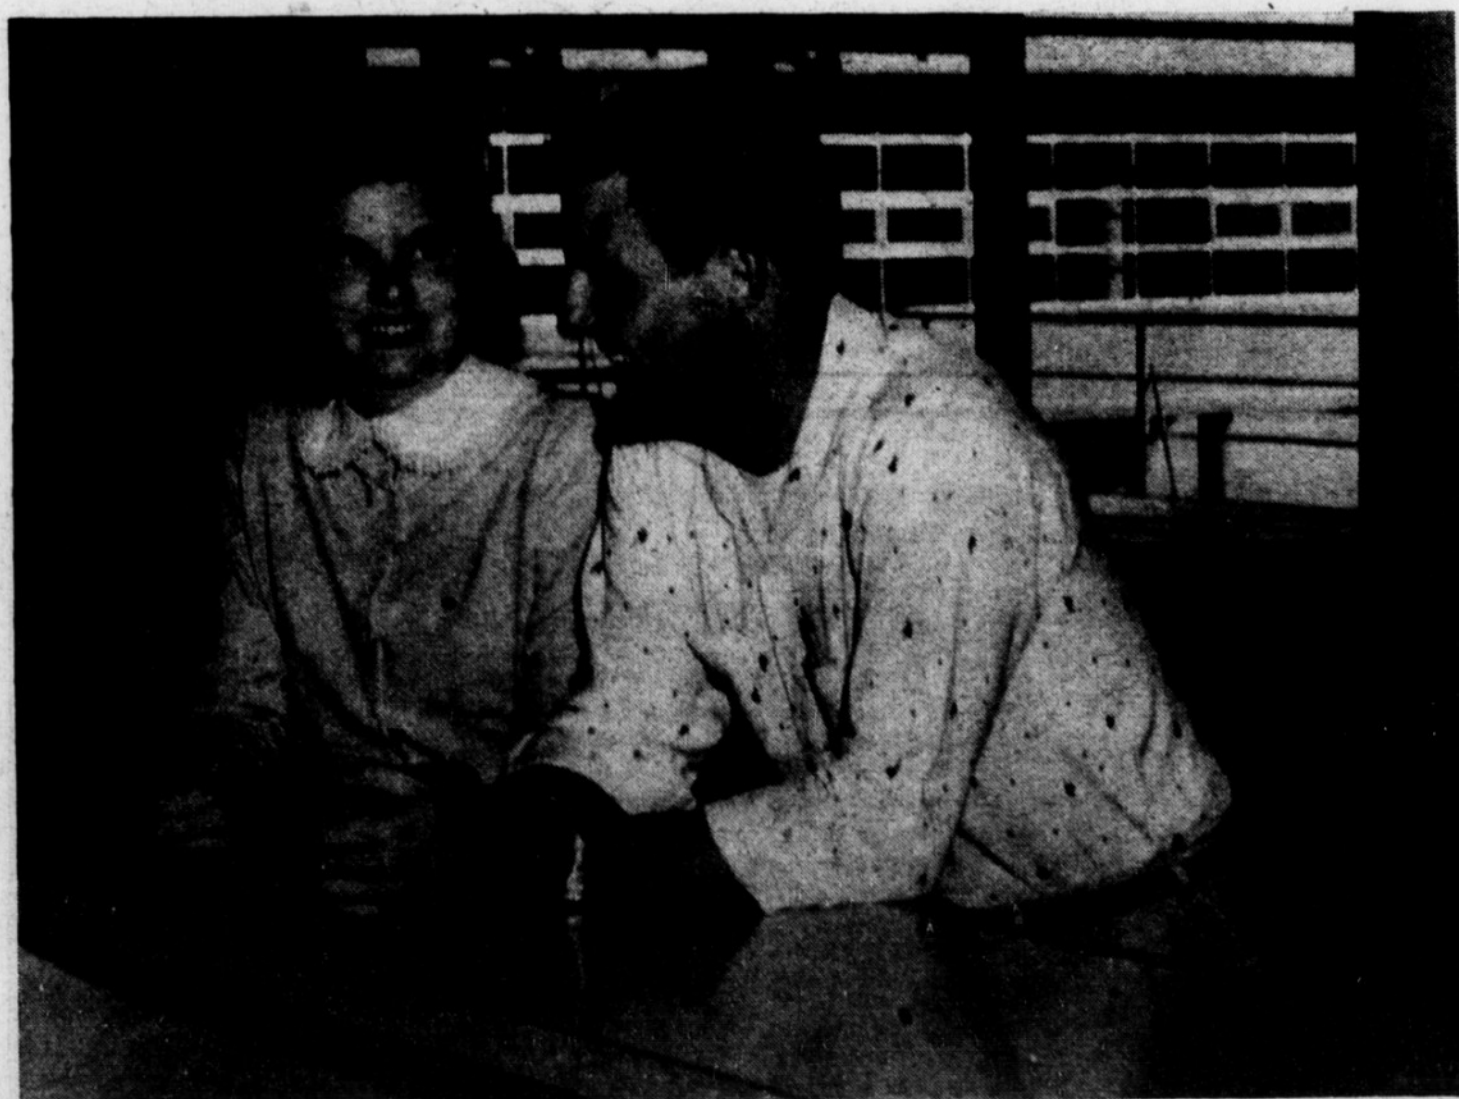

After their tour was completed, Kay and Conrad agreed that the Union is going to be a swell place in which to "live" while not in class.

"Two, please."

"Isn't that parking lot a mess?"

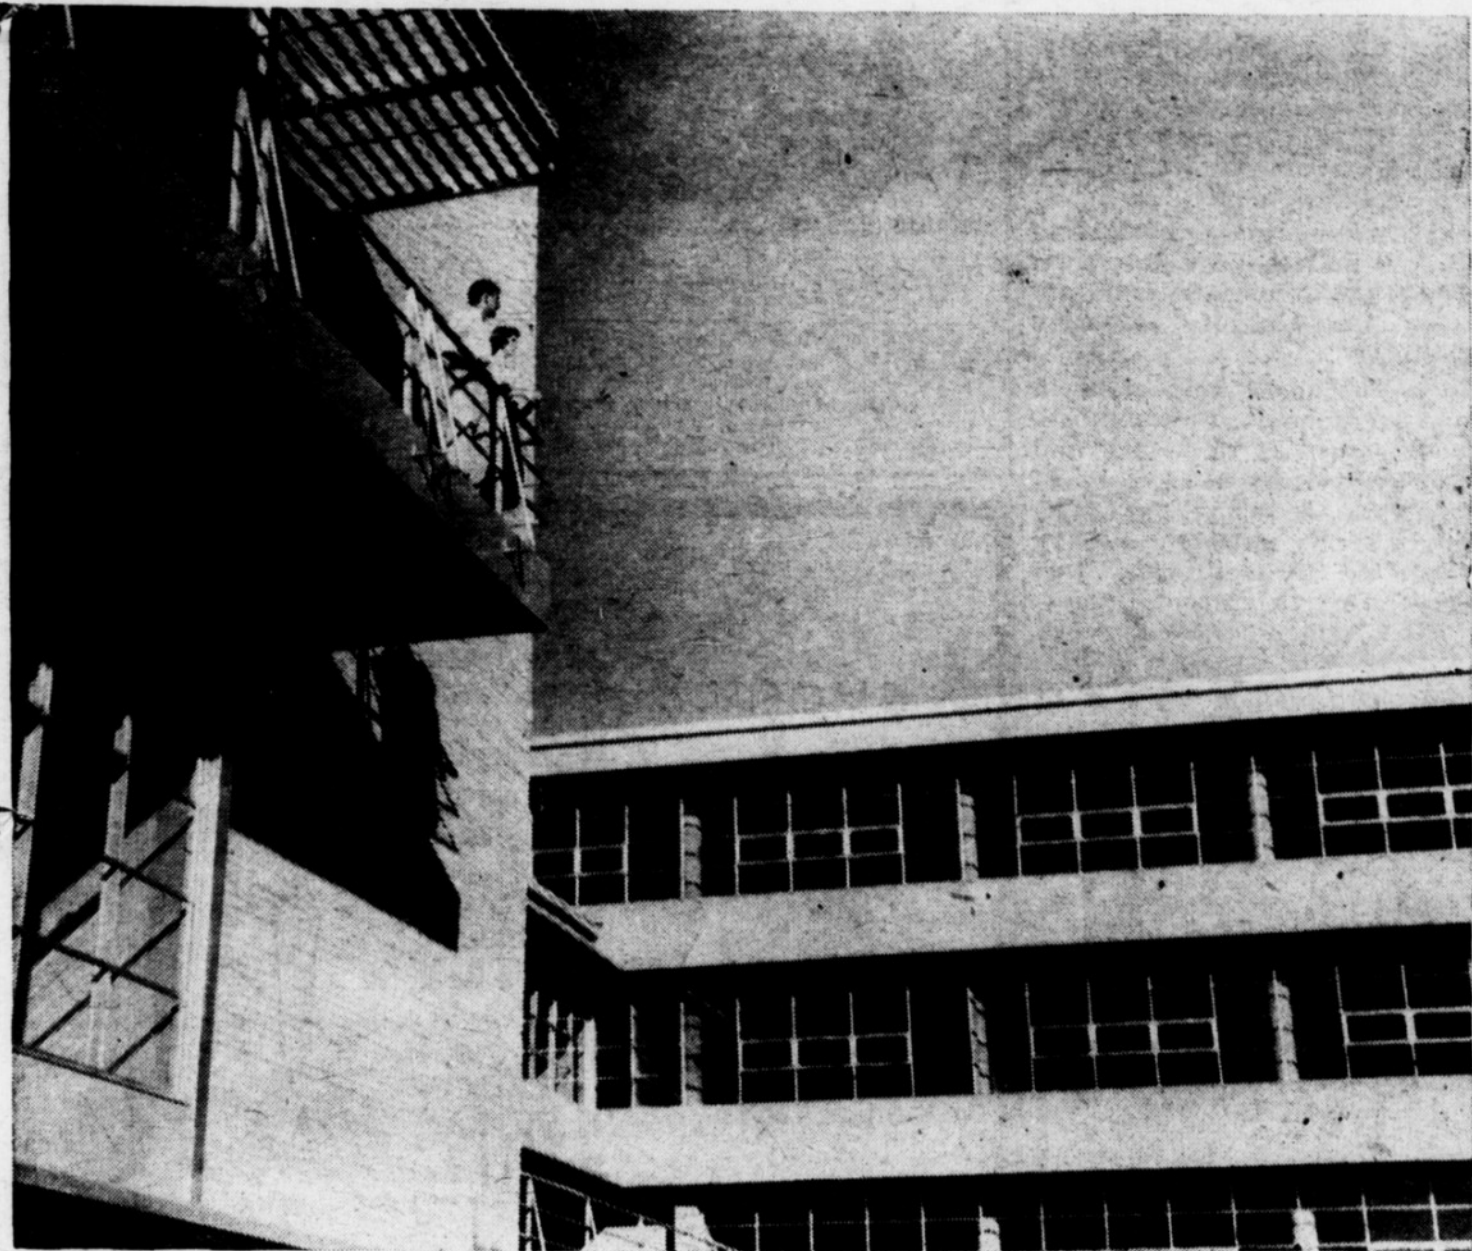

"How about a coke?"

"Sure are a lot of steps in this building."

Let's Take a Tour of New Union

Freshman Gridders In Opener at KU

K-State's freshman gridders are scheduled to open their season Friday when they meet the KU freshmen at Lawrence.

Last season the yearlings played two games and won both of them, defeating KU 31-19 and Nebraska 19-13.

In addition to the KU game on Friday, the Cat yearlings are to meet the Nebraska freshmen here on November 7.

Ed Cavanaugh, new K-State freshman coach, took over as freshman coach last January under the newly appointed head coach Bus Mertes.

Cavanaugh is a graduate of Duke university in 1950. He played varsity football and lettered two years on the Wallace Wade coached teams. In 1951 he was called into the Navy and acted as player-coach on the U.S. Naval Training team at Bainbridge, Md. In 1952 he was named to the all Navy team.

Cat Spirit Up For Buff Tilt

In high spirits after their surprise, 42-0, upset of favored Marquette last Saturday, K-State showed only one hampering injury from the contest. George DeBitetto, starting right guard, may be sidelined from the Colorado U. game with a severe back bruise. The junior letterman had made the opening line-up for the first time this season on the strength of his play as a reserve in earlier games. Coach Bus Mertes called DeBitetto's play against Marquette "his peak performance."

Best bet to replace DeBitetto in the Wildcat line is 196-pound sophomore Rudy Bletscher who started at right guard in K-State's first three games.

"We were hungry to win after those three straight losses," he explained. "We feel the win and the ability the boys showed gave us something to build on."

The Wildcat coach called K-State's decisive win over Marquette "something the boys earned and collected."

Delts Score 33-0 Victory

Delta Tau Delta shut out Phi Kappa Tau 33-0 for the highest team score in Wednesday's intramural football action.

George Rood was high scorer in the game with 7 points.

Sigma Nu defeated Delta Sigma Phi 25-14 as Francis Good lead the scoring with 12 points for the winners. Two touchdowns and a safety accounted for the scoring done by the losers.

John Dorst lead Tau Kappa Epsilon to a 21-13 win over Alpha Kappa Lambda with two touchdowns and two extra points.

Bob Raffety was the big gun in the Beta Sigma Psi attack, scoring 13 points, as they defeated Phi Kappa 26-12.

Three touchdown passes and a pass interception were the downfall for Lambda Chi Alpha as they were defeated 25-12 by Farm House.

In other games played yesterday the 1834 Club defeated Alpha Tau Omega 12-7; Sigma Phi Epsilon defeated Sigma Chi 13-0; and Sigma Alpha Epsilon defeated Theta Xi 32-6.

In a makeup game played Tuesday night, Tau Kappa Epsilon defeated Phi Kappa 12-0.

Today's 4:15 p.m. schedule includes: Acacia against Kappa Sigma at northwest corner of drill field, Disciples Student Fellowship against the O.K. House on center field, Brewster Boys against the Hillbillies at northeast corner of drill field, and West Stadium against the Hui O Makules on southeast corner of campus.

Today's 5:15 schedule includes: Pi Kappa Alpha against Phi Delta Theta at northwest corner of drill field, Vets against Sigma Phi Nothing on center field, Rho Alpha against House of Williams on northeast corner of drill field, and House of Breck against Wesley Foundation on southeast corner of campus.

Wildcats Prep For Buff Game

The Wildcats split their practice time between offensive and defensive drills yesterday in preparation for Saturday's Big Seven game with Colorado. Coach Mertes worked his gridders against Colorado plays run by a team of reserves and freshmen.

The Cats moved to the turf of Memorial stadium for the final part of the workouts and ran through a 30-minute offensive scrimmage.

No new changes were made in the K-State lineup. Chuck Zickefoose remained at right end, and Rudy Bletscher was at right guard for the injured George DeBitetto. DeBitetto, who suffered a back bruise in the Marquette game, was released from the hospital Tuesday but is still not able to work out.

"Our big problem is how to move the ball against that Colorado line," Mertes said.

KS Greets Parents, Band, Press

By BEV RINGEY

Thousands of persons are expected to be on hand tomorrow for the tri-feature day which includes Band day, Parent's day, and Editor's day.

Forty-three Kansas high school bands, including more than 2,400 high school musicians, will participate in the annual Band Day ceremonies, according to Jean Hedlund, K-State band director.

The bands will take part in a parade starting at 10 a.m. which will start at Second and Poyntz, proceed up Poyntz to Eleventh Street, turn north, and terminate at the City park pavilion, where the Manhattan

Chamber of Commerce will furnish a light lunch to the marchers.

Seven of the visiting bands will present marching demonstrations in Memorial stadium, beginning at 12:15 p.m. and continuing until the football teams come on the field. These bands include the Wamego, Marysville, Stafford, Colby, Oxford, Centralia, and Salina high bands. All bands will play the national anthem preceding the kickoff.

Bands planning to take part in Band day in addition to the seven performing in pre-game ceremonies, include Alma, Barnard, Barnes, Belleville, Beloit, St.

John school of Beloit, Blue Rapids, Burlington, Chase, Clifton, Delphos, Dodge City, Emporia, Frankfort, Garden City, Gypsum, Hiawatha, Holyrood, Hutchinson, Jamestown, Jewell, LaCrosse, Manhattan, Onaga, Morrowville, Phillipsburg, Plains, Randolph, St. Marys, Seneca, Silver Lake, Sterling, Vermillion, Woodbine, Waterville, and White City.

Parents' Day activities will begin at 9 a.m., when visiting parents register in Anderson hall. Registration will continue until noon.

Lunch will be served to students and their parents in the cafeteria between 10 a.m. and 1 p.m.

The K-State marching band will perform at halftime, and will form a giant heart in a salute to the College's "honorary Mom and Dad," who are being selected this year for the first time.

They are Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Wilson of Salina, parent of Thomas Wilson, Ar Fr. The couple, married 34 years, will have a featured spot in the Band Day parade Saturday morning and will be presented during the halftime ceremonies of the K-State-Colorado football game tomorrow afternoon.

The K-State band will spell out "Pop" and "Mom" and then go into three heart formations while Mr. and Mrs. Wilson are honored and given a special gift from the student body.

Dean Nehrig, ChE Jr, Parents Day committee chairman, and Sheila Dicken, BMT Jr, chairman of the selection committee, will make the presentation.

The representative parents' names were chosen by lot from the entries submitted by the students at the voting booth in Anderson hall last week.

Coffee will be served to students and their parents after the game. Coffee hour is also scheduled for Northwest, Southeast, Van Zile, and Walthelm halls.

Buffet supper will be served at 5:30 p.m. in all sororities, fraternities, and organized independent houses.

Editors will be seated in a special section in front of west stadium. The attendance is expected to exceed 300 again this year, Lashbrook said.

Feed Tech Dedication

U. S. Steel Exec To Speak Nov. 10

Benjamin F. Fairless, member of the board of directors of United States Steel corporation, will be the main speaker at the dedication of the feed technology wing November 10.

Fairless, who rose from school teacher to the head of one of America's largest steel corporations, will announce his own speech topic.

The new wing, located on the east end of Waters hall, will be used for the advanced study of feed preparation. Students are already preparing formula feeds for the dairy, poultry, and animal husbandry departments on the campus.

The milling and feed industry, composed of most of the major formula feed companies and milling machines companies, banded together in asking K-State to adapt the new feed technology building and program.

The industry donated much of the half-million dollars needed for the erection and equipping of the building. K-State contributed about $70,000.

The feed industry selected K-State for the new building be-effective operation of the enlarged plan, according to industry representatives.

The new feed technology curriculum has been set up in such a way as to let the student take either farm milling technology, or feed milling technology. Options are offered in the junior year, in engineering, business, or chemistry. Prof. John Johnson of flour and feed milling department said.

Johnson said engineering would be advanced training in feeds or flour mill operation. Business would be accounting and courses associated with the handling of business, and chemistry would allow the student to continue his work in the control work of flour and feed work.

Study Classes Will Start On Monday

A series of study skills classes will be held in Anderson 228 beginning October 17, Sumner Morris, director of the counseling center, announced.

The classes will meet Monday through Thursday at 3 p.m. for three weeks, Morris said. The classes are voluntary and carry no credit. Students may sign up for a section now in the counseling center, Anderson 228.

Morris urged students who feel they are not using their study time effectively, or who are having trouble concentrating during lecture sessions, to sign up for the classes.

"The purpose is to review and discuss effective techniques of studying and to consider individual and group study problems," Morris said.

Some topics to be discussed are time scheduling, techniques of studying and assignment, lecture note taking, concentration and motivation, preparing for and taking an exam, and effective study conditions.

Members of the counseling center staff will teach these classes. They are, Sumner Morris, Director of the Counseling Center, Mrs. Audrey Patterson, psychometrist, and Ken Kennedy and Don Hoyt, counselors.

Benjamin F. Fairless

Students Can Help K-State By Welcoming Visitors

In this day and age when institutions of higher learning compete vigorously for new students, many methods are used to entice students to attend a particular college.

While giving scholarships and building new dorms are top attractions to high school seniors, one of the best methods of winning new students is for K-Staters to personally contact prospective students telling them about the campus and life at K-State.

A good opportunity to do a little public relations work for the College will present itself tomorrow when thousands of parents, high school band members, and newspapermen will be on campus.

Each Band member is a prospective K-Stater. If students now at KSC would contact these people from their home towns offering to show them around the campus, the high schoolers could get a good picture of K-State life. Students won't enroll if they're not interested, and, in many cases, it'll take more than a catalogue and an admission blank to make them want to come here to school.

It won't take much time to show the musicians around, so why not let them know what a good school we have?

Tomorrow also would be a good time to let your folks know that you think K-State is a pretty good place. Perhaps even some of the more calloused newspaper editors would be impressed by the many building improvements on campus.

We almost hit the 6,000-student enrollment mark this year, and enrollment should go away over that figure next fall. Why not do a little recruiting and help increase the enrollment total.

Readers Say

Americans Don't Follow Their Ideas of Freedom

Dear Editor:

I came to the United States of America thinking that I was going to live in the land of freedom—in the land where everybody was allowed to live in the place that he so desired; in the land where he would be addressed as a human being and treated as such.

After being here for over a year, I think that I was taught wrong. Or many American citizens have not read or do not execute the intent of the wording of the Declaration of Independence nor the Constitution of the United States. Neither do they try to accomplish the objectives of the United Nations.

I am referring to something that happened to three exchange students from Liberia (for those who do not know geography and will start to wonder where in heavens is this place, I will tell them—it is in West Africa). One of the students is the brother of the president of the newly formed world council of the YMCA. These three students were attending summer school at KSC and were rooming at a private home near the campus.

The people in the neighborhood gathered their evil and freedom-deprived minds and made a committee which was sent to the owner of the house. They expressed their (best) wishes that the three Liberian boys be denied their human rights to live in the place that they desired, and that they should not be accepted as roomers for the scholastic year 1955-56.

The owner of the house did not pay too much attention to the neighbors' wishes at the beginning. But, seeing that there might be some controversy in the neighborhood, he had to accept the unjust agreement of those neighbors who had taken the law of God and the law of man in their hands.

The Liberian boys were not told why they were not allowed to remain in the neighborhood, but they had a very definite idea. Two of them went to Howard University in Washington, D.C., and the other went to Pittsburgh university in Pennsylvania.

Is this the way in which you would expect to be treated? Could it be that the English that I speak, read, and write is different from your own? Or, perhaps, it is that I do not know what is the meaning of the following: "all men are created equal... they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights." How many times have you thought about this, which was written by the founding fathers and which has given you the liberty under which you live, before you betray your own Declaration of Independence?

How many times have you shown any respect whatsoever to the colored boy (or girl) who goes to class with you? This question does not apply to the innumerable times that you have called him (or her) a "damned nigger," because this is your daily greeting to him (or her).

This is the way in which the society of the United States of America functions, seen through the eyes of an alien. For those of you who are wishing my departure from the U.S., because of my evil tongue, I request that you also enclose the cost of passage. Neither was I born in a bed of flowers nor am I writing this at the top of an oil well.

I would also like to take the following phrase from an English author, "Print and be damned."

Syracuse Cannon Sprays Stockings After Each TD

By Ann Weathers

Gunpowder is becoming outmoded as cannon fuel at Syracuse university. Instead, they use nylons, silks, mesh, or any other material worthy of the name stocking donated by coeds to fill a traditional cannon at Syracuse football games. When their team makes a touchdown, the cannon goes off, casually draping bits of femininity about the field. —Extra player's bonus, maybe.

If some of you men think you're having a hard time making the wife-to-be rake up money to get married on, you should have some of the problems of other nations' swains, according to the University Daily Kansan. For instance, in Eastern Nigeria, the purchase of a wife has become so dear that a government committee has suggested maybe a price control, or worse, a rationing. Even today, in New Guinea, a would-be bridegroom has to kick in a bunch of dog's teeth to his future father-in-law. Times are better, however. Time was when he also had to dump in a pair of human heads. The price of a half-way decent bride in West Pakistan is so high the young men have taken to abducting them to cut down on the expenses. Not a bad idea. Think what the price of a fully decent bride must be.

When you come right down to it, Americans have it pretty nice. If papa places his foot too firmly on the floor, there's always the ladder to the bedroom window. (Are you listening, Dick?)

Results of a Colorado university survey on intolerance indicate that church-going students are inclined to be more intolerant than students who never attend church.

Catholic students are more likely to be intolerant, the report says, than Protestant—all other faiths and the Jewish faith come in that order. The report showed that students who called themselves "agnostics" were most tolerant.

The study showed that female students were less prejudiced than male students as were graduate students and students with higher grade averages. Classes in the most prejudiced groups were the freshman and sophomore.

A student government officer at the University of San Francisco wrote to the University of California concerning the use of the honor system during exams, and received this reply:

"The University of California abandoned the honor system several years ago when it became evident that the professors had the honor and the students had the system."

The student sections at the University of Texas football games may soon be bristling with miniature megaphones. Cheerleaders say a mere whisper projected by one of the megaphones becomes a "Bevoish roar." (I don't know what that means, either, so don't feel bad.) At least, it's practically guaranteed to liven things up at future games.

The University of Oklahoma football fans who made the trip to one of their out-of-town games last week were guided by a long series of signs placed at intervals along the highway. The signs, running four to a series, were similar to the Burma Shave ads, and contained references to the rivalry between the two schools and victory slogans, in case the fans forgot what they were there for, during the trip.

ord and for singing the title song in "Pete Kelly's Blues;" pianist Oscar Peterson and his trio, and drummer Gene Krupa and his quartet.

Other performers and their instruments are Buddy Rich, drums; Bobby Scott, piano; Eddie Shu, saxophone; Whitey Mitchell, bass; Dizzy Gillespie and Roy Eldridge, trumpets; Don Abney, piano; and Lester Young, Illinois Jacquet and Flip Phillips, saxophone.

It was emphasized that persons should not attempt to make a wire or tape recording of the performance unless they have permission from Granz and the Musicians' union.

O'Connor, Durante Star in Free Film

Donald O'Connor and Jimmy Durante pair up for 90 minutes of madcap antics in tonight's free movie, "The Milk Man," showing in Engineering lecture hall at 7:30.

O'Connor, as the playboy son of a wealthy milk company owner, goes to work for a rival firm and with that his troubles begin.

It isn't long before Donald finds himself involved in a gangster's plot to steal a valuable necklace. On the brighter side, he's also involved with Joyce Holden and Piper Laurie who help considerably to ease the situation.

Bob Alexander, Union program director, said that over a hundred students were turned away from last week's scheduled movie when the film failed to arrive. Today's film is in his office, however, and will definitely be shown.

THE PEN IS MIGHTIER THAN THE SMOOCH

Back in my courting days (the raccoon coat was all the rage, everybody was singing Good Morning, Mr. Zip, Zip, Zip and young Bonaparte had just left Corsica) back, I say, in my courting days, the standard way to melt a girl's heart was to write poetry to her.

Young men today have abandoned this gambit, and I must say I don't understand why. Nothing is quite as effective as poetry for moving a difficult girl. What's more, poems are ridiculously easy to write. The range of subject matter is endless. You can write a poem about a girl's hair, her eyes, her nose, her lips, her teeth, her walk, her talk, her clothes, her shoes—anything at all. Indeed, one of my most lambent love lyrics was called To Maud's Pencil Box. It went like this:

Are pencils of yellow and red,
And if you don't tell me you love me soon,
I'll hit you on top of the head.*

Honesty compels me to admit that this poem fell short of success. Nothing daunted, I wrote another one. This time I pulled a switch; I threatened myself instead of Maud.

*Oh, Maud, pray stop this drivel
And tell me you'll be mine,
For my sweetbreads they do shrivel
And wind around my spine.*

*My heart doth cease its beating.
My spleen uncoils and warps.
My liver stops secreting.
Soon I needs be a corpse.*

When this heart-rending ballad failed to move Maud, I could only conclude that she was cruel and heartless and that I was better off without her. Accordingly, I took back my Hi-Y pin, bid her adieu, and have not clapped eyes upon her since. Last I heard of her, she was in North Scituate, Rhode Island, working as a clam sorter.

—there's no telling where it would have ended if she hadn't been drafted

But I did not mourn Maud long, for after Maud came Doris—Doris of the laughing eyes, Doris of the shimmering hair, Doris of the golden tibiae! Within moments of meeting her, I whipped up a torrent of trochaic tetrameter:

*Oh, my sweet and dulcet Doris!
You're gentle as a Philip Morris,
With its mild and rich tobacco
And its white and scarlet pack-o,
Both in regular and king-size.
Doris, tell me please your ring size.*

Well, of course, the poor girl couldn't resist a poem like that—what girl could?—and she instantly became my slave. For the rest of the semester she carried my books, washed my car, and cored my apples. There's no telling where it all would have ended if she hadn't been drafted.

So, men, you can see the efficacy of poetry as an aid to wooing. Try it soon. All you need is a rhyming dictionary, a quill pen, and a second-hand muse.

Thousands Expected To Attend

A full day of activities will greet Kansas editors, parents, and band members tomorrow here at K-State. Sandwiched in between a parade, luncheons, and teas will be, of all things, a football contest with the Colorado Buffaloes.

The spotlight will be focused on Bus Mertes' Wildcats as they take the field seeking their second win of the season and first Big Seven victory. Although the Cats are underdogs, a great showing against Marquette last week has caused Cat fans to hope for a dramatic upset.

Highly precisioned and well-trained bands will march in a parade down Poyntz avenue in the morning and will entertain fans with pregame activities on the football field.

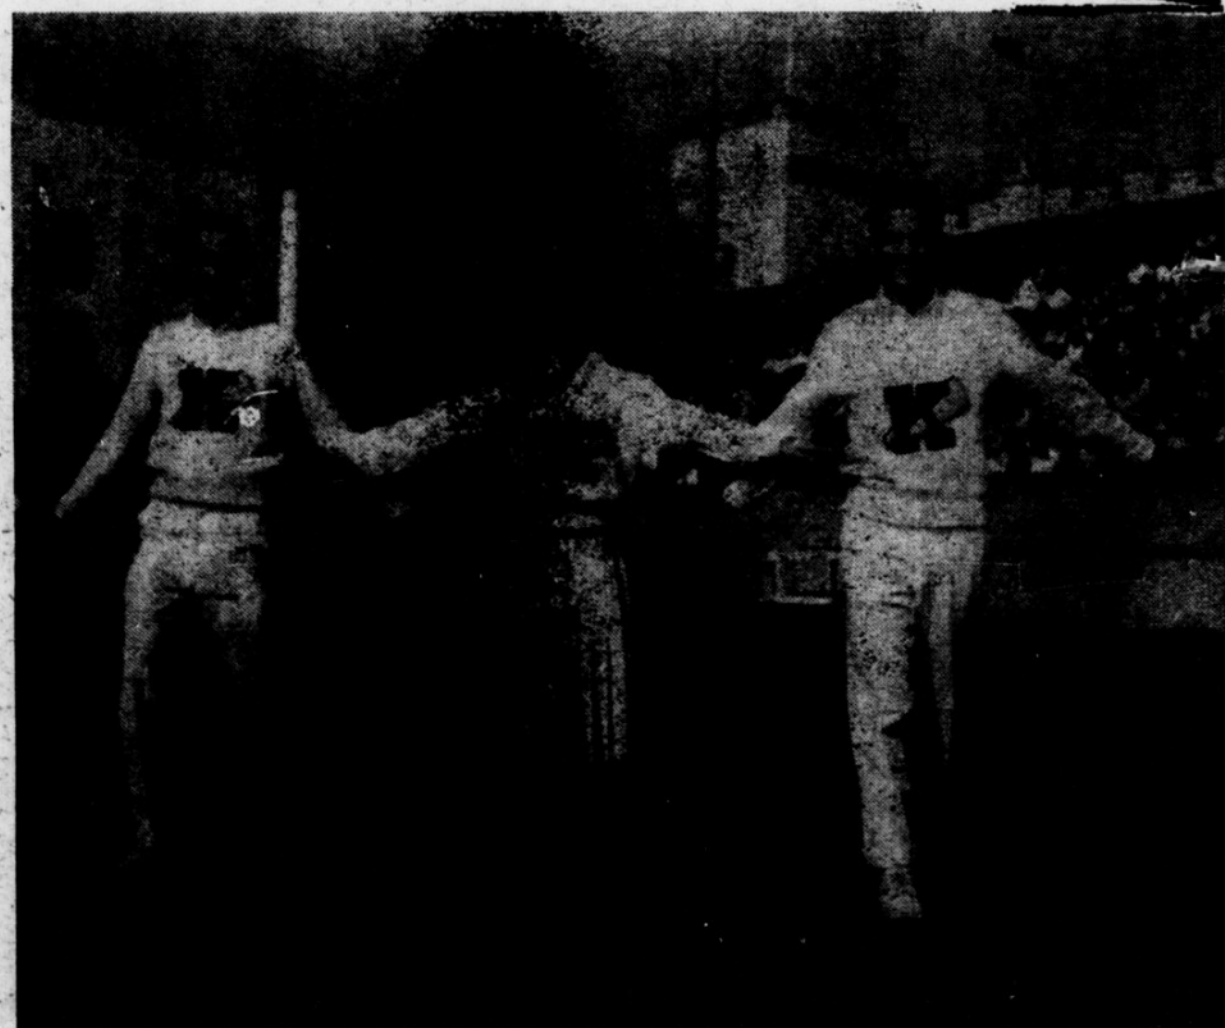

Highlight of the afternoon's activities will come when Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Wilson of Salina, parents of Thomas Wilson, Ar 01, will be honored as K-State's honorary mom and pop.

Most organized houses have planned dinners and other activities for parents following the game.

Kansas editors will meet at 10 a.m. for a newspaper discussion, which will be led by Henry Jameson of the Abilene Reflector-Chronicle. The Collegian will be host to the editors at a luncheon at 11:30 in the College cafeteria.

All in all, it promises to be a real big Saturday for everyone.

PLAYING COLORADO tomorrow reminds ~~K-State~~ fans of last year when the Cats journeyed to Boulder in hopes of a win and an ~~Orange Bowl bid~~. Enthusiasm was high (above) as fans gave the team a rousing send-off ~~from the depot~~. Although the Cats lost, they played a good game.

Italy Missionaries To Visit Baptists

By NAOMI TRUMBULL

The College Baptist Youth fellowship places great emphasis upon the responsibility of youth for sharing religious knowledge with others. Sixteen former members from this small group are in mission fields throughout the world and 14 are now studying for ministerial or missionary work.

Two missionaries from Italy will visit the group this winter. The Rev. Arthur Wiens and his wife, who are now doing student work in the missionary field in Italy, are both past members of the College Baptist Youth fellowship here at K-State.

This fellowship group is now, and has been for several years, providing partial support for the couple while they are in Italy.

Each Baptist church is a separate unit within itself, not dependent upon or connected directly to other Baptist churches.

The College Baptist church at 1225 Bertrand had its beginning as a youth fellowship organized especially for college students. This group expanded and grew into a church.

The Rev. J. S. Ironsides is now the sponsor for the youth group. Don Mark, an army engineer, is president of the fellowship. Other officers are Marilyn Rundell, vice-president; Margaret Allison, secretary; and Lois Howard, treasurer.

The fellowship meets each Sunday at 6:30 p.m. in the College Baptist church. This Sunday, Marian Scott will speak on the topic "The Love of God." Two out of town speakers, Frank Fotopolos and Howard Brumme, will speak at the October 30 and November 6 meetings respectively.

Predict Wildcat Victory With Crossed Fingers

Many K-Staters have their fingers crossed and are predicting a win over Colorado tomorrow. By virtue of the Cats' decisive victory over Marquette last week, students are hoping for a K-State upset.

Dave Carlson, BA Soph, says, "We'll do right well if we can play as well as we did last week, but I think K-State will win 13-6."

Gaylord Chizek, AEd Jr, is as frank and realistic about predicting the game when he says, "After last week I don't see how I can predict the outcome Saturday accurately."

A student who won't commit himself on the game's outcome is Ray Perry, PrV Fr. Commenting on the game he said, "I don't know how the game will come out but I think we've got a chance."

Sondra Mueller, HEB Jr, isn't as sure of a K-State win Saturday. "I think we'll lose but if we play like we did at Marquette, we'll give them a good game," she said.

Bob McDowell, PrL Soph, says, "I think we'll win by at least one touchdown."

Carol Hansen, BA Fr, is pretty sure about the game's outcome. "I think we'll win, naturally," she said.

"I hope we win Saturday, but I really don't know anything about football, Chiara Bini, BMT Fr, said.

Shirley Deters, HEB Sr, says, "We'll win, of course—I hope."

Quarterback Dick Corbin Is Big Cog in Backfield

By BILL WHISTLER

Sophomore quarterback Dick Corbin, the 6-0 170 pound back from Stafford, plays a leading role in K-State's backfield as he adds depth to the quarterback slot, playing behind Bob Whitehead.

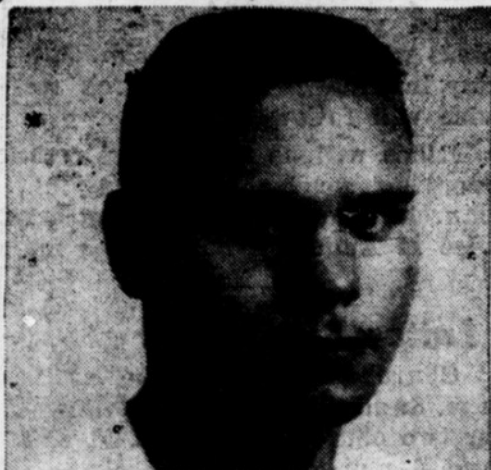

Coach Mertes said, "Dick is the fastest quarterback on the squad. With added experience he will be a boy that you would like to see running the team. He is not only good mechanically, but is quick to learn. Dick is willing to take hard knocks and realizes he has to work hard."

Dick has engineered three touchdowns for the Cats this season. He scored touchdowns in both the Iowa and Marquette games and threw a touchdown pass to sophomore fullback, Terry Lee, for another six points against Marquette.

While reminiscing about the game with Marquette, Dick said, "It was no flash in the pan, our winning that one. We are going to go all out against Colorado to prove that."

Last year Dick received freshman numerals in both football and track.

Dick is a great admirer of Bob Whitehead, he says, "In my estimation Bob is one of the outstanding players on the team. He has the spirit that sparks a team and plays all out to win each game."

Dick Corbin, quarterback

His major is chemical engineering and he says he enrolled at K-State because he thought they offered the best course of study in that field.

Jenkins To Lead Buffs Against Cats

Leading the Colorado Buffaloes in their Big Seven grid clash against the Wildcats tomorrow will be Homer Jenkins, 5-10, 170-pound tailback.

Jenkins ranks second in the Big Seven in punting with an average of 42.1 yards for 18 kicks, third in rushing with a net gain of 180 yards, and fifth in scoring with 13 points on two touchdowns and a conversion. He leads the Buffs in these departments and is second as a passer and in punt returns, having completed 5 of 18 aeriels for 48 yards and a run back of 4 punts 40 yards.

Homer's versatility was shown last year when he worked at fullback and quarterback in Coach Dal Ward's single-wing as well as understudying the Buff's all-American tailback, Carroll Hardy.

Injuries have been the only thing to stop Jenkins since he arrived at CU from La Junta, Colo., high school, where he earned 11 letters in football, basketball, track, and wrestling.

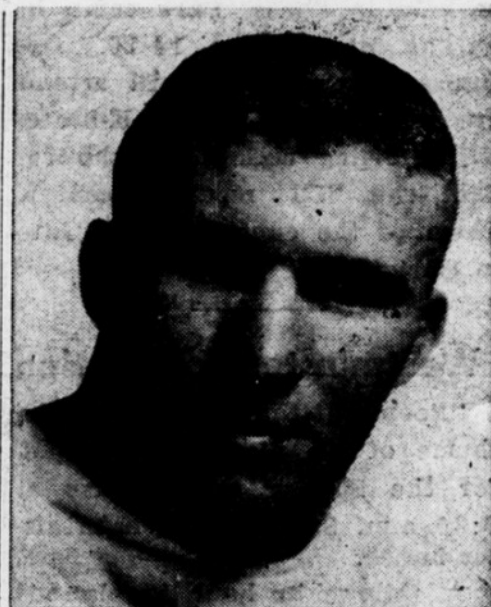

He was leading the team in every offensive department as a sophomore when he broke his leg in the Buff's fourth game.

Last year a pulled leg muscle kept him from going at top speed the entire season and necessitated surgery during the winter. He did not participate in spring practice but returned this fall to top condition.

When he is at top speed Jenkins can perform every phase of the game at a better than average clip. He is a smart, hard runner who can maneuver well through an open field. He can pass with accuracy whether the pass is short or long, and is a punter and quick-kicker of exceptional ability, a vital part of tailback duties, Coach Dal Ward said.

Jenkins is a fierce competitor who loves the game. He asks no quarter, not even on the practice field, and admits that he knows no other way to play the game. He is easily the one man most vital to the Buff's plans this season, Ward added.

During the '54 season for the first time in 23 years the Wildcats won all non-conference games. The last time the 'Cats turned in a similar feat (1931) they defeated KSTC Pittsburg, West Virginia, North Dakota State, Washburn and Wichita.

Homer Jenkins, tailback

Distance Squad To Meet Drake

K-State's cross-country team, rated by Coach Ward Haylett as "much improved over last season's," opens the 1955 season today against Drake at Des Moines.

In addition to the meet with Drake, the Wildcat runners will meet Missouri at Columbia on Oct. 22, Nebraska at Lincoln on Oct. 28, Colorado and Iowa State at Ames on Nov. 5, and the conference meet at Ames on Nov. 12.

Mighty Stingy!!!

Meager 6 Points Yielded By Buffs

"Colorado is getting famous for their stingy defense," Coach Bus Mertes said in commenting on tomorrow's Big Seven game with the Buffs. "We will be facing a line that has held three good opponents to a total of six points this season."

The Wildcats face two big problems tomorrow. The first is that of moving against the big, experienced set of Buffalo linemen. The second is keeping the hustle they exhibited against Marquette last weekend.

Five seniors and two juniors make up the Buff's hard charging line, led by all-America candidate Sam Salerno at tackle. The Buff's will field a team that averages 210-pounds from end to end and 189 in the backfield for an overall average of 203 pounds per man.

Coach Mertes worked the Cats behind locked gates yesterday as they continued to sharpen their attack. Light drills today will close preparations for K-State's second conference test.

In the 10 game series that began in 1925, Colorado has won 6 while losing 4. The last Wildcat win came in 1953 when they won 28-14 in Memorial stadium. Last year the Buffs dumped the Cats Orange Bowl hopes with a 38-14 win at Boulder.

Probable starting lineup for the Buffs will be Lamar Meyer and Wally Merz at end; Bill Kucert and Sam Salerno at tackle; Dick Stapp and Harlan Branby at guards, Don Karnosack, at center; Sam Maphis at quarterback, Homer Jenkins and Emerson Wilson, at halfback, and John Becker at fullback.

K-State starters will be Jim Rusher and Chuck Zickefoose at end; Ron Nery and Frank Rodman at tackle; Bob Hilliard and Rudy Bletscher at guard; Jim Furey, at center; Bob Whitehead at quarterback; Ralph Pfeifer and Tony Addeo halfbacks; and Doug Roether at fullback.

Former Wildcats To Meet Sunday

Veryl (Joe) Switzer, halfback for the Green Bay Packers and former K-State grid ace, meets an old teammate Sunday when the Packers tangle with Los Angeles. Playing halfback for the Rams is Corky Taylor, who shared time at right half with Switzer at K-State during the 1952 and 1953 seasons. Asked how he planned to defend Taylor, Joe answered: "I'll tackle him lightly but firmly. That is, if I can catch him."

OUT To Meet KU in First League Start

By UNITED PRESS
Invincible Oklahoma, third ranked team in the nation, gets its first taste of Big Seven blood Saturday against Kansas.

The Sooners face a foe they defeated 65-0 last year, but a repeat performance of such dimensions is unlikely.

In another Big Seven game, mediocrity promises to rule the day when Iowa State and Missouri display their spirited but unpolished football wares at Ames.

Missouri rates a slight edge in this contest on the strength of a sturdy defense and the pass-catching prowess of Hank Burnine, a 6-foot-2-inch end with baskets for hands.

Cat-Buff Game To Be Carried On 14 Stations

Fourteen Kansas radio stations have contracted with the K-State Sports network to broadcast the K-State-Colorado football game direct from Memorial stadium Saturday afternoon. Three Colorado stations, with their own sportscasters, will also carry the game. Broadcast time will be 1:45 with the kickoff scheduled for 2.

Kansas stations carrying the game will be KMAN Manhattan, WIBW Topeka, KXXX Colby, KVCB Great Bend, KJCK Junction City, KMBC Kansas City, KSAL Salina, KNCO Garden City, KNCK Concordia, KWBW Hutchinson, KANS Wichita, KBTO El Dorado, KTSW Emporia, and KGNO Dodge City. The Colorado stations and their announcers will be KOA Denver, John Henry; KLZ Denver, Star Yelland; and KBOL Boulder, Pete Hanson.

The workout sessions are to be held on the third floor of Ahearn gymnasium.

Hilliard a Key Man In Wildcat Frontline

Bob Hilliard, 6-2 218-pound senior guard, figures as a key man on the Wildcats' frontline this season. "Bob has a tremendous desire to play football," Coach Mertes said. "He is one of the big men in our line this year and is a bulwark on both offense and defense."

In the Marquette game Saturday Bob broke through the Warrior's line to block and recover a punt to set up the Cats' first touchdown.

Bob has this to say about the Colorado game, "If we hustle like we did last week there is no doubt in my mind that we will beat them. The Buffs are going to be tough, but the pressure is going to be all on them."

A native of Kansas City, Missouri, Bob lettered three years on the Raytown high school football squad, a team that went undefeated during Bob's three

Artist Series

Ballet Show Here Next Wednesday

The Dance Theater-Berlin, making its first American tour, will entertain K-Staters at the first Manhattan Artist Series Wednesday at 8:15 p.m. in the Auditorium.

Acclaimed "the most successful of the ballet offerings at the International Festival in Berlin" by "Musical America," the company is directed by choreographer Tatjan Gsovsky.

Exponents of classical ballet, the fourteen dancers in the company believe that the dance should also be great theater—not simply in its visual appeal, but in its dramatic and musical scores as well.

They have merged the writings of such literary masters as Shakespeare and Dostoevsky and the orchestral works of Rossini, Moussorgsky and Ravel, with the choreography of their director, Mr. Gsovsky.

Other artist series numbers include the opera, "Don Pasquale," a Boris Goldovsky theater production, on November 12; Seymour Lipkin, outstanding young pianist, February 27; and the Carib Singers' Calypso Festival, March 13. Single admission tickets are on sale at the K-State music department in the College auditorium, and at Betton's in downtown Manhattan.

Student Health

Two girls and two boys are patients in the Student Hospital today. The girls are Mildred Jewett and Lauren Stewart.

Dick Siever Injured By Car at Crossing

Richard Gene Siever, PrM Fr from Parsons, suffered multiple bruises on his head and body this morning at 7:45 when he was struck by a car driven by Edna Russell at the intersection of 17th and Anderson.

Police charged Mrs. Russell, who lives at 422 N. Juliette, with careless driving.

Wool Judges Win 1st Place At KC Royal

K-State wool judges captured the intercollegiate wool judging contest held Sunday in connection with the American Royal in Kansas City.

K-State teams never before had won the Royal contest, but in two of the past three years they barely had been nosed out for first place honors. The student judges were high on grading fleeces, high on judging commercial fleeces, and third in judging breed fleeces.

Roy Henry placed second high in the entire contest, while Jackson Todd was sixth and George Atkeson was seventh.

Todd was high man on judging commercial fleeces, while Henry placed fourth. On grading fleeces Todd was second and Atkeson fourth, while Henry and Atkeson tied for fifth on judging breed fleeces.

T. Donald Bell is coach of the wool judging team.

Melba Ludlam Dies on Way Back to KSC

Melba Louise Ludlam, HED Fr, was killed about 8 o'clock last night when the car in which she was riding struck a bridge 12 miles north of Emporia.

The car's driver, Vernon Miller, former freshman engineering student here, suffered minor injuries. He was treated at an Emporia doctor's office and released.

The accident happened as Miller was driving Miss Ludlam back from Manhattan from her home at Toronto.

Highway patrol officers said the car ran into the bridge on the right side of the road and a guard rail ran through the vehicle on Miss Ludlam's side of the car. The car overturned once, throwing Miss Ludlam from the car. She died instantly.

Miller told officers he didn't see the bridge until it was too late to avoid a collision. He said he was unfamiliar with the road. A car driven by a farmer who lived nearby had stopped on the north side of the 17-foot-wide bridge to let Miller's car go through first. The farmer said he dimmed his light to outline the bridge so that Miller could see it better.

Melba Louise Ludlam

Miss Ludlam's body was taken to a funeral home in Yates Center. Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

Jazz at Philharmonic Artists Rock 3,500 Fans

By DARREL MILLER

Jazz at the Philharmonic, the hottest thing to hit Manhattan since the Colorado football team, wowed about 3,500 stompin' and screamin' fans in Ahearn Field House yesterday afternoon.

Many of those present didn't recognize some of the jumpy tunes being played, and weren't sure who was playing some of them. But—from a jazzed-up version of the Star Spangled Banner down to the last note of a final jam session—they loved every moment of it.

Biggest ovations went to songstress Ella Fitzgerald and to drummer Buddy Rich.

Ella, America's No. 1 jazz singer, drew a standing ovation and was called back for an encore after her versatile performance. She sang everything from blues to jazz, including takeoffs on a trombone-playing lady truck driver and on Louis Armstrong.

Buddy Rich, a gum-chewing bundle of nerves with six arms, amazed many persons in the audience by out-drumming Gene Krupa. Though he has had little musical training, Buddy has been recognized by Krupa as "the greatest drummer of all time," and his "Buddy Rich's Explosion" convinced most of those present.

Though Krupa didn't receive the standing ovation accorded to Rich, Gene was one of the big favorites for his performance with his quartet.

Though these performers proved most popular, every member of the company got in some hot licks. Some of the greatest names in jazz blasted the show under way with a jam session that included solos by Dizzy Gillespie and Roy Eldridge on trumpet; and Les Young, Flip Phillips, and Illinois Jacquet on tenor sax.

Two top combos appeared in the show. Appearing with the Gene Krupa quartet were Bobby Scott on piano, Whitey Mitchell on bass, and Eddie Shu on clarinet, tenor sax, and trumpet.

The Oscar Peterson trio featured Peterson on piano, Ray Brown on bass, and Herb Ellis on guitar.

Californian Is 'Moderate'

Governor Knight Is Labor GOP Choice for President

By WAYNE SARGENT
Of United Press

Sacramento, Calif.—If organized labor could select the next Republican Presidential candidate, it probably would be Gov. Goodwin J. Knight of California.

But there is little doubt the 58-year-old California executive is labor's darling in the West. During the national governors' conference in Chicago last summer, Knight was the only one of 46 governor attending who was invited to a meeting of the national executive council of the American Federation of Labor.

One California labor official who was there said, "In my 25 years as a delegate to the national AFL convention, I never have seen a governor so graciously received—a Republican governor at that!"

George Meany, president of AFL, in an August 15 speech in San Diego, said "America could use more Governor Knights."

The statement was made publicly at the state AFL convention where 3,000 delegates gave Knight a 5-minute standing ovation before he spoke, then repeated the tribute after his address.

"The myth that labor represents everything in the Democratic party is exploded," Knight told a Republican rally here September 24. "There are literally thousands of Republicans in the ranks of labor, and it is our job to merit their support."

In an address to the California chamber of commerce, Knight repeated what he had told the labor delegates: "I never will use the force of government as a punitive instrument for the benefit of one group and the hurt of another."

Translated into specifics, Knight said he would veto any right-to-work legislation. He said he would not sign any secondary boycott or hot-cargo law that labor found undesirable.

He said he stood for strengthening labor's position in jurisdictional strike laws. And he said he would support legislation to "implement any negotiated guaranteed annual wage program."

In another speech, Knight said, "it is generally assumed that organized labor will merge memberships during the final months of this year. By this action will be united more than 15 million working men and women of the United States. By this merger, labor will become a tremendous political force, and... will constitute 75 per cent of the entire population of registered voters in the United States."

Soviets 'Mellow'

Change in Red Policy Is Dangerous to U. S.

By Stewart Alsop

If there is one sentence that describes the basic underlying assumption of American policy throughout the years of the Cold War, it is this:

"The United States has it in its power to increase enormously the strains under which Soviet policy must operate... and in this way to promote tendencies which must eventually find their outlet in either the break-up or the gradual mellowing of Soviet power."

This sentence comes from the famous "Mr. X" article by former policy planner and ambassador to Russia, George F. Kennan. The article, which first outlined the "policy of containment," was written in 1947.

This reporter accordingly made Milan, where Kennan was attending a meeting of the Congress of Cultural Freedom.

The Congress was worth attending because, although those present disagreed strongly and articulately about every other matter, they were almost unanimously agreed on two points.

First, there has been a real change in the Soviet Union. But second, this change confronts the West with a period of very great danger.

To understand this point, it is necessary to examine the real nature of the change that has taken place. To use Kennan's phrase, the "morbid and irrational" aspect of the Soviet regime have largely disappeared since the death of Joseph Stalin.

Internally, the experts at Milan agreed, the most striking post-Stalin phenomenon is the downgrade of the power of the secret police. The MVD is now headed by a career man, who reports to the Presidium as a whole rather than to any individual. To emphasize the dominance of the party over the police, the MVD publicity has been stripped of the power to arrest a Communist Party member, without the prior approval of the local party committee.

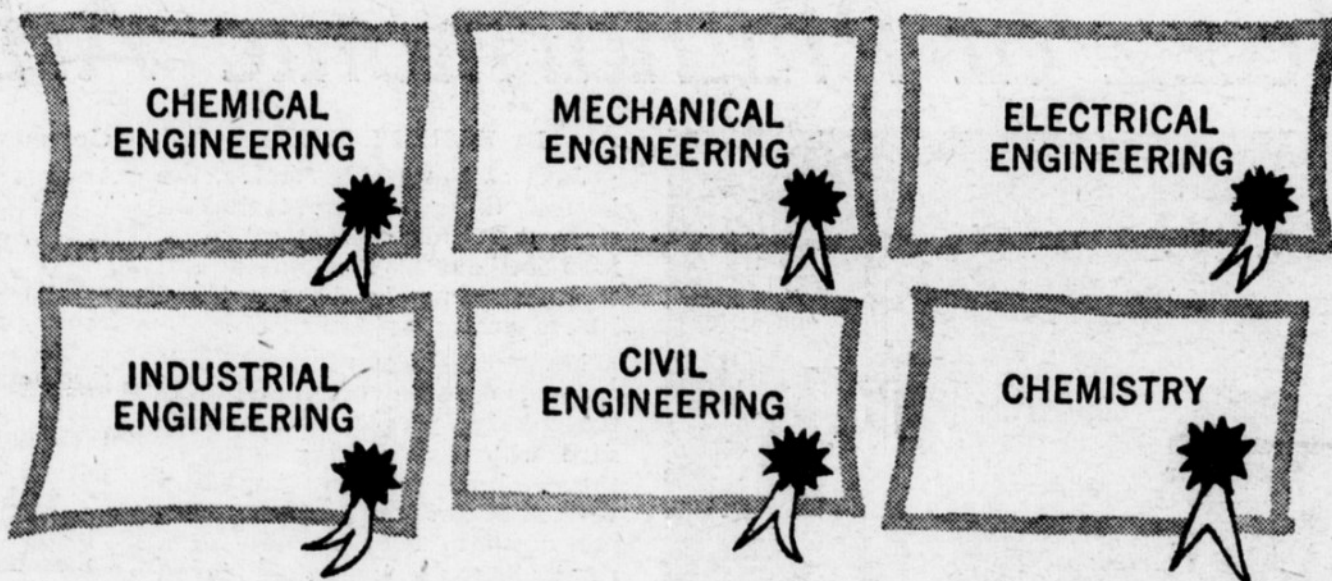

The subordination of the secret police power has led in turn to an easier atmosphere of life for the ordinary Soviet citizen. But this does not mean for a moment that the Soviet system has been changed in any of its essentials.

In this sense, there has been a "mellowing of Soviet power," internally and externally. But is a return to reason in the Kremlin really an undiluted blessing for the West. It is not possible that an intelligent and rational Soviet policy will hold far greater dangers for the West, and especially for the United States, than a morbid

The majority of those gathered at Milan believe that the answer to both questions was "Yes."

Seven NE States Struck by Floods

Hartford, Conn. (U.P.)—A seven-state area of the northeast was struck by its second major flood disaster in two months Sunday.

Entire towns were isolated by rampaging rivers and streams. Thousands of persons were driven from their homes. The death rose to 31 as torrential rain continued for the third day with no immediate let-up in sight in many areas.

Property damage was estimated in the millions. Connecticut, hardest hit in the floods unleashed by Hurricane Diane last August, bore the brunt of the disaster again Sunday. Flood waters were as deep as 14 feet in some sections of the state.

Russia Talks for Peaceful Use of Atom

United Nations—Both Russia and the United States Sunday night expressed hope for the imminent peaceful control of atomic energy and disarmament.

Sobolev pointed out that his government recently had changed positions on several subjects along the lines proposed by the West—the reduction of armies and the British and French suggestion to bar atomic weapons.

This proposal can be practically carried out under present conditions and its implementation would remove the threat of a surprise attack," the Russian said.

Cats Look to I-State Tilt After Loss to Colorado

"We have to forget our mistakes of Saturday and look ahead to Iowa State," Coach Bus Mertes said after the Wildcats 34-13 loss to Colorado Saturday. "We'll be the underdogs against the Cyclones, which should be in our favor," the Cat mentor said.

The Cats came out of the Colorado game with only one serious injury. Guard Burt Schmidt sprained an ankle and will probably miss the Iowa State game. Bob Whitehead suffered a groin injury on the opening play but came back late in the game and probably will be at full speed Saturday.

The Cats started things off like they were going to continue their winning ways when Ralph Pfeifer skirted right end for a 31-yard touchdown in the first quarter. From there on, however, the Buffs controlled the game and, after one TD in the first half, scored four times in the final two stanzas to win going away.

Colorado recovered four Cat fumbles in the second half and turned three of them into scores. The first came six minutes after the start of the half and was spiced by Homer Jenkins' 41-yard sprint from midfield.

After the Buffs had scored twice more the Cats came to life for their second touchodwn. Jerry Haey's got the score on a five-yard run around left end. CU came back after the kickoff to score with a minute left to play.

Yearling Gridders Lose to KU 18-13

The K-State freshman gridders dropped an 18-13 decision to the KU frosh at Lawrence Friday.

The Wildcats scored in the second and fourth quarters.

KU scored in each of the last three periods.

JERRY HAYES, Wildcat halfback, scores second touchdown for Cats on a five yard run around left end, in 34-13 loss to Buffs.

Wildcat Runners Roll Over Drake

The Wildcat distance runners won their first cross-country meet of the season with a 15-23 win over the Drake course. Arlan Moines.

Knoploh of Drake placed first in the meet with a time of 15:29.9 over the Drake course. Arlan Stackley, K-State placed second, Whitney Hicks, K-State third, Jess Unruh, K-State fourth, Knowland, Drake fifth, Hubert Guest, K-State sixth, Glen Taplin, K-State seventh, Strickland Drake eighth, and Hill, Drake ninth.

To Publish Prof List

SC Forwards Line Schedule Recommendation to McCain

A recommendation that a tentative list of instructors and the courses they will teach be published by department heads before enrollment each semester will be sent to President McCain by the Student Council.

Following three weeks of discussion, the Council's favorable action on this motion overruled a committee recommendation that the plan be dropped. The vote was 11 to 1 with Warren Nichols dissenting. The original motion was made by Newton Anderson.

The group also voted to recommend to the President that Nov. 7 be an athletic holiday following the Kansas university game. According to the recommendation, there would be a holiday whether K-State wins or loses.

In presenting the committee report on publishing instructors' names before enrollment, Nichols said that most department heads didn't have much to say about the proposal. "They said that if it came from President McCain, they would think of some way to publish the names. They were pretty cagey about what they had to say," he said.

Jim Graves continued the discussion saying that the Council was receiving the "run around" from the administration and that the committee should be overruled. A roll call vote was taken and the motion passed.

A request for $50 for a coffee and doughnut period at a workshop Saturday was made by the student activities committee. The committee also submitted an interpretation of its responsibilities and duties. The committee's request was okayed by the Council.

A motion for a recommendation to the athletic council that married students' wives be permitted to attend athletic contests on a game-to-game basis with rates concurrent to high school and army tickets was proposed by Newton Anderson.

Anderson said currently the only way to take wives to the game is to buy a season married student wives' ticket. The other system, he said, would be more desirable to the married students.

No action was taken on his motion, however. Wilkerson moved for adjournment because the time was nearing closing hours for the feminine Council members since the Council had started its meeting at 9 p.m., one hour later than originally announced.

Board Still Undecided On Union Charges

By DON KENDALL
Of the Collegian Staff

The Student Union Governing board, which has been trying for several weeks to decide on a policy of who will use the Union and how much the charges shall be for its use, came to a near showdown at its meeting last night.

In previous meetings, the board had almost decided to divide Union patrons into three categories—student groups, meaning all students enrolled at K-State, College-affiliated groups, which includes faculty; and outside groups.

Debate started all over again when Prof. Carl Tjerandsen, head of General Extension, attended the board meeting as a guest and made known his views on wooing outside organizations into the Union schedule.

In representing General Extension as a primary function of K-State, Tjerandsen said KU did not charge a fee to groups staging conferences in its Union but only charged a $0.15 a day fee for each person attending the conference.

Tjerandsen made it clear to the board that he favored no exclusion of any group which could come to the College as a College-invited organization.

The K-State Union Governing board is considering charging a $1.10 a day fee plus a flat rate for the use of the main ballroom, junior ballroom, banquet rooms, and the theater.

An example of the charges made to the three groups for the use of the main ballroom would be $50.00 for student groups, $60.00 for College-affiliated groups, and $75.00 for outside groups.

Loren Kottner, Union director, stressed need for outside groups to come in and use the Union. He said outside business is necessary to help meet Union operating expenses. Students are now paying $5.00 a semester to meet this expense.

Seniors Ask Help at Polls

Students who wish to help in the election of senior class officers Thursday and Friday will be welcome to do so, according to Mackie Murphy, election planning committee chairman.

"Thursday and Friday will be busy days, and we'll need all the help at the polls we can get," Murphy said. Anyone interested in helping can contact Murphy from 9 a.m. until 11 a.m. today or tomorrow at the student governing association in Anderson hall.

Elections will be held for president, vice president, secretary, and treasurer, Murphy said.

Seniors in the school of agriculture will vote in Waters hall. Engineering seniors will go to the polls in Seaton hall, while all remaining seniors will vote at booths in Anderson hall, Murphy said.

Ludlam Services Tomorrow at 2

Funeral services for Melba Ludlam, HE Fr, who died in an automobile accident Sunday night, will be at the Toronto Methodist church at 2 p.m. tomorrow. Interment will be in the Toronto cemetery.

Southeast hall will conduct special memorial services tonight in remembrance of Miss Ludlam.

Ames Wins Welk Talent Semifinals

Janice Ames

Janice Ames, Art Soph, was selected as one of two finalists in the Lawrence Welk vocal talent contest in Omaha last night. Finals will be held in Omaha, on October 29. Winner will go to California the first part of November as the new Champagne singer for Welk's band.

This summer Miss Ames, a Kappa Delta from Sloan, Iowa, was named runner-up to Miss Iowa, who represented that state in the Miss America contest. Miss Ames won third place honors in Iowa in competition for the Miss Universe contest.

She has appeared on several radio and television programs and toured last summer with Eddie Dunbar and his band from St. Joseph, Mo.

Open Discussion Slated for SGA Assembly Thurs.

Students will have a chance to bring up questions for open discussion and find out how student government is organized Thursday morning at the SGA assembly, according to Pat Wilkerson, chairman of the planning committee for the assembly.

"We're hoping that everyone will attend this assembly to discuss the pros and cons of questions affecting all students," Wilkerson said.

Problems suggested in letters addressed to the Student Council and mailed at the College post office before 5 p.m. tomorrow will be discussed first at the assembly, Wilkerson said.

The usual schedule of shortened classes will be followed. Student Council members will sit on the stage, to lead the open discussion, and answer questions directed at them.

Part-Time Riley Farmer Turns Cop, Joins K-State Campus Patrol Force

By LILA ORME
Of the Collegian Staff

The newest member of the campus patrol, D. Darrell Russell, is a native and long time resident of Riley county.

Farming was the main occupation of Mr. Russell until about 2½ years ago when he joined the Manhattan Police department. There was a shortage of officers at the time and Mr. Russell was asked to help out.

"I intended to work only temporarily but it lasted longer," he said. With no previous police training, he had to acquire his training on the job.

Russell joined the campus patrol this fall to replace Harry Morris who recently retired.

Although Russell has assumed duties as a campus police officer, he still lives on his farm about three miles west of Manhattan, and continues farming with the help of a son-in-law.

Mr. Russell began work on September 12, and is now on night duty from 10 p.m. to 6 a.m. There are two other shifts from 6 a.m. to 2 p.m. and from 2 p.m. to 10 p.m.

The four campus patrolmen change shifts every 28 days with one man working a relief shift. "All four have been members of the Manhattan police department at one time," he said.

The patrolmen find there are four intersections on the campus where traffic is always heaviest, said Russell. These are Mid-Campus drive and Claflin road, Claflin road and north seventeenth, College Heights and north seventeenth, and the drive at the south end of Anderson hall.

Naturally the times when the traffic really gets heavy are 7:45 a.m., noon, and 12:55 p.m.

Mr. Russell is married and the father of four children, one of whom is with the military police in Korea.

Alumnus Is Ashamed Of Oct. 10 Collegian

Washington, Kan.
October 13

Dear Editor:

I received my copy of Monday's Collegian in the mail yesterday. I have been placing the Collegian in the library of the Washington high school, where I teach. But after reading the editorial in Monday's edition I am too ashamed of it to allow it to be seen by the students here.

The editor of a paper should be well informed on the topics about which he writes. It is very doubtful that the present Collegian editor is even partially informed as to the many facts, interests, and problems that must be considered by Jean Hedlund in making any decision concerning the band.

Many changes have been made in the past which were similar to the one in question, and no issue was made of them. Could the difference be in the Collegian editor?

The Collegian editor would do well to get more information next time before making statements and expressing opinions in print. Perhaps then less newsprint would be required in an attempt to make the initial editorial sound reasonable.

John T. Foster,

Stevenson Wants To Fight Ike for Presidency; GOP Hopes Ike Will Withdraw from Race Soon

By Joseph and Stewart Alsop

Chicago—Adlai E. Stevenson is marching into the 1956 campaign with banners flying and a considerably larger following than any other Democratic candidate. But he is a not too happy warrior all the same.

The trouble, so far as one can judge, is the great change that has come over the American political scene since the illness of President Eisenhower. It may seem incredible that any Democratic politician should sincerely regret, even in his inmost heart of hearts, that his party will not have to try to beat Eisenhower.

Yet Stevenson quite genuinely appears to regret this easing of the Democratic problem. He had made up his mind to one kind of campaign, with President Eisenhower at the head of the Republican ticket. He was eager for it. But now he has got to make up his mind to another kind of campaign. No doubt he will make that kind of campaign, and make it well. But he is not eager for it.

There certainly was a good deal of optimism in the way Stevenson originally expected the campaign to develop. He had hoped, first of all, that no other Democrat would really care to take on the Republican grand champion. In the Stevenson camp, even Senator Estes Kefauver, the man who runs for the Presidency as instinctively as a lemming runs into the sea, was expected to master his instincts and hold still on this occasion.

With no significant competition, Stevenson, the generally accepted Democratic candidate-designate, was to give the winter, spring, and early summer to developing the issues. Then would come the campaign, which was to be an elevated "Democratic dialogue" with President Eisenhower. And after that the voters were to do their duty as citizens, and all would be over.

This remarkable projection, so happily devoid of political squallor or vulgar excess, has now of course been knocked galley-west. Senator Kefauver's instincts are in the saddle again, encouraged, some Stevensonians darkly suspect, by Republican or even Harriman money. Averell Harriman is less and less for Stevenson and more and more for Harriman.

Storm Kills 40 In West Mexico

(U.P.)—Eastern flood waters fell back and Hurricane Katie whirled to her death in the Atlantic ocean today. But a new storm spread floods, death, and disaster along Mexico's west coast.

At least 40 persons were reported killed and scattered reports from the battered Mexican coastline indicated dozens of towns and villages were swept away.

The Mexican storm roared out of the Pacific after 10 days of steady downpours. Rivers turned into rampaging torrents and it was reported that eight large towns, including Manzanillo and Colima, were under water.

Laconic messages from the town of Atenquique indicated 40 persons had drowned when floods "buried the city."

U.S. Pilot Lands 'Dead' Jet

Tokyo—A U.S. Air Force pilot escaped uninjured and saved his jet airplane today when he made a daring landing in a rice paddy with a dead engine.

The pilot, Capt. Manuel R. Grace of Tucson, Ariz., guided his F-80 shooting star to a rough landing after the jet flamed out.

"He probably saved the government $75,000 to $100,000," a far east air force spokesman said.

Council Wants National Leader

Rabat, Morocco — Morocco's French-installed four-man throne council announced today it would "sit all day every day" until it names a man to lead a national government.

The council met for two hours and 15 minutes yesterday at its first session but was unable to agree on the first premier for this French protectorate.

Fatmi Ben Slimane, a Moderate, was generally expected to be named to the post and he said in Paris he would accept the nomination if it is offered.

Cat Injury Total Highest of Season

In the first practice following Saturday's football game with Colorado, Coach Mertes looked over his squad and found the injury total had mounted to the highest number of anytime this season.

The injury list includes Jim Furey and Ellis Rainsberger, with shoulder bruises; Bob Whitehead, with a groin injury and charley horse; and Raymond Glaze and Burt Schmidt, with ankle injuries.

Mertes ran the 19 men who saw the most action Saturday, through light, but high speed drills. The remainder of the squad ran through two hours of full-speed scrimmage.

K-State's all-time mark in forward passes for major colleges in 1953 was unequalled in 1954. The 'Cats averaged 23.5 yards for each of twenty-six completions. Six of these went for touchdowns. The old record was 23.3 by Clemson in 1950.

Rodman Named Top Cat For Play In Buff Game

Frank Rodman, Wildcat senior tackle, was named this week's player of the week by Coach Bus Mertes.

"Frank is the type of player who never gives up," Mertes said. "He always goes full speed until the final whistle blows."

"Rodman is very observant and makes is a point to listen to what's being said," Wildcat line coach Pat Naughton said. "He'll ask questions, both during and after a practice," Naughton added.

"He always hustles and if his initial effort isn't enough he puts forth a tremendous second try to make up for it," Naughton said.

"I thought after the first quarter we were going to win," Rodman said in commenting on the Colorado game, "but I don't know what happened. We just seemed to bog down."

"I think we can beat Iowa State," he said. "We're improving all the time, and the guys will really be up for this one."

Frank spends most of his spare time hunting and fishing. "Duck season lasts longer than the football season this year, and I'm going to go duck hunting as soon as I can," he said.

VOLUME LXII Kansas State College, Manhattan, Kansas, Wednesday, October 19, 1955 NUMBER 25

Homecoming Queen To Be Selected by Student Vote

Voting for the 1955 Homecoming Queen will be Thursday and Friday at booths in Anderson hall, Martin Eby, Blue Key president, announced.

Each student is eligible to vote for three candidates if he presents his student activity ticket. He is not required to buy a ticket to the Homecoming Ball in order to vote. His activity ticket will be punched to show he has voted. No write-in ballots are allowed.

The voter should designate his three choices for queen as first, second, and third. He will be selecting from 17 candidates nominated by different organized women's housing, sororities, and the Independent Students Association.

The votes are counted on the point basis. A first choice vote counts three points, second choice two, and third choice one.

Voting booths will be in Anderson hall. Voting hours will be from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Thursday and Friday.

The five finalists are to be announced in the Collegian Monday, October 24. These girls will be notified by Blue Key Friday evening, Eby said.

Announcement of the queen will be Thursday evening during the intermission of a talent show now being planned by the Homecoming committee.

The queen will be recognized Friday at the pep rally to be held in the Student Union parking lot from 10 to 10:30 p.m. She will reign over the "come as you are" dance immediately following the rally in Nichols gym from 10:30 to 12 p.m.

The queen and her attendants will ride in the Homecoming parade Saturday morning and will be presented during the half-time of the Kansas State-Oklahoma game that afternoon. Gov. Fred Hall will crown the queen, and Blue Key will present the queen with a dozen roses.

At the Homecoming ball Saturday evening in Ahearn field house gym the queen will be crowned by Martin Eby, Blue Key president. She and her attendants will receive trophies.

The ball will begin at 9 p.m. and Matt Betton's orchestra will play. The Homecoming ball is sponsored by Blue Key, senior men's honorary. Dress will be semi-formal.

Selection of the Homecoming queen by student vote began three years ago by Blue Key. This method of selection seemed more favorable to the students and so it has continued. The other two queens that were selected by student vote are Blythe Guy in 1953 and Marlene Young in 1954.

Engine Council Has Job Opening

Applications for engineering council treasurer should be mailed to the council, Box N, by noon tomorrow. The qualifications and interests of the applicant should be given.

Theater-Berlin Here Tonight

Dance Theater-Berlin, with its interplay of music, poetry and dance, will revive the spirit of the drama in Greek antiquity tonight when the company appears in the College auditorium at 8:15.

The program will include "Ballade" with music by Ernest Dohnanyi; a setting for ballet of Shakespeare's "Hamlet"; "Orpheus," drawn from Greek legend with music by Franz Liszt; and "Souvenires" with music by Offenbach.

SGA Assembly To Air Gripes Of K-Staters

Open discussion of student problems will claim most attention at the SGA assembly tomorrow morning, along with an explanation of how student government functions, according to Charlotte Henry, Student Council member in charge of publicity for the assembly.

Discussion will be based on contents of letters sent to the Student Council by 5 tonight, and on questions raised from the floor.

Gerry Day, student body president, will introduce members of the Student Council, explain how they are elected, and explain how student government is organized.

Bill Kennedy, treasurer of the Council, will give a brief explanation of the Student Council budget, and how it is apportioned.

Studio Players To Present One-Act Plays This Week

IN THE MIDST of a family quarrel are Lou Ann Oberhelman and Jim Hollis as the "Red Peppers" in a one-act play of the same name to be presented tonight and Friday at 8 in G 206.

Sig Alphas, Phi Delts Plan Annual Contest

The ninth-annual Flush Bowl touch football game between Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Phi Delta Theta will be played next Saturday at 2 p.m., the fraternities have announced.

Featured in addition to the game will be the crowning of a Flush Bowl queen by President McCain at halftime.

Queen candidates and their sororities are Joneta Edwards, Chi Omega; Barbara Starnes, Alpha Delta Pi; Karen Milner, Pi Beta Phi; Nancy Cardwell, Alpha Xi Delta; Carolyn Snell, Alpha Chi Omega; Laura Lyon, Kappa Kappa Gamma; Kay Randall, Delta Delta Delta; and Joan Skupa, Kappa Delta.

A parade will preface the event. Besides floats by the two fraternities, several sororities are expected to enter the parade.

McCain Says

No Decision Made On Athletic Holiday

President McCain has not yet decided what action to take on the Student Council's recommendation for a win or loose holiday after the K-State-KU football game.

"I, personally don't believe we should have the holiday if we lose the game to KU, but there is still student opinion to consider," he said.

The holiday can be approved or the recommendation can be sent back to the Student Council with instructions to reconsider and recommend another day for a holiday. If no athletic holiday is decided on, the holiday can be added to the Thanksgiving or Christmas holidays, McCain said.

A Student Council recommendation to publish instructor's names and the classes they will teach will be referred to the Dean's Council for consideration, McCain said.

Funds totaling $3,500 have been approved by the State Finance council to raze the remaining structure of the bull barn which burned this summer. It is hoped that the College will receive additional money to rebuild the barn, McCain said. "We'll go ahead with our plans for the new building just as if the money were already approved," he said.

Faculty Senate recommendations regarding "No Smoking" areas in the buildings on the campus were discussed at the Dean's Council meeting. The findings of the Dean's Council are being written into the administration's policy and will be released soon.

Forensic Union Plans Speech Contest Nov. 8

The Forensic Union, an organization of speech and debate participation, is planning its first contest on the campus November 8, according to Roger Douglass, group representative.

Delta Sigma Rho, national Forensic honorary, will hold a meeting at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in J 20 to discuss plans for the extemporaneous speech contest.

Information released by Delta Sigma Rho indicates the contest will be divided into two major groups, male and female. It will be open to any college approved organization.

Five finalists will be picked from each group with K-State speech instructors and others from the surrounding area as judges.

Two rotation trophies, one for each group, will be awarded. An organization must win a trophy three consecutive times in order to retire it.

Largest Drum in World Beaten by Spudnut Eaters

By Ann Weathers

To keep the world's biggest drum company, the world's biggest Spudnut has been baked. Not only has it been baked but, thanks to three hungry bass drummers at the University of Texas, it has been eaten.

The two-foot-across, three-inch-thick, chocolate-covered Spudnut was presented to the three drummers who alternate in beating what Texas claims to be the world's largest drum. Must take a lot out of a man. What is a Spudnut, anyway?

While meditating on the various attributes of Spudnuts and dozing lightly in class (very easy to do if you can keep an interested expression on your face), I came across the rules for becoming a "blob" (nonthinker) on the campus. Bylaws of the group contain the following commandments for non-thinkers:

1. Keep thy tongue still in the presence of thine instructors; ask thou not a host of inquiring questions, but accept all words of wisdom your sage professor offers ye.
2. Read ye not the news of world affairs contained in your daily newspaper. These concern ye not for it is best to remain ignorant.
3. Look thou with disapproval on the professors who prod ye into thinking. They may concealeth a serpent in their hearts.
4. Unto all things there is a time; there is a time to speak and a time to remain silent; be thou like unto stone in the presence of any controversy. It may very likely pass and not harm ye.

5. The wise seeketh the easy assignments, but only a fool sticketh out his neck.

6. Showeth not thy countenance on election days. Only public-spirited citizens cast their ballots in school and national elections.

7. Concern thyself only with gossip and idle chatter. Bother yet not with discussions of weight or value.

8. The voice of the turtle will be heard in the land, so crawleth ye into your shells and be loyal to the age-old code of nonthinkers.

Where did they get the idea this was a new organization? It's been on campus since the first freshman.

Speaking of nonthinking, University of Missouri fraternities and sororities have developed one of the most thoughtless methods of "having fun" to come to light in a long time.

Seems they arrange blind dates between fraternity and sorority pledges for a weekend, and at the end of that time each fraternity holds a Pig Pot race. The man in each fraternity who dated the biggest "looser" that week end wins the pot.

Worse yet, the winners' names are published, and naturally strike a note of recollection in the minds of the dates for whom they won the award. Makes for such good interfraternity relations, you know.

Reds Nudge Arab-Israeli War by Supplying Arms

By Joseph and Stewart Alsop
Washington—Assistant Secretary of State George Allen has returned from his hasty trip to Egypt with a report to the State Department that there is serious danger of a full-scale renewal of the Arab-Israeli war.

The slow match was tossed into the powder keg when the Kremlin offered surplus Soviet arms to the Egyptian, Syrian, and Saudi Arabian governments.

It can further be stated on undoubted authority that comparable Soviet arms offers have now been made to Peru and Ecuador. Hints of a possible arms deal have been dropped in Mexico City. And there is a good possibility of a future Soviet arms offer to Brazil, where a left-wing government headed by Juscelina Kubitschek seems to be coming to power.

The Soviet arms offers in South America have caused extreme disquiet among the Eisenhower Administration policymakers. But they represent nothing like the immediate threat of the Soviet arms deals in the Middle East.

At present, tension in Tel Aviv is said to be extreme. The reason for the tension is the Israeli government's passionate belief that the Egyptians quite certainly, and the Syrians and Saudi Arabians quite possibly, mean to use their new Soviet arms against the Jewish state in Palestine.

At present, Israel's armed strength appears to be greater than the strength of hostile neighbors. But, if the Egyptian army is to be massively strengthened with Soviet MIG-15s, medium bombers, and other arms, the balance between Israel and her neighbors will be proportionally altered. Therefore, the Israelis want a showdown now.

It is even possible to indicate the point where the showdown may begin. Some two years ago, the Egyptian government mounted artillery on the small islands of Sanafir and Tiran, which command the approaches to the small Israeli port of Elath at the head of the Gulf of Aqaba. Since then, the Egyptians have twice fired on ships thought to be destined for Elath, most recently on a British ship two months ago.

Finally, the local Communist parties have been ordered to reduce their activities to the point of invisibility, in order to lull possible fears of Soviet intervention among the prospective recipients of Soviet arms.

Altogether, there has been no finer manifestation of the Geneva spirit.

Line Schedule Proposal Will Test Council's Power

After three weeks of haggling, the Student council has forwarded a recommendation to President McCain that a list of instructors and the courses they teach be published by department heads before enrollment each semester.

It appears that the only opposition to the Council's basic proposal to let the students pick their profs has come from faculty members. As far as I know, no outburst of protest has come from the students.

President McCain plans to discuss the recommendation with deans of the various schools in the near future. It will prove interesting to find out if the recommendation is accepted or not. If it isn't, somebody will have to do some fast talking to convince a few thousand students.

The line-schedule case also will test whether the Student council has any power other than in enacting minor legislation.

Tomorrow morning is the annual SGA-sponsored assembly, which will be a town hall meeting. All students attending the assembly will have a chance to air their gripes and present their views regarding matters around the campus.

Monitors with microphones will roam through the audience giving Staters a chance to speak their piece. Good ideas came out of last year's SGA assembly, and students will find it worth their time to participate in tomorrow's meeting.

K-State's answer to the famous Little Brown Jug and Old Oaken Bucket football feuds of the Big Ten seems to be the annual Flush Bowl affair between the Phi Delt and the Sig Alphas. It seems to me that they could find a prettier prize than a flush bowl to give to the winner, but maybe a flush bowl is esthetic as well as pragmatic.

Senior class elections are tomorrow and Friday. The usual dismal number of voters probably will turn out. Both parties have been hot at campaigning this week, so maybe there'll be a surprisingly large number at the polls. One thing is certain at this stage of the game—the president will be a male from the Ag School, and the other offices will be manned by coeds.

John Schuessler, 13, and his brother, Anton, Jr., 11, had been strangled by hand. Their friend, 13-year-old Robert Peterson, had been viciously beaten on the head and then strangled with a tie or rope.

The boys' bodies were found shortly after noon yesterday, piled on top of each other in a forest preserve ditch near a parking lot. They had apparently been killed shortly after they were last seen in a bowling alley Sunday night.

Bletscher's Play Sparks Cat Line

By BILL WHISTLER

Just another guard in an over-supply of guards on the '54 roster. Sophomore Rudy Bletscher jumped into the limelight this year by sparking the varsity eleven with his fierce line play. Rudy didn't see action last year so he has two more years of eligibility remaining.

Bletscher proved he was rough when he ran up against All-American Calvin Jones in the Iowa game. The small, but tough Bletscher moved the 220 pound Hawkeye with consistency. At 196 pounds Bletscher ranks as the second lightest Wildcat lineman, but the way he uses that poundage is another story.

"I have never seen Rudy quit on the field. He is quick and rugged, and so determined that we never need to worry about getting him 'up' for a ball game. He is always 'up,'" Coach Bus Mertes explained.

Bletscher was reared on a farm near Detroit, Kan., a town so small (less than 50 population) that it has no high school. Rudy attended nearby Chapman High School where he was named to the Kansas all-state high school team his senior year.

In regards to K-State's role in the Big 7 this year Rudy said, "Out of the next five games yet to be played we can win four of them under normal circumstances and the other one (Oklahoma) if the breaks fall our way."

Bletscher, K-State guard

Grid Workouts Slowed Down By 4 Injuries

Injuries continued to plague the Wildcats yesterday as they ran through offensive drills in preparation for the Big Seven game with Iowa State at Ames Saturday.

Jim Furey, Burt Schmidt, and Ellis Rainsberger, who were injured in the Colorado game, reported to practice in sweat clothes and Pat Spagnoletti, reserve center who was shaken up in Monday's practice, missed the workout.

Bob Whitehead and Ray Glaze, injured in the CU game, and George DeBitetto, out since the Marquette game, were running at full speed.

Coach Mertes ran his first three units through a short dummy scrimmage during the first half hour, then sent them through a full speed scrimmage against Iowa State defensive formations. The Cats capped the session off with defensive drills against Iowa State plays as ran by reserves and freshmen.

Membership In K-Club Now At 53

Thirty members were initiated into the K-Club during a meeting held last night in the K-Room, bringing the total membership to 53.

Those initiated include: Leonard LeGault, Kenneth Long, Charles Farinella, Dick Stone, Gary Darter, Lawrence Nelson, Bob Boyd, and Hayes Walker.

Marvin Taylor, Wendell Minckley, Dale Misak, Mike Cornett, Hubert Guest, Dolan McDaniel, Joel McGill, Paul Miller, Richard Circle, and John Teas.

Larry Powell, Pachin Vicens, Dale Blume, Richard Fixsen, Kyle Mines, David Pfuete, James Weatherford, Ronald Bergren, John Coupe, Jerry Kerbs, and Bill Sinderson.

Former all-Big Six Wildcat football player, Elmer Hackney, was the guest of honor at the meeting.

In the business meeting which followed the initiation, ideas for a K-Club float were brought forth. Plans for a freshman scholarship award were also discussed.

The award would go to any freshman with an outstanding scholastic record who had won a frosh numeral.

Tuesday night, October 25, will be the last initiation of new members, said Bob Mancuso, president of the organization.

Lee Scores Touchdown In First College Game

Terry Lee, Kansas State half-back, opened his collegiate career in the same dashing manner of his comic-strip namesake. First time the Olathe sophomore entered a game he scored a touchdown. In the Marquette game he scored on a 12-yard pass play from quarterback Dick Corbin.

Lee, a 175 pound speedster, runs from either halfback or fullback, and is a promising runner.

Eldon Zeller (1951) returned an Iowa State kickoff 89 yards the first time he received a kickoff in his first college game.

Sooners Retain Loop Offensive Leadership

Oklahoma, in opening defense of its Big Seven conference football title, stepped up its pace in total offense by amassing 402 yards against Kansas, for a total of 1564 yards in four games.

The sensational Sooner youngster, Tommy McDonald, picked up 88 yards against the Jayhawks to maintain his position as the leading ball carrier. To date he has carried 41 times for 332 yards. Gene Roll of Missouri moved into second with 225 yards on 53 carries and Homer Jenkins of Colorado held onto third with 40 attempts for 221 yards. K-State's Ralph Pfeifer ranks 10th with 157 yards in 17 carries and Doug Roether's 150 yards in 41 carries is good for 11th.

Missouri's Dave Doane is the number one passer. The Tiger quarterback has collected 506 yards on 35 of 71 attempts. Wally Strauch of Kansas, with 302, and Don Erway of Nebraska, with 146, held their runner-up positions. Dick Corbin of Kansas State is 10th with 78 yards on 7 completions and Bob Whitehead is 11th with 6 completions good for 70 yards.

Bob Stransky, Colorado back, did his first punting of the season against Kansas State, and his three-kick average of 45.6 is tops. Of the steady kickers, Ted Rhode of Kansas leads with 13, averaging 45.2, a slight slip from 48.8, and Homer Jenkins of Colorado has 20, averaging 41.9. K-State's Dick Allen and Bob Whitehead are tied for 5th and 6th with an average of 37.2 yards. Allen has kicked 10 times and Whitehead, 19.

Loop Coaches Make Changes In Lineups

By United Press

A bewhiskered Missouri football team and a pint-sized halfback promoted to a hulking starting eleven at Kansas State enlivened the drudgery of practice in Big Seven camps today.

At Columbia, the Tigers vowed to keep unshaven until they produce a victory after five straight season losses.

Faurot dropped quarterback Dave Doane, the Big Seven's top passer, to the second team and elevated Bill Griep to the starting squad in an effort to steady his backfield.

But the prime example of the "little man" having his day was produced at Manhattan, where Kansas State was drilling in preparation for a tilt against Iowa State at Ames Saturday.

Jerry Hayes, the smallest man on the team at 5-4 and 160 pounds, took over the right halfback slot.

Today's Schedule In IM Football

Intramural football play resumes today after the teams had the day off yesterday.

Today's schedule includes Alpha Tau Omega against Phi Kappa on northwest corner of the drill field; Phi Kappa Tau against Sigma Nu on center field of drill field; Phi Delta Theta against Acacia on northeast corner of drill field; and House of Williams against Brewster Boys on southeast corner of campus.

Cross-Country Team To Meet MU Saturday

Kansas State cross-country runners, 15-23 victors over Drake last weekend, meet Missouri at Columbia Saturday morning.

Ward Hayleett, Wildcat track coach, rates MU as "the team to beat" in Big Seven competition this season. "They placed second in the conference last year," he points out, "and have four of their top five runners back."

Squad members scheduled to make the trip are Hubert Guest, Glen Taplin, and Whitney Hicks, returnees from K-State's 1954 team, and sophomore Jesse Unruh and Arlan Stackley.

Frosh Basketball Team To Start Practice Nov. 1

Nineteen men, including five all-stars, are expected to report for the first freshman basketball practice November 1, Howard Shannon, freshman basketball coach, said yesterday.

The men announced by Shannon are: Darrell Bolen, 5-11, all-State guard from Quinter; Robert Boozer, 6-7, all-State guard from Omaha, Neb., who broke the all-time scoring record in the Omaha interscholastic league with a 25.7 game average; Jim Holwerda, 6-foot, all-State guard from Lindsay; Tom Lindahl, 6-3, all-State forward from Plevna; and Lowell Waterman, 6-foot all-State guard from Greenleaf.

Paul Bader, 6-foot guard, Kansas City; Gene Miller, 6-foot forward, Independence, Mo.; and Rafeal Valle, 6-4 forward, San Juan, Puerto Rico.

Valle played against Jaun (Poncho) Vicens last summer in a Puerto Rican summer basketball circuit.

Other members of the squad include: Howard Rice, 6-7 center, Clinton, Ill.; Robert McDonald, 6-6 forward, Larned; DeLoss Dodds, 6-foot guard, Riley; Lewis Flinn, 6-1 guard, Princeton, Ill.; and Don Lesarge, 5-8 guard from Marysville.

Bob Merten, 6-3 forward, Pratt; Clarence Norris, 6-2 guard, Leavenworth; Leon Smith, 6-3 forward, Larned; Rhea Serpan, 6-4 forward from LaCrosse; Karl Stet-

'Making Connections' Keeps Telephone Operators Busy

KANSAS STATE COLLEGIAN
Wednesday, October 19, 1955-8

By PAUL JONES
Of the Collegian Staff

Soon to begin its ninth year of operation is the K-State telephone office, a College-owned business with 545 phones, regular city system connections, and direct lines to Topeka and Kansas university.

Operated on the second floor of the Power Plant, the office affords full time-employment for Mrs. Al Venburg and Mrs. Geneva Ward, and part-time employment for Mrs. Scott Hunter and Miss Janey Palasky.

Twenty-four hour emergency service is available, Mrs. Venburg, the manager, said, but regular operators are not on duty all of that time. She explained that the regular operators begin duty at 7 a.m. each day and get off at 10 p.m. on week days and 6 p.m. on week ends. The rest of the time power plant employees handle the calls, working a special machine to handle the small number of calls at those hours.

Only calls coming in from city system or long distance numbers are handled by the office. Both campus-to-campus and campus-to-outside numbers are dialed directly.

Mailing was completed recently of 550 '55-'56 telephone directories for the campus exchange. Mrs. Venburg estimated that even though these directories are distributed, and the Student Directory contains all campus phone numbers, only about one-third of the incoming calls are made by number.

Students and professors' wives are the two groups most responsible for calling by names or departments, she said. The office endeavors to keep a complete list of all the faculty and staff members employed on the campus to aid persons who do not know the number they wish to call.

Mrs. Venburg explained that even though they often get calls other than by numbers, there comes times when requests are come times when requests are sons have described personnel and asked the operator who they might be describing.

Others want to know when they are to register, whether there will be an assembly, what time the shows start, and the like.

Specific requests include "Where could I find out what to feed tadpoles?" "Where could I buy a three- or four-foot snake?" "I want to talk to the man who is taking care of my little black dog," and "What was that apartment like that was advertised in the paper?"

K-State first gained its own telephone exchange in October, 1947. Before then, numbers on the campus were regular city system numbers which not only were costly, but did not allow for a switchboard operator familiar enough with the campus to give helpful information.

MRS. SCOTT HUNTER, left, and Mrs. Al Venburg keep busy at the College telephone exchange answering questions and putting calls through.

Mortar Board To Sponsor Mum Sale for Homecoming

The annual Mortar Board scholarship dinner has been postponed until December 1, Miss Boster said. This dinner is held for the top three girls in last year's freshman class. Juniors with a scholarship who are eligible for Mortar Board and anyone else expressing interest is invited to this banquet.

The next Mortar Board meeting will be at 7 p.m. October 20, in Kedzie Hall.

Students Vote No Holiday If K-State Drops KU Game

By MALCOLM COLDWELL and DOUG TEDROW

Students at the Student Governing association assembly this morning voted almost unanimously not to take a holiday if K-State drops the football game to Kansas university November 5.

This indication of student opinion will be passed on to President McCain as a recommendation. Gerry Day, president of the student body, indicated that the athletic holiday will be added on to either the Christmas or Thanksgiving vacations if K-State loses to KU.

If K-State wins the game, there will be a holiday Monday, November 7, to celebrate the victory if President McCain approves.

A College-operated bookstore was a subject of hot discussion when the assembly was thrown open to questions from the student body. Questions indicated that students were concerned about its eventual establishment. Opinion seemed to be that this issue was being evaded by the council.

Newton Anderson, chairman of the bookstore committee, said that his committee was trying to line up student support.

Doreen Cronkite, HEJ Sr, a member of the Student Governing board, said "There seems to be no room in the Union. We've gone over and over the Union for space to locate the bookstore. The banquet rooms and ballrooms seem to be the only rooms large enough for it. The building is even too small for all the offices that are now wanted in it."

Day advised the students to decide on one specific place in the Union and then push their decision. He said students are paying $5 each for Union operations, and they should have a voice as to what is to be put into it.

Day then asked students wanting a College bookstore to stand. The response was unanimous in favor of such a store.

Dance Theater-Berlin, Masters of Moods

By BILL WHISTLER

Dance Theater-Berlin's performance of Shakespeare's Hamlet climaxed a ballet program that was well received by approximately 1,100 people in the College auditorium last night.

Gisela Daege as "Ophelia"

Gert Reinholm as "Hamlet" and Ralf Smolik as "Laertes" both impressed the audience with their dancing.

Smolik, as "The Student," also gave the audience a bit of humor when things got out on hand in his wooing of the lady of easy virtue in the satirical "Souvenirs."

The entire cast, in its varied array of colorful costumes, provided a full evening's entertainment with its expression of many contrasting moods.

The Goldovsky Opera Theater in their performance of Donizetti's "Don Pasquale" in English is scheduled as the second Artist Series program on November 11.

Placement Bureau Needs Students For Part-time Jobs

A few part-time jobs are still open for college men, Chester E. Peters, director of the placement bureau, said.

"We have had more calls than boys to fill the jobs," Peters said. Anyone interested in part time work should contact him.

For the girls, there are a few light housework jobs open, Dean Helen Moore, Dean of Women, said.

"The secretarial jobs are filled just as soon as they come in," Dean Moore added.

The part-time executive secretary of the YWCA, Mrs. Koefod, is trying to work out a system for baby sitters, and anyone interested in this type of work should contact her. Her office is on the second floor of Anderson hall.

'55 Homecoming Festivities To Begin with Talent Show

Homecoming festivities will begin Thursday, October 27, with a talent show at 8 p.m. in the Auditorium. The 1955 Homecoming Queen-elect will be announced at the show's close, Phil Robertson, Homecoming committee chairman, said today.

Ten acts are being planned for the talent show. Among the acts which have been scheduled are: Earle Davis, professor of English, who will sing ballads. Janice Ames, Art Soph, who was selected this week as one of the two finalists in the Lawrence Welk vocal talent contest, will sing.

Royce Johnson, MGS, will play the guitar and sing. Duncan Erickson, Ar '03, will do an impersonation of Liberace. Tom Post will have a skit which will include a dialect routine.

Other acts to be featured in the show will be announced later, Bob Balzerick, show chairman, said.

Friday night's activities will include viewing the house decorations, a pep rally, and a dance.

The house decorations will be turned on at 6:30 p.m. and will be turned off at 10 p.m. Students are urged to walk to see the decorations, Robertson said.

There will be a "noise" rally at 10 p.m. in the Student Union parking lot. A bonfire and speeches from some of the members of the team and coaching staff are planned as highlights of the rally.

A dance will follow at 10:30 p.m. in Nichols gymnasium. Dress for the dance will be "come as you are." The dance will end at 12.

Saturday's activities will begin with a parade Saturday and close with the annual Homecoming ball. Governor Hall will ride in the parade which starts in downtown Manhattan at 10 a.m. and crown the Homecoming queen at half-time in the game between K-State and Oklahoma.

Awards will be presented to the house decoration winners and parade winners before the game begins. The queen's attendants will also be announced at half-time.

This year's Homecoming will have as a theme, "Sooner or Later," Robertson said.

The Homecoming ball is at 8 p.m. in Ahearn gymnasium. The queen will be formally presented at the dance.

Should Union Be Used To Promote Goodwill?

Problems now facing the Student Union Governing board seem to be: "Who's going to use the Union?" and "Who's going to pay for using it?"

A move is on to let non-College-affiliated groups use the Union at reduced rates. This could mean more money out of the students' pockets for increased operating fees.

Extension wants any group that is invited to K-State to be charged an intermediate rate or, better yet, to be allowed to use the Union almost free of charge. The purpose behind this move would be to lure state conferences away from KU's union, and to better K-State's public relations.

Three tentative pay rates for the Union were outlined recently. In order of priority, these categories were student groups, College-affiliated groups, and outside groups.

Under this plan, student groups would be charged the least, as in the case of a fraternity dance in the main ballroom; College-affiliated groups would be charged an intermediate rate for such things as faculty dances; and outside groups, all those not associated directly with the College, would be charged the highest rates.

One question facing the Union Governing Board is this—If an organization in Kansas is invited here by Extension for a conference, should it be billed as a non-associated group, as a College-associated group, or should it be let in for a nominal fee?

Extension, by thinking that off-campus organizations should be admitted at special rates, evidently has overlooked the fact that someone will have to foot the bill for the difference between the charges and the costs.

Union Director Loren Kottner has emphasized repeatedly that outside patronage in the form of conferences and conventions is necessary to meet Union operating expenses.

But, if outside groups are admitted free of charge or at an intermediate rate, someone else will have to make up the deficit.

One answer to the question of who is going to pay the difference can be found in the operation of the union at KU, which was cited by the "outside-group-for-free" crowd as an argument for making a similar move here.

At KU, students pay $10 a semester into a union-operating fee, compared to $5 at K-State. KU also has a college-operated bookstore which is helping to pay construction costs. K-Staters pay $7.50 a semester as a Union building fee.

If a KU-type plan is adopted by which students help pay the costs for outside groups to use the Union, other questions are raised.

First, while most persons will agree that good public relations are essential, it is the function of the Student Union to act as the tool of these relations? And second, should K-State students have to foot the bill? Darrel Miller

Foolin' with Newlin

Of Lobsters, Fat Eagles, Women, and Dry Martinis

By Bob Newlin

Ya know, it's not so much how you played the game, but did you win?

Some way or other, my girl got the notion that we could prove how much we loved each other by not kissing so much.

I said I thought kissing was a pretty darned good way to show how much we loved each other. But she said that had nothing to do with it, because if we didn't kiss and still loved each other then we were really in love.

So I said, "OK, what'll we do then?" "Why, we can sit around and enjoy each other's conversation," she says. I said the only thing I could think of to say was that I loved her. And she said if I really did I wouldn't say so, because anybody could say so but not everybody could prove it, and I could prove it by not saying so. You can see by now that, when my girl gets ahold of an idea, she doesn't let go of it too easy.

So the problem was how to tell her I loved her without saying so, and how to get her mind off kissing so I could kiss her again. Then I remembered reading somewhere that poetry is the language of love.

I don't remember where it was I read it or who it was wrote it, but chances are it was some poet who was so busy writing poems he didn't have any time for love himself. Still I figured anything was worth a try so I wrote a poem. I don't know whether it touched any hearts or not, but it almost rhymes:

A king by the name of Hitnoah,
Went hunting, and stepped on a boa;
The snake reared and faced him,
And he embraced him;
Oh, Hit ain't gonna reign no moah.

Friend of mine was sitting in a bar down in Texas one night, sort of watching the passing parade of perennially interesting people as they came and went. In came a particularly thirsty gentleman, who ordered a dry martini. He drank it down with great enthusiasm, and allowed as how it was the best damned martini he had ever tasted. Well, the barkeep whipped up another, and the customer declared it was even better than the first.

"Such genius deserves a reward," he said. So saying, he reached into his pocket and pulled out a live lobster and a fat eagle. "Here," he said to the bartender, "take these with my compliments." Well sir, not wanting to offend the customer, the man on the working side of the hardwood took the two gifts with the casual comment that he guessed he could take them home for dinner.

"No, no," objected the customer, "They've already had dinner, take them to a movie."

Seems everywhere you go now, all you hear is Ivy league. Clothing stores, kampus konversations, etc., etc.—they all wind up eventually with the same ole Ivy-league twang. Here's li'l something that oughta go a long way towards cutting down on stuff like that. Knock, knock . . . who's there? . . . Ivy League . . . Ivy League who? . . . "Ivy league for every drop of rain that falls, a flower grows."

After looking around gingerly for something else to write about, we noticed that the fair name of our good editor has been unfairly besmirched because of some of his editorial work, like Casey would waltz with a strawberry blonde, AND THE BAND PLAYED ON. But friend—now don't noise this around—editorial writing is REALLY a cinch.

Editors just make it look mysterious to impress reporters. "A situation exists today at this College which demands the attention of every student with an ounce of justice about him. . ." (again, etc., etc.) The middle of the editorial? Just fill in with some history of what the previous editor has done, and you've got that made. But the ending! Ah, the ending! THAT is where you separate the men from the boys. You've got to slap them on the wrist, comfort the afflicted, and afflict the comfortable.

Here, for the first time at any price, is presented Newlin's Handy Editorial Endings, offered with the hope you, too, may find comfort in ending your editorials:

1. This is deplorable and something should be done about it.
2. It certainly is a grim world.
3. The honor of old K-State has been besmirched!
4. We don't know the answer to the dilemma, but there must be one . . .
5. Get out the vote . . . turn the rascals out!
6. This situation, as our letters to the editor have so thoroughly pointed out, calls for united action.
7. The Student council no longer has reason for delay.
8. We may all learn a lesson from this gross example of unfairness to one of our fellow students.
9. We must keep our heads clear in this (crisis) (emergency) (hour of despair). Choose one.
10. That's a hell of a way to run a band!

We leave you with the song we feel will make the best-seller list this week, it being one of the more sentimental ballads of the day. "I'm Dancing With Knees in My Eyes, 'Cause That Girl Is Just Too Darned Tall."

Quotation for the week: "She may have a figure like an hourglass, but the sands of time will shift."

See ya around the Campii.

Commies Conduct Reverse Research

Tokyo (U.P.)—Communist China is conducting medical research in reverse, Radio Peiping reports.

The station reports on scientific study into ancient, not modern, ways to cure diseases.

Red China's ministry of public health has set up a study group of doctors, some trained in 20th-century techniques, and others in the ancient lore of the Orient.

They announced recently, Radio Peiping said, that a 200-year-old prescription for curing sleeping sickness worked in 90 per cent of 54 cases tested.

The prescription contains several exotic items such as rhinoceros horn. Communist doctors found the prescription in an old medical book.

"Government health authorities have studied the method and decided to introduce it on a wide scale all over the country," Radio Peiping said.

Argentina Prepares For Prexy Election

Buenos Aires, (U.P.)—Argentina's provisional government today was sweeping away ousted dictator Juan D. Peron's corrupt election machinery in preparation for new presidential elections.

Provisional President Eduardo Leonardi, disclosing the action in an interview with United Press last night, said no member of the government which replaced Peron would be a candidate in the election.

He also left little doubt that Peron's Personista party would be barred from participation as a political party.

Chicago Police Search for Clues in Tri-Murder Case

Chicago—Fifty policemen today launched a house-by-house, foot-by-foot search of a six-block area where they believe three young boys were strangled.

They hunted in garbage cans, vacant lots and alleys for clues to the wanton murder Sunday night of Robert Peterson, 13, John Schuesler, 13, and his 11-year-old brother, Anton, Jr.

The policemen hoped particularly to find the boys' clothing, which had been ripped off them, and the tape which was used to bind their eyes and mouths.

The boys' nude, mutilated bodies were found Tuesday, thrown into a forest preserve ditch like sacks of potatoes.

Nine Captured Russians To Enter United States

Taipei, Formosa—Nine crewmembers of the captured Soviet tanker "Tuapse," who have been granted entry to the United States, will leave by plane today.

The Russian oil tanker, which was seized in June, 1954, off Formosa by the Chinese Nationalist navy, has been detained "indefinitely."

10 Men Named To Rifle Team

Ten men were picked recently from a field of 65 to form the first team of ROTC rifle team, according to Capt. R. L. Dineley of the department.

The men chosen because of high shooting scores are Richard Bair, DH Fr; Thurston Banks, ChE, Fr; Darrell Arnold, Ag E Fr; Warren Sanger, AgE Soph; Lorraine Blume, BA Fr; Duane Gall, GA Fr; Richard Foster, Ag Soph; Garfield Schmidt, BA Fr; Leon Folkerts, ME Fr; and Larry Lowe, Geo Jr.

"Over sixty students participated in the initial tryouts. From these, forty-five men were selected. Because of active competition, the membership of the first team will change from time to time," Dineley said.

The 45 men make up four 10-man teams and one 5-man team. Each man competes continually for a higher position, according to Dineley.

What young people are doing at General Electric

Young engineer pioneers in design and sales of new tiny transistors

The germanium transistor—some smaller than the eraser end of a pencil and able to operate on a few thousandths of a watt—is probably one of the most promising developments in the electronics field today. It opens the way to new midget radios, TV sets flat enough to hang on a wall and many other exciting possibilities.

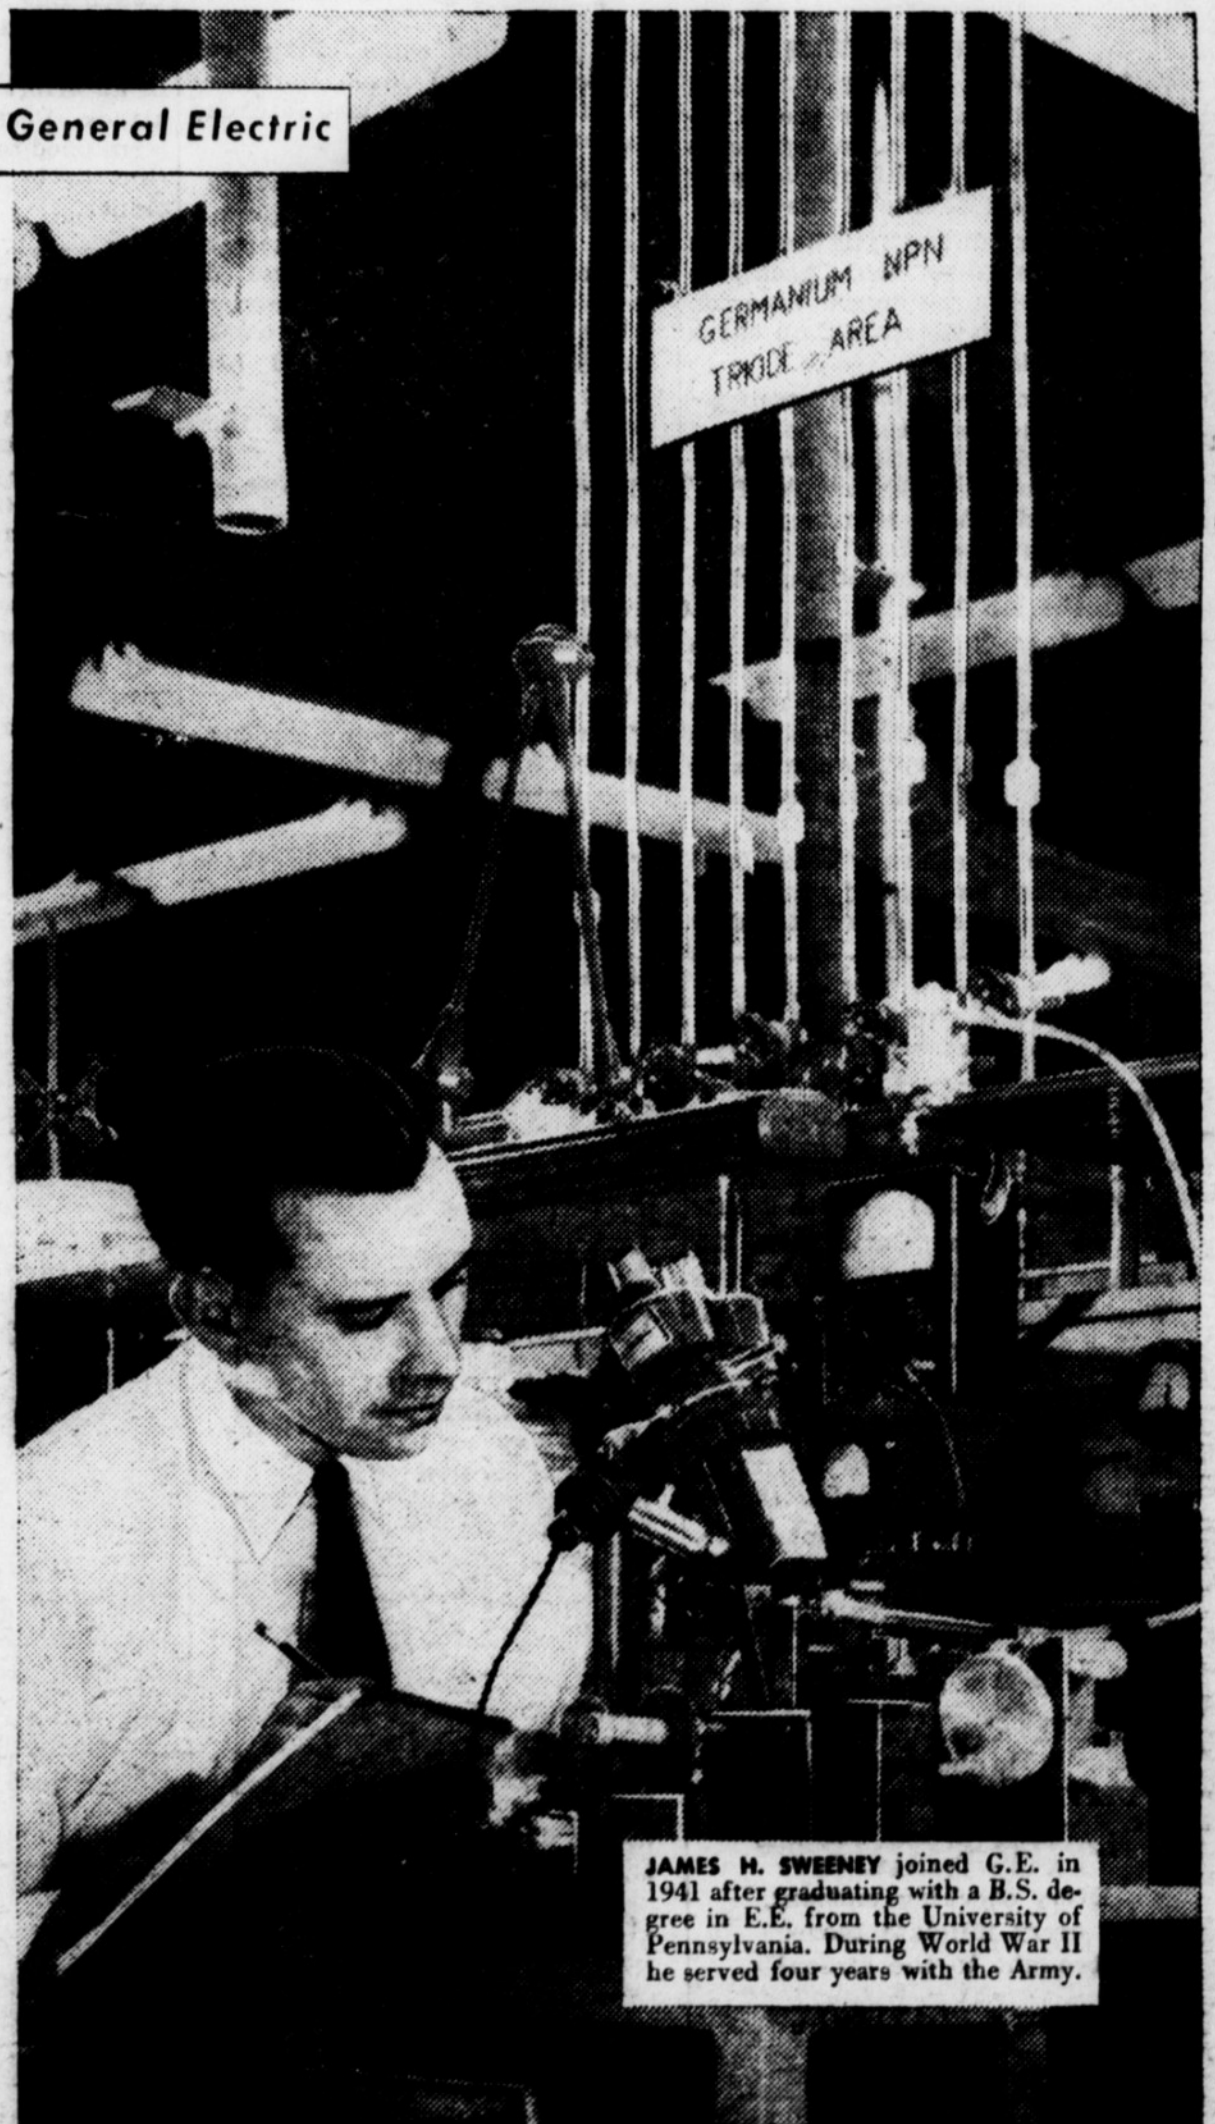

One of the men who helped design and perfect these tiny transistors—and the man who is now head of sales for all General Electric germanium products—is James H. Sweeney, Manager—Marketing, Semiconductor Products Department.

Sweeney's Work Interesting, Vital

As early as 1948, Sweeney was head of a group that studied the design and possible uses of germanium products. He gained national recognition for his work in developing and introducing these products to other industries, and when a new Semiconductor Products Department was formed in 1953, Sweeney was a natural choice for the job of marketing these products.

25,000 College Graduates at General Electric

When Sweeney came to General Electric in 1941, he worked in many different departments until he finally found the work he wanted to do. Like Sweeney, each of the 25,000 college-graduate employees is given the chance to grow, to find the work he does best, and to realize his full potential. For General Electric has long believed this: When fresh young minds are given the freedom to make progress, everybody benefits—the individual, the company, the country.

JAMES H. SWEENEY joined G.E. in 1941 after graduating with a B.S. degree in E.E. from the University of Pennsylvania. During World War II he served four years with the Army.

Nery Holds Down Left Side of Line

RON NERY, 6-4, 205 pound K-State tackle. Ron is a two year letterman at K-State and last season was named to the Kansas City Star and Associated Press all-Conference team.

By ROGER MYERS

Ron Nery, 6-4, 210 pound starting left tackle for the Wildcats, is the reason why opponents hesitate before calling a play through the left side of the line.

"Ron's main strength lies in his defensive ability," said Coach Bus Mertes. "He's the biggest eater on the squad, but he more than earns his victuals."

"Ron makes a lot of ground-saving tackles," said Paul DeWeese, sports publicity director. "He is surprisingly fast for his size which allows him to get in on almost every play," DeWeese said. "He's the kind of guy who gets the job done."

Proof of Nery's ability is the fact that he was named on all-Conference teams by the Kansas City Star and the Associated Press last year. He also made honorable mention on AP's all-American and all-Midwestern teams.

Because of a heavy class load last spring he missed much of spring practice. After a slow start, Ron has come along well and according to Coach Mertes he played his best game last Saturday against Colorado.

The Wildcat lineman has a great desire to play the game. Last year he started against Missouri although he had a broken toe, and this summer while doing construction work in Wisconsin, he injured his right knee. However, he continues to play in spite of the knee injury.

Before coming to Kansas State, Nery had earned a name in high school sports by participating in football, baseball, and track at New Kensington, Pa., where he won five varsity letters, two each in football and baseball, and one in track.

"I think we're going to beat Iowa State," he said, "but it's their homecoming and the game will be a tough one to win."

"The boys are really in shape and State should at least break even in the Big Seven," Ron said.

Bob Hilliard Dropped from Football Team

Bob Hilliard, Kansas State football lineman, has been dropped from the Wildcat squad for not attending classes, Coach Bus Mertes revealed here yesterday in a short statement.

"All of us who know him, wish him the best of luck," Mertes said.

The 6-2, 220 pound senior was starting left guard for the Wildcats in four of their five games this season. He had earned two letters at guard the past two seasons, starting most of the games in 1954.

A Collegian reporter tried to contact Hilliard last night but was informed that he had packed his bags and left for his home in Raytown, Mo., Tuesday afternoon.

Cats Get Look At Iowa State Play Patterns

The Wildcat football team split their practice time between offensive and defensive drills yesterday as they prepared for the Big Seven clash with Iowa State Saturday.

After a short tackling drill Coach Bus Mertes sent his charges against a team of reserves using Iowa State defensive formations in an effort to strengthen the Cat attack. Part of the offensive drills were used to develop a new formation to be used against the Cyclones.

The session was capped off with a defensive scrimmage against Cyclone plays.

Three players sat out the practice because of injuries. Jim Furey and Burt Schmidt reported in sweat clothes and Ellis Rainsberger was in pads but they did not take part in the scrimmage.

Pat Spagnoletti, junior center, has been lost to the team for the season, Coach Mertes announced. Pat was recently shaken up and received a head injury that will keep him out of further action.

Buffs Hope To Win Bowl Bid Saturday

By UNITED PRESS

Coach Dallas Ward of Colorado, who got nosed out of the Orange Bowl late in the game last season, intends to start at the beginning this Saturday and go all the way.

His team plays Oklahoma Saturday and the game probably will decide the Big Seven representative for the Orange Bowl.

Normally, Oklahoma, a team with experience, poise, a rugged line and speedy backfield, could be depended on to win. This year, however, Ward has achieved all that also in a squad heavily laden with experience.

Ward also has an answer to triple threat Tommy McDonald, the Oklahoma halfback, in tailback Homer Jenkins.

Other things being somewhat equal, the game might well be decided on which of the speedy backs does the better job. They are almost equally matched in weight and height and perhaps only Jenkins' injuries have kept him from gaining the national stature McDonald already has received in his junior year.

McDonald averages almost eight yards a carry to lead the Big Seven in rushing with 332 yards in 41 tries. Jenkins is third, behind Missouri's Gene Roll, with 221 yards in 40 tries, a 5.5 average. McDonald also leads in scoring with 42 points. Jenkins, who is a pound heavier at 170 and an inch taller at 5-10, is third with 21.

Oklahoma and Colorado, both unbeaten and untied in four games, apparently have the Orange Bowl sewed up with the winner at Norman, Saturday, playing in Miami January 2. The other five Big Seven teams have come up with only four wins among them in 23 games.

Two other conference games are scheduled, Nebraska at Missouri and Kansas State at Iowa State. Either could go either way. Southern Methodist is at Kansas in an intersectional clash.

Kiner is Named General Manager Of San Diego Club

San Diego, Calif. (U.P.)—Ralph Kiner, starting a new phase of his baseball career, said today he hoped to build San Diego into a Pacific Coast league championship club and "some day to work my way back into the majors in a front office capacity."

Kiner, who hit a total of 369 home runs during his major league career, was named General Manager of the Padres yesterday by James B. Lane, president of the Westgate-California Tuna Packing Co., new owners of the club.

Pfeifer, Cat Halfback, One of Best in Loop

By BILL WHISTLER

Ralph Pfeifer, fleet Cat halfback, rates as one of the most promising sophomore backs in the Big Seven, said Coach Bus Mertes.

"Ralph has tremendous speed for his size," said Mertes in commenting about the 6-foot 190-pound halfback. "He has a wonderful outlook and is the type that gives you 100 per cent in every game. He could develop into one of the finest backs K-State has ever had."

Ralph's home town is Hays where he lettered twice in football at Hays High and made the all-State team in his senior year. During his junior year Hays High was co-champion in the West Central Kansas league. He also lettered one year in track and three in basketball while in high school. Last year he received a freshman football numeral here at K-State.

Ralph is currently leading the K-State ball carriers with a net gain of 152 yards in 27 carries for an average of 6 yards a try.

"I think the coaching staff here at K-State is the finest a guy could have," Ralph said in talking about football. "They know your interests and it makes for a friendly atmosphere to work under," he said.

"I think our team is good enough to beat anybody, and we are going to win our next five games," he said.

Cats at Ames For Cyclone Homecoming

Ames, Iowa—Kansas State will make its sixth football homecoming appearance at Iowa State this week end and Iowa State fans, coaches and players alike would appreciate a little "repeating of history" act from the Wildcats.

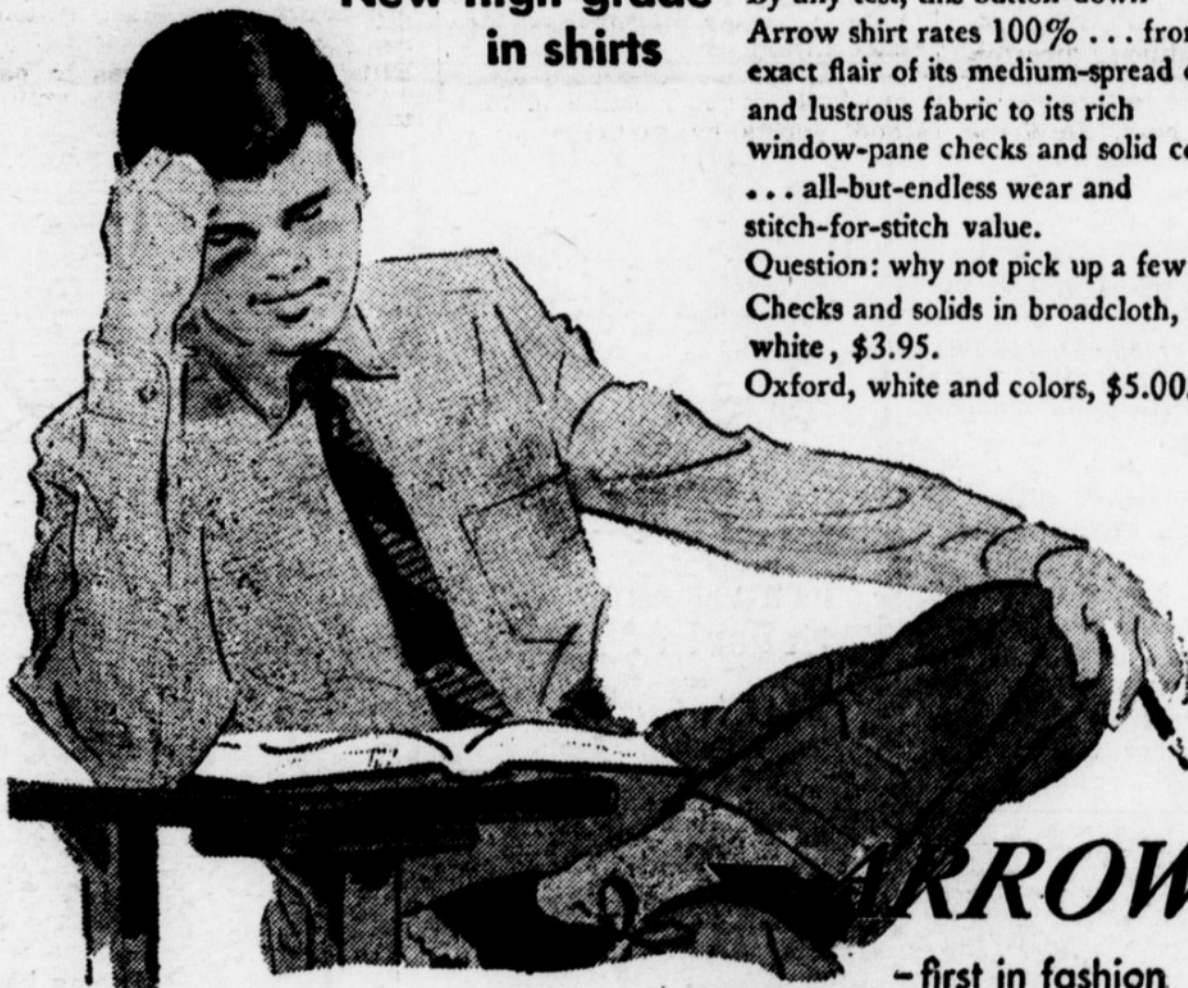

This will be the forty-fourth annual homecoming contest. Iowa State had won 13 of those contests, lost 24 and tied 4.

The 1949 win, 25-21, was memorable on two counts. It was one of the most hair-raising contests in the series as the Cyclones built up a lead only to watch Hackney's unstoppable drives close the gap. Iowa State finally contained him late in the game to protect the win but not before he had rolled up 162 yards on 33 efforts from scrimmage.

The first requirements for admission to Kansas State were that the student be 14 years old or over and pass a satisfactory examination in reading, arithmetic and English Grammar. In 1884 geography was added to the requirement.

Line-O-Scribe Purchased By Union Offices

Following the installation last week of a "Line-O-Scribe" machine in the office of Bob Alexander, Union program chairman, the Union offices are now able to do their own printing.

Alexander said that at the present the machine is being used only for Union printing needs, including such things as posters and signs, but in the future it may be available for use in all student activities.

The "Line-O-Scribe," a hand operated machine costing approximately $450, can print on paper up to 14 by 22 inches. Type includes several different sizes and faces that are set by hand.

Alexander is the only operator of the machine now, but tentative plans call for hiring a part-time operator to handle the work. Persons or organizations in charge of student activities will be charged a small fee to cover paper, ink, and an operator's time.

New Smoking Regulations Adopted by Administration

New smoking regulations concerning campus buildings have been adopted following the recommendations of the Administrative council, according to President McCain.

Smoking is now permitted in all faculty offices except the wings housing the flour and feed milling department. Smoking is restricted in this area because of the explosion hazard.

The College auditorium, Dickens hall, Engineering shops, Holton hall, Kedzie hall, Nichols gymnasium, Wareham annex, and Chemical Engineering (old portion).

Smoking in other campus buildings is limited to certain conference rooms, reading rooms, lounges, greenhouses, dining rooms, and laboratories where the lab is used as an office and no hazard exists.

Actual designation of smoking areas in this case will be at the discretion of the department head.

Smoking will not be permitted in classrooms, lecture halls, and corridors. The primary purpose of the new regulations is to minimize fire hazards.

The regulations were adopted after the Administrative council had consulted with department heads and student groups who frequently use the business and social facilities of the campus.

President McCain asks students and faculty to cooperate and observe the new regulations.

Voting for Queen To End at 5 p.m.

Homecoming queen elections will end today at 5 p.m., Lee Ruggles, election chairman, said.

Approximately 450 ballots were cast Thursday, he said. The voting was heaviest during the hours from 1 to 3 p.m. The voting booth had been scheduled to open at 8 a.m. but was delayed because a ballot box could not be found.

Flush Bowl Activities To Start with Parade

A parade commencing at 1 p.m. will precede tomorrow's ninth annual Flush Bowl game. The game between Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Phi Delta Theta fraternities will start at 2 p.m. in City park.

The parade will start at the Sig Alph house and proceed through Aggieville and downtown Manhattan. Fraternities and Sororities will have floats entered, and Flush Bowl queen candidates and housemothers will ride in convertibles in the parade.

Fourteen Manhattan firms have donated prizes for the queen and her attendants.

Siever Out Soon, Hospital Reports

The student hospital reported yesterday that Dick Siever, PrM Fr from Parsons, was "improving rapidly" from injuries received last Monday when he was struck by a car at 17th and Anderson.

Siever, hospitalized for a mild brain concussion, bruises and abrasions, said he had hopes of being released from the hospital Sunday.

"It will depend on whether I am rid of the heaches caused by the concussion," Siever said.

Longest U. S. Skein Stays Unbroken

The longest consecutive string of all-American yearbooks in the nation remained unbroken as it was announced today that the 1955 Royal Purple was named the 20th straight all-American K-State yearbook.

Prof. C. J. Medlin, graduate manager of Student Publications, announced the award today.

The ratings are made each year by the Associated Collegiate Press. The ACP commended the Royal Purple as "an outstanding publication—very complete and readable."

Only 11 college yearbooks entered in the contest received an all-American rating. Out of 22 college yearbooks in K-State's enrollment class (4,000-7,000) only five received all-American ratings.

"It sure was a thrill to hear that we got another all-American rating," Phyllis Ruthrauff, editor of the 1955 Royal Purple said when contacted by phone in Kansas City. "I was very pleased about it. The staff worked hard and did a good job." (Picture on page 3.)

"We were extremely happy to get this 20th consecutive award," Medlin said. "Congratulations are in order to a hardworking editor, business manager and the entire staff."

The Royal Purple received ratings of excellent on its organization, cover, index, folios, illustrative content, and pictorial coverage.

A total score of 3,900 points was necessary for an all-America rating. The Royal Purple's total score was 3,970.

Special credit was given for student work on the publication, purpose of the book, and superior management.

Much of the success of the management can be credited to Medlin, student publications manager. The streak of Royal Purple all-American ratings began with his arrival on the campus in 1934.

A complete revised edition of Medlin's book, "Yearbook Editing and Management" will be released by the Iowa State University Press in November. The book is widely used as a textbook in Kansas and in the nation.

Medlin has had 35 years experience in the field of yearbook editing and management and is known as the nation's leading yearbook authority.

Student Union Called . . .

. . . Best in Midwest

Interior Decorator Says He Likes New Union

By PAUL JONES

"K-State's Union is the best in the midwest. None of the other union buildings as far west as Colorado, as far east as Ohio, and from north to south compare with it."

This is the opinion of Ken White Westwood, N.J., designer in charge of the interior decoration of the new Union, who visited the campus this week.

"It is a cathedral of soda fountains and milk shakes. In general, it is a citadel of social activity," White said.

White and Don Reinsfelder, his assistant, arrived at K-State Tuesday to make a final survey before setting up a list of specifications for the interior work and furnishings.

Loren Kottner, Union director, said he expects the list to be returned by White in the next couple of weeks. It will probably be a couple of more weeks after that until the contracts are let, the director said.

The only work which has been completed inside the building, Kottner said, is the painting of walls and other work as was furnished by the contractor.

"It is just as if you would walk into a finished home that was waiting to have the furnishings put in it," he said.

White said in the $1,650,000

Union there will be more than 2,000 pieces of furniture, not including seats in the auditorium.

Ken White

"Plastics are used extensively. It is a building of three floors packed in color drama, setting a color foil and background for today's living at K-State," he said. "Red is used in only one room, 'The Dive,' which will recall spectacular moments of the history of the College, such as a dean's report on the first student to go to jail. The soda fountain is in the State Room, and will build its theme around a color idea carried into match books, cups and containers, and repeated in banquet service, china and other decorative motifs," White said.

"It is a building built primarily around the idea of student usage around the things that will go to make a good program."

"It is an important building to the campus because it is a major departure from the style of architecture and will establish a style for the buildings to follow as K-State brings its physical plant up to its academic standards.

"It is a dynamic presentation of those values which make for the total student in terms of culture, education, art, recreation and stimulation," White said.

White, who has been in charge of the interior decoration of four other unions, will return to supervise the installation of the interior furnishings.

Smoking Rules Benefit Faculty, But Not Students

Don't light that cigarette, fellow student, that smoking rule wasn't meant for you!

Although the above isn't 100 per cent accurate, for all practical purposes the new smoking rules and regulations published today are for the benefit of faculty members and not students. This was not the apparent intent of the Faculty Senate's recommendation to the President.

Let's look at the Administrative Council's list of regulations.

First, smoking will be permitted in all faculty offices except the wings housing the flour and feed milling department, where there is an explosion hazard.

Secondly, the rules state that, other than in faculty offices, smoking is not allowed in certain buildings. (Names of buildings are printed in front-page story.)

Lastly, smoking permitted in other buildings is limited to certain conference rooms, reading rooms, lounges, greenhouses, laboratories where no hazard is involved, and dining rooms, the regulations say.

Adapting the third point above to the buildings where smoking is allowed, how many conference rooms, reading rooms, lounges, greenhouses, fire-hazardless laboratories, and dining rooms are there? Very few. Smoking has been permitted in Thompson hall for quite awhile, so the new regulations don't affect the smoking situation there.

Some may contend that student smokers may use faculty offices, but I doubt if that situation will often prevail.

The Administrative Council's recommendations say that the minimizing of fire hazards was of paramount concern in determination of smoking rules and regulations. Was it?

It would seem to me to be as dangerous to smoke in a faculty office in one of the campus' rickety buildings as it would be for students and others to smoke in many other parts of those buildings.

The recommendation of the Faculty Senate to the President was that smoking be permitted in offices of campus buildings and other areas to be designated by the President. In the Senate meeting, an amendment to the above recommendation was offered which proposed that FACULTY members be allowed to smoke in offices and other designated areas. Opposition to this amendment was strong and it failed, which indicated that the Senate favored letting students smoke.

And yet, when the Senate's recommendation was acted upon by the Administrative Council, regulations were established which favor the faculty. What was termed offices in the Senate's recommendation became faculty offices in the regulations.

It looks like another one of those things around here where the majority is overlooked in favor of a privileged minority.

It will be most interesting to see what happens to the line schedule recommendations of the Student Council.

Now that the football team is on its way to Iowa State and there's no chance for letting the cat out of the bag, why don't K-Staters surprise the squad by meeting the boys when they get back into Manhattan Saturday night?

Pep hasn't been as high as it should be, even if we aren't undefeated. When the team returned from Marquette after winning 42-0, only about 60 persons showed up to meet them. Of that number, only about half a dozen were students, the rest being relatives and friends.

The exact time the team will return Saturday night isn't known, but it will be around 9 or 10 p.m. Sportscaster Dev Nelson will announce the approximate time and place of arrival during his commentary of the game.

It would be nice if the pep groups and the cheerleaders would get something started. Maybe the Cats' rough luck is partly our fault.

Crazy Auto Says . . .

Playboy, Much Maligned, Actually Is Top Magazine

Before we get into the meat of this week's review of cultural achievement, I would like to continue with the explanation of my cultural background that I began last week.

One of the most profound publications ever to influence my sensitive imagination has had a telling effect on my intellect for the past year and a half. It is subtly known as Playboy magazine.

This great publication is disseminated monthly, through the courtesy of an obliging post office department. I say obliging for several reasons, the first of which is the magazine's torrid contents. It must cause them no end of trouble to wrap the magazine in asbestos every week.

The mag's subscription list is increasing so rapidly that I'm expecting a Congressional appropriation soon to pay for enlarging post office buildings throughout the country.

That is, this move will be made if Congressmen can get their eyes off of the scantily dressed (but not scantily proportioned) females in Playboy long enough to take a vote.

Playboy probably hasn't come to the attention of a lot of you nice people unless by chance through a low-brow remark or two. It's not the dirty magazine it's purported to be (just a little shady).

Playboy is a man's magazine, but it's pitched to the level of the sophisticate—the man who thrives on life, the man of taste, the man of varied interests (the man who likes to connect himself with sophisticated things for glory's sake.)

I think I'm justified in making such a lengthy dissertation on this magazine, because of its tremendous popularity (particularly with college men), and because of its apparent notoriety as a dubious publication. Besides, I like to read it, and I don't want to have to hide it under my books every time I meet an old lady on the street.

Some of the jokes are so intellectual that I have on several occasions had to consult my psychology text for the meaning of words—and even then the jokes were funny.

I had intended to give you a thorough analysis of Thorstein Veblen's Theory of the Leisure Class. But, upon reflecting on the title, I detected a clash with my subconscious. With me leisure is not a theory—it's a way of life.

So, one final word: After watching Arthur Godfrey sing on television (I watched him because I couldn't bear to listen to him) I have half decided to become a singer on TV. If he can do it, anybody can. Should I decide to become a singer, there'll be no column next week.

Of course, if my public wants me to remain with the Collegian, I will. Please write and tell me you want me. Please?

Day Vacation Is Best With Regular Holiday

Dear Editor:

If K-State should lose the KU game, would that be something to celebrate?

It seems to me that most members of the Council want such a holiday on November 7 to make a three-day week-end.

If there is going to be a holiday anyway, I suggest it be tacked on either the Thanksgiving or the Christmas holidays.

Inquiring Reporter Finds . . .

Student Opinion Divided On Line-Schedule Issue

Question: Do you think instructors' names should be announced at enrollment time with the classes they'll teach?

George Burgess, Sp Soph—"You know you can learn more under some instructors, and under others you can't, so I think they should be announced."

Martha Stark, HE Soph—"I think every student has a right to choose the best instructor he can have."

David Frey, PEM Soph—"Such a plan would create a problem because students would gang up on the teachers who are tagged as easy."

Marian Teare, EEd Soph—"I don't think they should, because the teachers who would require the most work would have the least students in their classes. Educational standards would drop."

Rosa Larson, HDA Sr—"I think it's a good idea because students will do better work under instructors they like."

Gayle Smith, HDA Soph—"Yes, because the students certainly are entitled to know who they're getting for an instructor."

U. S. Girl Ranks Second In 'Miss World' Contest

London, (U.P.)—Shapely Susana Djuim of Venezuela carried off the "Miss World" title last night in a beauty contest almost devoid of the usual tantrums marking Britain's annual cheese-cake derby.

The only tears came from the winner, a 19-year-old who shapes up at 34-21-34, and from France's Gisele Thierry, a 21-year-old Paris mannequin who sobbed "eet ees ridiculous. She ees not ze winner. Eet was unfair."

Miss Thierry, a pre-contest favorite among the field of 21, placed sixth. Many contestants sympathized with her, and said she should have placed higher than sixth. But most of them agreed with the judges in picking the Latin American.

One of those was Margaret Anne Haywood, Arkansas' traveling ambassador of beauty who took second honors and "thought I did pretty good" to do so.

Matt Betton To Play For Homecoming Ball

Matt Betton, who has played for Homecoming balls for the last two years, will also play at this year's dance, Martin K. Eby, president of Blue Key, announced today. Blue Key, senior men's honorary, is sponsoring the Homecoming Ball.

The dance will start at 9 p.m. Saturday, October 29 and close at 12 p.m.

The queen and her attendants will be presented during intermission and the queen will be crowned by Eby.

Decorations for the dance, to be in Ahearn gymnasium, will be centered around Blue Key. A giant blue key will be back of the bandstand and will be in the spotlight, Eby said. Dress for the ball will be semiformal.

"We're expecting a large turnout for the dance," Eby said. "It should be one of the main social events of the year."

Tickets for the dance are on sale this week at a booth in Anderson hall. They will also be on sale in Anderson hall Thursday and Friday of next week and at the door. Tickets are for a couple, Eby said.

ADVENTURES IN SOCIAL SCIENCE: NO. 1

"The proper study of mankind is man," said Geoffrey Chaucer in his immortal Casey at the Bat, and I couldn't agree more. In these tangled times it is particularly proper to study man—how he lives, how he functions, how he works. Accordingly, this column, normally devoted to slapdash waggery, will from time to time turn a serious eye on the social sciences.

In making these occasional departures, I have the hearty approval of the makers of Philip Morris Cigarettes, whose interest is not only in promoting the pleasure of young Americans by providing them with a gentle cigarette, matchlessly blended of vintage tobaccos, grown with loving care and harvested with tender mercy, then cured with compassionate patience and rolled into firm, tasty cylinders and brought to you in king size or regular, wrapped in fetching packages of lively crimson and pristine white, at prices that wreak no havoc on the most stringent of budgets; but who are equally concerned with broadening the minds and extending the intellectual vistas of every college man and every college woman.

I, for one, am not unmoved by this great-heartedness in the makers of Philip Morris, and though I know it is considered chic these days to disparage one's employer, I shall not. Indeed, I shall cry "Huzzah!" for the makers of Philip Morris. I shall cry "Huzzah!" and "Bon appetit!" and "Stout Fellows!"

But I digress. For our first lesson in social science, let us turn to the study of economics, often called the queen of the social sciences. (Sociology is the king of the social sciences. Advertising is the jack.) Economics breaks down into two broad general classifications: 1) coins; 2) folding money. But before taking up these technical aspects, let us survey briefly the history of economics.

Economics was discovered by the Englishman, Adam Smith. He published his theories in 1778, but everybody giggled so hard that Smith, blushing hotly, gave up the whole thing and went into the cough drop business with his brother.

For long years after that, economics lay neglected while the world busied itself with other things, like the birth of Victor Hugo, the last days of Pompeii, and the Bunny Hug.

Then one day while flying a kite during a thunderstorm, the American Henry George (also called Thorstein Veblen) discovered the law of diminishing returns, and then, boy, the fat was in the fire! Before you could say "knife," the Industrial Revolution was on! Mechanization and steam power resulted in prodigies of production. For example, a Welsh artisan named Dylan Sigafos before the Industrial Revolution used to make horseshoes by hand at the rate of four a day. After the Industrial Revolution, with the aid of a steam engine, Sigafos was able to make entire horses.

... Sigafos was able to make entire horses...

And so it went—factories rising from the plains, cities burgeoning around the factories, transport and commerce keeping pace—until today, thanks to economics, we have smog, depressions, and economics textbooks at $5.50.

©Max Shulman, 1955

The makers of Philip Morris, who bring you this column, are no economists, but they do understand supply and demand. You demand gentle smoking pleasure; we supply the cigarette that has it—Philip Morris, of course!

Santee Beats Dwyer In Garden Meeting

New York (U.P.)—Wes Santee, razor-sharp while whipping arch-rival Fred Dwyer in his first indoor mile in seven months, said today cross-country running may help him regain the board record for the distance.

Santee climaxed the Olympic Sports carnival at Madison Square Garden last night by sprinting from behind in the last lap to beat Dwyer by 30 yards in the invitational mile. The time was a sparkling 4:05.2.

It was Santee's finest performance and fastest clocking in the Garden, where he won several races in slower times last winter.

Billy Tidwell of Emporia State was third and ex-Georgetown runner Jo Lapierre was fourth. Santee and the rest of the Quantico Marines cross-country squad head for Lawrence today for a dual meet against Wes's alma mater, the University of Kansas.

The carnival, which attracted 10,300 fans, opened a nation-wide drive to raise $1,000,000 to send 500 of the country's top amateur athletes to the 1956 winter and summer Olympic games.

K-State To Meet I-State In Tilt at Ames Saturday

Recovering from a rash of injuries incurred in last Saturday's Colorado game and facing a rebounding squad of Iowa State Cyclones, K-State gridders have a heavy chore facing them this week end. They meet the Cyclones at Ames.

A total of 13 Wildcats nursed bumps and bruises from Colorado action. Among the more serious were shoulder injuries to senior center Jim Furey and to sophomore tackle Ellis Rainsberger; ankle injuries to senior guard Burt Schmidt, and sophomore fullback Ray Glaze; and a groin injury and charleyhorse to senior quarterback Bob Whitehead.

Furey may not start and may see only limited action, according to Coach Bus Mertes. Furey has been unable to participate in heavy drills this week and Mertes said that he wouldn't know until just before game time if Jim would be available for action.

Rainsberger's shoulder has healed sufficiently to allow him to be inserted in the starting lineup at left guard, replacing Bob Hilliard who has been dropped from the squad.

All of the hurt Wildcats figure as "possibles" for use against the Cyclones, with Whitehead a cinch to start.

Still hunting for their first Big Seven win of the year, the Wildcats have loop losses to Nebrasak (0-16) and Colorado (13-34). Meantime, the Cyclones have yet to lose in the conference. They own a 7-7 tie with Kansas and a 20-14 surprise win over Missouri. Earlier action against nonloop foes saw Iowa State lose to Denver, 7-19, and to Illinois, 0-40.

The Wildcats and Cyclones began football competition with each other in 1917 and haven't missed the annual get-together in the 38 years since. K-State holds 12 wins in the series and has tied the Cyclones three times. K-State has won at Ames only twice in the last 20 years.

Last two times the two teams have met K-State managed wins, turning the trick, 20-12, at Ames in 1953, and repeating, 12-7, at Manhattan last season.

The Wildcats left by plane for Des Moines this morning. They will stay in Des Moines tonight, moving on to Ames by bus tomorrow morning.

Following the game they will board a plane at Ames and are scheduled to arrive at Marshall Field, Fort Riley, at 7:45.

Mather To Alternate Teams in SMU Tilt

Lawrence, (U.P.)—Kansas Coach Chuck Mather said yesterday he would use two teams against Southern Methodist Saturday but would use the second squad only long enough to let the regulars rest.

Kansas used two teams against Oklahoma last week, but alternated them every period. Mather said he had no experienced fullback for the game. Both Dick Reich and Al Stevenson are sidelined with injuries.

'Holy Smokes!'

KS Administrative Council Protects Staters' Health

Ever mindful of the health conditions of K-State students, the Administrative council finally has designated College smoking areas with the apparent philosophy that faculty members are so far gone physically that smoking won't hurt them, but that the students must be saved from nicotine.

The reasoning behind the limitations of smoking seems as logical as most administrative procedures, both locally and otherwise. The faculty senate after years of wrangling finally recommended to President McCain that smoking be permitted in offices and other designated areas to be determined by McCain.

The President's office in turn (just as in the recent case of including instructor's names on line schedules) passed the buck on to the Administrative council. The council kind of changed things. Now we have smoking in faculty offices plus certain rooms in six buildings.

These six are somewhat odd to figure out. Everything omitted from a list handed out by the President's office seemingly is open season for nicotine users. These include the Library and the Chapel. Smoking in the chapel? It might seem sacrilegious to use the exclamation "Holy Smoke."

But having digressed from the original point, it might be well to consider the earthshaking benefits derived from this faculty-devised plan for the faculty. Kedzie hall will not burn down. That is a benefit? Actually the faculty-senate smokers could burn the building down as easily as the Student Publications smokers.

Perhaps there is logic for this system in the summer time. If some of the faculty department heads stepped outside their air-conditioned offices, they might suffer heat prostration. This brings us back to the healthful benefits—less lung cancer among the students.

Of course, all employees in Anderson hall can fog up any time they want. This might be referred to as diplomatic immunity. The only catch is that Ree center (most generally student used) is just as much a fire hazard as the plush carpet in the administrative offices.

All of which proves nothing, except that the faculty can smoke and the students can now smoke up the Chapel and the Library. By the way, Swanson, do you have a match I can use to light my pipe before this rule is published?

—Sam Logan.

Naming Instructors Would Raise Teaching Standards

Dear Editor:

I am very interested in the present problem concerning whether or not it would be wise to put instructors' names on the line schedule. Personally, I am in favor of it, and I would like to give the reasons why. Of course, some of the important issues are pretty academic.

I came to school to get an education, as I suppose the majority of the students at K-State did. Therefore, I would never pick an instructor because I thought I might get a grade easily. Everybody in college is smart enough to know that if one is going to learn anything he must work for it. I would want an instructor who would make me work hard and learn much.

My second consideration would be personality. I don't want professors to be victims of popularity contests. However, an important psychological concept shows us that learning is promoted by pleasant conditions. Therefore, I would pick a professor with whom I could get along well.

Also, I think that such a system would be conducive to higher standards of teaching—that is, if others agree with me as to whom they would choose, and by what standards. Students know when they take a test whether it tests accurately the material it is supposed to test, or whether it is a lazy man's test designed to trick students and give enough of a point spread to make the right amount of A's, B's, C's, D's, and F's.

Under the present system, the administration has no way of knowing what each individual instructor is doing. The administration certainly doesn't have time to go snooping around to check on everyone. However, if the names were added to the line schedule, it wouldn't be long before some instructors would show up well-favored or ill-favored by the students. It would not be hard to check on the unusual ones.

Let's let the students have a voice in who their instructors will be.

Robert S. Reece, PEM Sr.

'Twas the Night Before Christmas

To the Editor:

A HINT

'Twas two days before Xmas,
And I wasn't home;
I was still at K-State
Cracking a tome.

The students were still
At the same old grind;
While visions of traveling
Danced in their minds.

They knew that Xmas
Was two days away;
And here we were,
Not yet under way.

From beginning of time,
I did always hear,
That Xmas is when Families are near.

When we finally started,
Which was fairly late,
Before us stood
The figure of fate.

My auto was good,
The driving was fine,
But Xmas passed by
On Route 99.

Now that Xmas is over
And passed along;
We've found a solution
To right this wrong.

Athletic holidays
Are all very fine.
Let's add them to Xmas
To give us more time.

So students, let's gather,
And do this thing right,
So we can be home,
Before Xmas night.

Let This Case Be A Lesson to You

The K-State Tribunal met recently on a disciplinary case involving three male students who were charged with molesting a student-group-sponsored hayrack ride. The three admitted their action and the Tribunal made the following recommendations for disciplinary action to the dean of students:

1. That the three pay for the property damage caused.
2. That the three personally apologize to the offended group, chaperones, and tractor drivers.
3. That the three be put on disciplinary probation for one year.
4. That a letter be sent to the parents of each of the three boys explaining the punishment and circumstances of the case.

These recommendations were carried out by the Dean of Students.

Farm Income Falls But Costs Stay Put

Washington (U.P.)—Farm income dropped four per cent during the first nine months of this year, but farm costs failed to follow suit.

The Agriculture Department yesterday estimated farmers' cash income receipts in the first nine months of 1955 at $19.7 billion. These cash receipts came from a total volume of farm products that was about the same as last year.

The department said prices paid by farmers—including interest, taxes, and wage rates—averaged about the same as last year.

The farmer's plight, shaping up as one of the major political issues in next year's Presidential election, was outlined by the department in its publication, The Demand and Price Situation.

'Emperor' Bao Dai Out in Indo-China

Saigon, Indochina, (U.P.)—South Viet Nam Premier Ngo Dinh Diem polled 99 per cent of the votes in Saigon and its suburbs in the referendum that swept out "Emperor" Bao Dai, the government reported today.

Partial results from the provinces also showed a landslide victory for Diem but full figures were not yet available.

The voting Sunday was on whether the U.S.-backed Premier should replace the absentee "Emperor" as chief of state. Bao Dai has not been in Indochina in years although he was chosen originally by France in hopes he could rally the Communist-threatened nation.

Diem told the United Press today:

"Throughout our history, when the nation was in danger, there was forged a union of hearts and spirits to conquer all obstacles. Yesterday's balloting was precisely such a union of hearts and spirits."

STRIKE UP THE BAND!

Learning the words of all the latest popular songs—as anyone must who wants to amount to anything on campus—becomes more and more difficult. Take last night. I had the radio on for no more than five minutes, and in that time heard two brand spanking new songs—a jump tune called Rock With Me, Hymie and a hillbilly ballad called They're Hanging Ralph T. Sigafos at Cock-crow.

And that's the way it goes. New tunes are absolutely flooding the market. No wonder you're having trouble memorizing all the lyrics.

But you don't have to be dull about it. I mean, when a song is playing and you don't know the lyrics, don't just stand there singing dum, dum, de, dum or la, la, la or vroom vroom. That is very dull. Pick more interesting syllables—like slimp gans or kretch dinkle or mlath roke.

Take, for instance, That Old Black Magic. Let's say you forgot some of the lyrics. Try singing this:

*That old kretch dinkle
Has me in its mlath,
That old kretch dinkle,
That I slimp so gans,
Those icy dinkles
Running down my slimp,
That old kretch dinkle
When your roke meets mine ... etc.*

See? Interesting? What did I tell you?

But knowing the lyrics—or interesting substitutes—is not nearly enough. To really rate on campus, you must also be acquainted with odd and interesting facts about the composers. For example:

1. Irving Berlin's name spelled backwards is Gnivri Nlreb.
2. Rodgers and Hammerstein can only write music while whitewashing a fence.
3. Ludwig von Beethoven's hobby was collecting cold sores.
4. One of our greatest songs was written because the wife of an impecunious composer came home one afternoon with a canteloupe and a dog named Lassie. "Why did you bring home a canteloupe and a dog named Lassie?" said the composer to his wife. "For the baby," she replied. The composer grew angry. "Here we are flat broke," he cried, "and you come home with a melon for the baby, a collie for the baby!" Suddenly, struck by an inspiration, he rushed to the piano and wrote Melancholy Baby.

5. Cole Porter writes all his songs with a popsicle stick on the side of a horse.

6. Hoagy Carmichael's hobby is spelling Irving Berlin's name backwards.

And what does the true music lover smoke? Why, Philip Morris, of corris! Why? Because Philip Morris is a song of a cigarette—a veritable symphony, a melody serene, a tone poem, a cantata, a lied, a chansonette, a fugue of one gentle puff upon another, allegro yet dolce, lively, mild, harmonious.

That's why.

©Max Shulman, 1955

Wildcats To Meet Sooners Saturday

The K-State gridders swing in to action today in preparation for next Saturday's Homecoming game against Oklahoma, after defeating Iowa State Saturday, 9-7.

K-State's margin of victory came on a 39 yard field goal by Jim Rusher in the closing minutes of the third quarter. Rusher had missed a field goal attempt from 20 yards out, in the first quarter and his point after touchdown try in the third quarter was also missed.

For the Wildcats, it was their first conference win of the season against two setbacks. The Cyclones now have one win, one loss, and a tie in conference play.

Iowa State started the game by going 80 yards in 14 plays to do their only scoring of the game. Quarterback John Breckenridge led the attack as he completed four of five passes during the drive, the final pass going 15 yards to Harold Potts for the touchdown.

An intercepted pass by Doug Roether in the third period started K-State to their lone touchdown drive. Roether intercepted a Breckenridge pass on the Iowa State 40-yard line and carried to the 26. Seven plays later Ralph Pfeifer took a pitchout from Bob Whitehead on the two-yard line and went over for the score.

Breckenridge completed 12 of 25 passes good for 130 yards, but the K-State defense gave him trouble by intercepting four passes. The last interception came with less than a minute remaining in the game, when Tony Addeo, Cat halfback, gathered the ball in on K-State's 15-yard line.

With 48 seconds remaining in the game, the Wildcats were able to run out the clock and thus gained their first conference win and second win of the season.

Three Wildcats were injured in the game. Jon Walker received a sprained ankle, Jim Rusher reinjured his right forearm, and Jim Furey reinjured his shoulder. Furey is the only Cat likely to miss the Oklahoma game, Coach Mertes said.

Sooner Streak To 24 Games

Oklahoma ran its winning streak to 24 straight games as it came from behind to take a 56-21 victory from Colorado Saturday.

Colorado started things rolling with two quick touchdowns in the second quarter before the Sooners could get started but the Big Red, with Tommy McDonald and Bob Burris leading the way, roared back to a 21-14 halftime lead and turned the game into a rout in the second half.

McDonald ran his Big Seven scoring lead to 54 points as he scored two touchdowns in the win that probably gave the Big Red their eighth straight Big Seven crown. Bob Burris scored three times on short plunges. Eight Sooners scored as Bud Wilkinson ran 50 players into the game in an effort to stop the second-half scoring thrusts.

Cat Distance Men Lose to Missouri

The Wildcat cross country team lost a 10-23 decision to Missouri at Columbia Saturday. The Tiger team is intact from the squad that finished second in the conference last year.

Keith Bacon of Missouri ran the three-mile course in 15:44.5 to cross the finish line first. He was followed in order by Lynn Roman, MU; Charles Weathers, MU; Tom Fort, MU; Arlan Stackley, KS; Whitney Hicks, KS; Jesse Unruh, KS; Hubert Guest, KS; Glen Taplin, KS; and Robert Kelley, MU.

The Cats next meet will be against the Nebraska Cornhuskers at Lincoln Friday.

After leading the nation in punt returns for the '53 season the Cats did an about face and ranked 8th in punt return defense for the '54 season. K-State opponents were allowed 6.2 yards per punt return.

Coughlin Winner Of Football Poll

Robert Coughlin, TJ Sr, is the winner of this week's Pigskin Prognostication contest. His guess of 14-7 in favor of K-State over Iowa State was five points off the final score of 9-7.

Coughlin was only seven yards off on K-State total yardage of 174 with a guess of 181 yards and picked a total of 174 for the Cyclones, 31 yards short of their 205 yard total.

K-State Foes Lose 6 Games

K-State's opponents experienced a rough weekend, winning in only three games, two of them Big Seven tilts, losing six and tying one.

In Big Seven play Oklahoma fought back from an early 14-0 deficit to beat the Colorado Buffaloes 56-21 in what was probably the title game for the conference. Nebraska also came from behind to spoil Missouri's Homecoming with an 18-12 victory in the other conference game.

In non-conference games involving Big Seven teams, SMU came back strong in the second half to hand KU a 33-14 setback.

In other Saturday games involving Wildcat opponents, Wyoming beat Utah 23-13 on the passing and kicking of Joe Mastrogianni in an important Skyline conference game.

Friday night three Cat foes played with none of them able to win, although Marquette escaped with a 13-13 tie over previously unbeaten Boston College.

In other Friday night action, UCLA defeated Iowa 33-13 and Detroit won over Oklahoma A & M 7-0.

In the UCLA-Iowa game the Hawkeyes made a game of it in the first half before the Uclans got rolling in the last half to chalk up the victory.

Flush Bowl Game Won by Sig Alphas

Sigma Alpha Epsilon rolled over Phi Delta Theta 63-12 in the eighth annual Flush Bowl game played Saturday in City Park. This makes the fourth straight year the Sig Alphas have won the bowl game.

Passes accounted for all Sig Alpha scoring as Jim Pollum and Chad Sims completed seven touchdown passes.

Bob Doebele was the big gun for the winners. He scored four touchdowns and an extra point. Jim Pollum was close behind in the scoring with two touchdowns. Bill Sinderson, Don Taylor, Mike Mullins, and John Costello scored the remaining touchdowns for the Sig Alphas. Sinderson and Darwin Hester each scored an extra point.

The Sig Alphas were consistent in their scoring. They made 12 points in the first quarter, 13 points in the second quarter, 19 points in the third quarter and 19 points in the fourth quarter.

For Phi Delta Theta only Dick Pierson and Sax Stone were able to penetrate the Sig Alpha defense.

The game was more rugged than in past years and as a result many injuries were received. Most serious was a broken collar-bone received by Steve Bressler of the Sig Alpha team.

Darrell Feaker of Phi Delta Theta received a leg bruise and Charles Tuttle of Phi Delta Theta suffered a shoulder separation.

The Sig Alphas added to their steam roller scoring attack, a strong defense. John Tangeman and Jerry Smith were two linemen that made it especially rough for the Phi Deltas to do any scoring.

Aptitude tests for incoming freshmen and transfer students were first established at K-State in 1919. The tests were voluntary for many years.
